Lemmons Leave For New Home In Portland

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lemmon, prominent Medford couple, left this morning for Portland to establish a new residence. The Lemmons have lived here for a number of years and are well known throughout the valley. On Friday evening a dinner party honored the couple. Hosts were members of the Tuesday evening bridge club of which the Lemmons have been members for fifteen years. Dinner was served in the small dining room of the Hotel Medford. The table was attractively centered with a brass bowl filled with holly and brass candelabra containing red candles. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Rolfe, Dr. and Mrs. William P. Holt, Judge and Mrs. Earl B. Day, Mrs. R. W. Sleeter and Dr. Robert W. Sleeter.

Several Visit For Holidays

Lieut. and Mrs. James H. Ashbaugh of Reno, Nevada arrived in Medford Sunday by motorcar to spend the holidays. The young couple will divide their time between the Gould residence on North Peach street and the R. W. Childreth home on South Peach street. Mrs. Ashbaugh is a daughter of Mrs. William E. Gould and the late Mr. Gould and is a sister of Mrs. Childreth. Also visiting in Medford is Mrs. Chester Irish of Los Angeles. She is a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Childreth, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Childreth. Mrs. Brewold is her sister and Mr. Childreth is the visitor's brother. A number of social affairs to honor the visitors have been planned for this week.

Day Home Scene Christmas Party Saturday Evening

The attractive Groveland avenue home of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Day was the scene of a no-host party Saturday evening.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. William Bowerman, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Robertson, Mrs. Robert W. Shepherd, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Graff Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Ben Day, Miss Pat Mayo and her brother Stewart, of Portland. With the exception of the latter two, the guests included members of a bridge club.

Cards were enjoyed throughout the evening and a midnight supper was served.

Miss Mayo, who recently returned to the states from a Honolulu sojourn with her brother and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mayo, were holiday house guests of Judge and Mrs. Earl B. Day. She is Mrs. Day's niece and a prominent member of the college set in Portland.

Alliean Maxwell Named Star Head

Adarel chapter, Order of Eastern Star of Jacksonville elected its officers for the year last week.

Alliean Maxwell was chosen worthy matron, Ira Luman, worthy patron, Faye Peters, associate matron, Frank Knutzen, associate patron, Mattie Luman, conductress, Dorothy Waldron, associate conductress, Leila Shores, secretary, Anna Laughley, treasurer.

Following the meeting Mr. and Mrs. Grant Todd entertained members at their home on the old Jacksonville highway. Stunts and refreshments were enjoyed during the gay affair.

Visitors Feted Christmas Day

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Fuson were hosts yesterday afternoon at their home on Hillcrest road for an open house affair honoring their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Redfield, of Beverly Hills, Cal.

Guests called during the afternoon to greet the visitors from California who have been the house guests of the Fusons during the Christmas vacation.

Also entertaining with open house were Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Stuart who invited in a few friends Saturday evening at their attractive Modoc avenue home.

Eagles Card Party Tonight

The auxiliary of the Fraternal Order of Eagles will entertain this evening at 8 o'clock in their hall at 42 North Front street with the fourth of a series of card parties.

Grand prizes will be awarded this evening and refreshments will be served. The public is invited to attend.

Sandersons Hosts Christmas Day

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Sanderson were hosts to friends on Christmas day at their home on Ross Court.

Dinner guests included the Sanderson's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sanderson, Mrs. Edith Garrett and Mr. and Mrs. Clatous McCredie.

Miksches Hold Open House

The Raymond Miksche home was the scene of Yule open houses both Sunday and Monday as many friends were bidden to drop in for Christmas greetings.
