The Bumsteads—that happy, hectic family of cartoon strip, screen and radio fame—return to the New Rialto Theatre for Sunday and Monday in "Blondie Brings Up Baby", newest of the series based on the popular Chic Young comic strip.

Antelope

Antelope, Dec. 29.—(Sp)—A series of family gatherings marked the Christmas holidays in this community, as in most others.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Martin welcomed their son Lawrence and his wife and daughter, of Medford. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Harper had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Carl Blair and Carl von der Helten.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bigham and daughters and George Mead enjoyed Christmas dinner with Mrs. Bigham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Askew, of Trail. On Monday, the Bill and Elbert Bigham families joined the rest of the Bighams and daughters in a family party at the home of Mrs. Aletta Bigham in Sams Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Anderson and family spent Monday in Central Point with Mrs. Anderson's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Hare.

Mr. and Mrs. Day, Sr., were guests of their son, Luther, and his family on Monday.

Mrs. Louisa Grab left last week for Doris, Calif., to spend the holidays with her daughter, Mrs. Miller, Vern Owens and family, of Klamath Falls, were overnight guests of Mr. Owens' mother, Mrs. Jim Owens, on Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Culbertson and daughter, Barbara, spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Culbertson, of Central Point.

A family party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Davies included Mrs. Christina Miller and Conrad and Cornelius Miller of Elkton, Ore. (Mrs. Davies' mother and brother), also Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Davies and children.

Mrs. R. J. Earl, of Medford, entertained at dinner Christmas eve, having as her guests her mother and sister, Mrs. C. A. and Miss Mabel Thompson of San Francisco and her sisters, Mrs. H. W. Thompson and Mr. Carl von der Helten and their respective families.

Mrs. John Rader of Eagle Point ate Christmas dinner with her daughter.

SOVIET SWITCHES ARMY GENERALS

Moscow, Dec. 29.—(P)—Soviet Russia, whose communiques on the Finnish campaign of late have been of the nothing-important-to-report variety, has switched generals and renewed rigid censorship of foreign news dispatches.

Gen. G. M. Stern, hero of Russia's "vest pocket" war of 1938 with Japanese Manchukuoan forces, was reliably reported chosen as chief of the Leningrad district and of a reinforced red army to fight Finland.

Gen. K. A. Meretskoff, former commander, was said to have been called on the carpet Dec. 22 to explain the lack of impressive successes in the invasion. His dismissal as head of the Finnish drive was said to have followed.

SALES TAX SEEN ONLY SCHOOL AID

Portland, Dec. 29.—(P)—The financial problem facing Oregon's schools can only be met by a sales tax, William J. McKenzie, Portland school director, said yesterday.

McKenzie told the 40th annual convention of the Oregon Teachers' association that new revenue had to be found before Oregon could increase its contribution to schools.

Rex Putnam, state superintendent of public instruction, urged teachers to keep up their fight to have the legislature pass a retirement measure.

EXECUTIONS INCREASE HOMICIDES, IS CLAIM

Pullman, Wash., Dec. 29.—(P)—A 15-year survey of the four largest Pacific coast cities—Los Angeles, San Francisco, Seattle and Portland—shows there is an increase in homicides every time there is an execution for a crime, Prof. R. H. Dann of Oregon State college told the closing session of the Pacific Sociological society convention today.

KLAMATH AIR LINE TALK IS REVIVED

Portland, Dec. 29.—(P)—The establishment of an air route between here and Klamath Falls via The Dalles, Prineville, Redmond and Bend is planned by Oregon Airways.

Harry Stearns, general manager, said the recently reorganized company would start survey flights when weather permitted.

2,000 AUTOISTS APPLY FOR TAGS

In the neighborhood of 2,000 Jackson county autoists have purchased license stickers for 1940, but to date there has been no rush at the sheriff's office, though a steady business has been underway all week.

The state police have served notice, there will be no period of grace, and auto drivers on or after January 1, bearing neither 1940 plates nor temporary stickers, are subject to arrest.

LID TO STAY ON PORTLAND DANCES

Portland, Dec. 29.—(P)—Chief of Police Harry M. Niles heaved a sympathetic sigh today but said:

"Nothing doing. The Sunday blue law will take the jitter out of jitterbugging New Year's eve."

To a dozen persons inquiring about celebrations he replied "The city attorney has ruled against dancing New Year's eve, so we will have to invoke the laws."

Not only that, but he announced an increase in the dance hall patrol for Sunday night.

JOSEPHINE COUNTY HEADS CRITICIZED

Grants Pass, Ore., Dec. 29.—(P)—Josephine county affairs show evidences, Auditor Alfred W. Mundt said in a report public today, of apparent irregularities, unstandardized practices, and actions of doubtful legality.

Mundt investigated county offices, practices and finances at the request of the county court. The 23-page document was almost entirely devoted to criticisms of official actions.

FAUROT WILL BE STANFORD COACH

St. Joseph, Mo., Dec. 29.—(P)—The St. Joseph Gazette said today it had learned from "usually reliable sources" that Don Faurot, University of Missouri football coach, has agreed verbally to taking over the football duties at Stanford but no announcement will be made until after January 1.

On that date Faurot's Big Six championship eleven meets Georgia Tech in Miami's Orange bowl.

Faurot will be paid $8,500 annually by the Pacific coast school, the Gazette said, and is now negotiating for a five-year contract with a sliding wage scale.
