

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Calls Here—Francis G. Hawkins of Rogue River transacted business in Medford today.

From Trail—W. M. O'Neill of Trail attended to business matters in this city this morning.

From Ashland—E. B. Dicky of Ashland transacted business in Medford today.

Fined $10—Alvin J. Fox, 50, Medford, was fined $10 in city court on a charge of drunkenness.

Fishing Good—Bait fishing for steelheads is "very good" in the Grants Pass area, the Mail Tribune was informed today by Glen Woodriddle, river guide.

Gets Permit—James Walker of 204 North Ivy street was issued a permit by the city building inspector's office yesterday to repair and reshingle his residence at a stated cost of $400.

Henson Ill—R. D. Henson is confined to his home in the Griffin creek district, severely ill with heart trouble. Mrs. Kenneth C. Downing of Spokane, Wash., and James Stanley Henson of Klamath Falls have been called here because of Mr. Henson's illness. They are the daughter and son of Mr. Henson. No callers are permitted.

Dies in Spokane—Mrs. Ida C. Wilson of Jacksonville was today in receipt of word of the death of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Grace Wilson, who died December 10 in Spokane. Mrs. Grace Wilson was well known in Jacksonville and Medford. She was the wife of the late E. W. (Curly) Wilson, a deputy sheriff during Sheriff W. M. Singler's administration.

Driver Operates—A state examiner of operators and chauffeurs will be here from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Saturday to examine persons seeking licenses or permits to operate motor vehicles. Applicants are asked to report between 9 and 5 to the examiner in council chambers on the top floor of city hall. Examinations are held here regularly every Saturday.

Reports Theft—I. E. Jackson reported to city police yesterday that the battery of his car was stolen while the car was parked in the garage at 905 West Tenth street. Precise time of the theft could not be fixed as the car had not been used since a week ago last Sunday. The garage was always unlocked, the report said. A camera and a flashlight in the car were not touched.

Plane Passengers—D. A. Wood arrived this noon by United Mainliner from San Francisco. Mrs. Gipson Driver left by Mainliner for Seattle, Wash., yesterday afternoon. Miss Patricia Clendenning returned from Portland by Mainliner last evening and P. R. Sutter left on the same plane for Phoenix, Ariz., via San Francisco. Mainliner schedules continued to be disrupted today by fog.

Snowing at Lake—Snow was falling in Crater Lake national park at 8 o'clock this morning when rangers gave their daily radio report on weather conditions. A small amount of snow fell during the night. The ground cover at 8 a. m. was 32 inches deep at headquarters. Park roads were open but were covered with the new snow over a layer of hard, packed snow. Tire chains were advised. Cloudy weather prevailed, visibility at 8 a. m. being zero, the rangers said. It was thawing at Union Creek.

Entertain Lions—Miss Dorothy Gore, violinist, and Miss Alice Holembeck, pianist, entertained the Lions club at its weekly dinner-meeting in the Hotel Medford last night. Miss Gore is instructor of music at Pomona college in southern California and Miss Holembeck is supervisor of music at the Lebanon high school. Their program was enjoyed so much that they were compelled to play a number of encores. Herb Sims and Fritz Nissen were guests of Leland Knox. Ray Marti, president, conducted the meeting.

Charlie McCarthy Show Coming

"Charlie McCarthy, Detective" is the joyous New Year's entertainment treat promised for Medford showgoers at the Craterian Theatre Sunday when it will open a three day showing. The stars, of course, are Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy, with Mortimer Snerd, Robert Cummings, Constance Moore, Edgar Kennedy, Warren Hymer and Samuel S. Hinds also featured.

The story presents Charlie as a night club entertainer who gets involved in a baffling society murder and who, with Bergen's aid, solves the mystery after some highly hilarious complications.

As an added hit for New Year's Eve, the Craterian Theatre will present a special midnight matinee at no extra charge to its customers. The feature picture on the late show will have the Weaver Brothers and Elvira in "Jeepers Creepers."

"Tower Of London" Here Thursday

Drowning in a wine barrel is the torturous fate of Vincent Price at the hands of Basil Rathbone and Boris Karloff in "Tower of London", which heads the double bill coming to the New Rialto Theatre tomorrow for a three day run.

Nan Grey, Barbara O'Neil and John Sutton have roles in this terrifying drama of the most fantastic, fiendish character in all history—the story of Richard III and his rise to power as the bloodiest king England has ever had.

"Riders of Black River," starring Charles Starrett, will play as the companion feature.

Nowadays, the average white person, up to the age of 25, has about one chance in 30 of eventually dying from tuberculosis.

Less than two decades ago the chances were twice as great.

Alma Sophin Scheffel, a resident of Medford for the past seven years, passed away at her home, 706 West 6th Street, Dec. 26 at 12:40 p. m., after a prolonged illness.

Miss Scheffel was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, March 23, 1882 and moved with her parents to Butte, Montana when very young.

After spending her early life there she moved to Rupert, Idaho, living there until 1932 when she moved to Medford, living here continuously since that time.

While a resident of this city she has made many friends who will be saddened at her passing.

She leaves to mourn her departure her mother, Mrs. Theresia Scheffel, three brothers, Fred W. Scheffel and Leslie Scheffel, of Medford and Howard V. Scheffel of San Francisco; three sisters, Mrs. F. H. Rogers, and Dee Scheffel of Medford, and Mrs. H. H. Lewis of Boise, Idaho. Christian Science services will be conducted from the chapel of the Peril Funeral Home Thursday at 2 p. m. Interment will take place in the family plot in the Medford I.O.O.F. cemetery. Friends are respectfully invited to attend the services.

Burch Talks—Albert Burch, prominent mining man and one of three members of the governing board of the state of Oregon department of Geology and Mineral Industries, was guest speaker at the regular weekly meeting of the Rotary club held yesterday at Hotel Medford. Mr. Burch spoke regarding functions of the board and organization.
