Berkeley Chapel Scene of Wedding Wednesday Noon

A wedding of interest to many Rogue valley friends is that of Miss Pearl Elaine Fawcett and Dr. Robert William Sleeter which was solemnized at noon Wednesday, December 27 in the Little Chapel of the Flowers in Berkeley, Cal. Numerous relatives of both the bride and bridegroom were present at the ceremony and also at the luncheon which followed at the Durant Hotel in Berkeley.

Miss Fawcett is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fawcett, well known residents of Vallejo. After graduating from the Vallejo schools she attended the University of California in Berkeley, where she was a member of the Alpha Chi Omega sorority, and president in her senior year.

Following her graduation she completed the curriculum in social service, and for the past two and a half years has been employed in the Sacramento County hospital. She is the sister of Miss Helen Fawcett, teacher in the Vallejo school department.

Dr. Sleeter is the son of Mrs. Ralston W. Sleeter and the late Dr. Sleeter of Medford. He is a graduate of the University of Oregon at Eugene and the Oregon Medical school at Portland. After interning at the Sacramento county hospital, he took a year of graduate work at the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia, and is now practicing in this city.

For her wedding ensemble the bride chose a beige suit trimmed in brown squirrel, with accessories to match. She wore a corsage of orchids. Walter Fawcett gave his daughter in marriage.

Her only attendant was her sister, who was dressed in blue crepe, with brown accessories. Her corsage was of pink cyclamen.

Richard Sleeter served as his brother's best man.

Mrs. Sleeter was gowned in black velvet, and Mrs. Fawcett, mother of the bride, wore a rust velvet dress. Both Mrs. Sleeter and Mrs. Fawcett wore corsages of gardenias.

After the wedding ceremony a luncheon was enjoyed at the Durant hotel, where pink and white flowers decorated the table. A beautiful wedding cake, which was cut by the bride, was a feature of the luncheon.

Following their wedding trip the couple will establish their home in Medford.

Vallejo relatives of the bride who attended the wedding and luncheon were Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert D. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Mark F. Andrews and Miss Adelaide Grossherr.

Miss Swem Studies In San Francisco

The many friends of Miss Phoebe Swem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Swem, will be interested to know that she is spending a week in San Francisco where she is receiving special lessons on the accordion from Meni Rettl, famed accordion teacher.

Miss Swem motored to the Bay City with Mr. and Mrs. Herman Purucker. They expect to return to Medford by Tuesday.

The local miss is already regarded as an accomplished accordion player and following the lessons from Mr. Rettl, in which she is learning new technique, it is anticipated that she will be even more adept on the instrument.
