

LOCAL and PERSONAL

From Applegate—J. F. Buchley, Harry Malott and sons, Ralph and Everett, and Miss Maude Pool, feature writer, were Medford visitors today.

To Study—Wanda Ray, beauty operator at Mann's beauty salon, left recently for San Francisco to study for two weeks under leading hair stylists. She will resume her work at Mann's upon her return to this city.

Unit to Meet—A regular meeting of the Oak Grove extension unit will be held at the home of A. W. Denney tomorrow morning at 10:30. Mrs. Mabel Mack, home demonstration agent, will attend the session.

Fly Over—The early morning and midnight United Mainliners flew over Medford because of fog here. The forenoon southbound plane came in on time but had no local passengers, depositing only mail and express.

Executives Resume—Karl L. Janouch, supervisor, and H. C. Obye, assistant supervisor of the Rogue River national forest, resumed their duties at their offices in the Liberty building today after enjoying year-end leaves of absence.

Squadron Coming—Third balloon squadron of the U. S. army air corps at Fort Lewis will spend the night of January 9 here. Medford reserve officers were informed today. The men will stay at the Medford armory. There will be 200 air corps officers and men in the unit, traveling in 40 motor vehicles in a march from Fort Lewis to Monterey, Cal.

To Install—Officers of the Kiwanis club will be installed at a luncheon-meeting in the Hotel Medford at 12:15 tomorrow. The club usually meets on Monday but the session was deferred to Wednesday this week because of the New Year's holiday. Thomas Parkinson of Roseburg, lieutenant-governor of the Pacific northwest Kiwanis district, will officiate at the installation ceremony.

Hurt Skiing—Miss Jessie L. Clark of 153 North Oakdale avenue suffered a sprained left ankle in a fall while skiing in Crater Lake national park Sunday morning, park headquarters here announced today. Miss Clark was skiing on Canyon trail at the time of the mishap. She was treated by Dr. Dwight Findley of Medford, who happened to be in the park. She returned home yesterday with Miss Ethel Wilkinson, a park service employee.

Held in Jail—Held in Jackson county jail today for the U. S. government were Irwin Wakefield, 53, of Lakeview, charged with counterfeiting silver coins, and Robert Heil, 26, of Klamath Falls, Lewis McCutchen, 54, of Chilcoquin, Jack Donovan, 38, of Klamath Falls, and Claus Johnson, 54, of Klamath Falls, all charged with selling liquor to Indians. Wakefield was held in $5,000 bail after waiving a preliminary hearing before U. S. Commissioner Lee Watson in Lakeview. The others were held in $2,500 bail each, after arraignment before U. S. Commissioner Bert C. Thomas in Klamath Falls. The defendants were brought to jail here from Klamath Falls by Paul Hanlin, U. S. deputy marshal.

Sentenced—John Enright was sentenced to five days in jail by City Judge Allen D. Curry this morning on a charge of drunkenness. Arthur P. Close, on a drunkenness charge, was paroled to his brother, with the understanding that if the same charge is filed against him within the next month he will be sentenced to 30 days in jail. Carl J. Scott, a transient, said he would leave town when given his choice of getting out or spending ten days in jail. He also was charged with drunkenness.

Ross Transfers—K. D. Ross, manager of the Pittsburgh Paint company store here for the past five years, has been transferred to the Spokane, Wash., store as manager, and plans to leave Friday to assume his duties. Mr. Ross's successor is George Perkins, who arrived here this morning. Mrs. Ross will remain in Medford for several months before joining her husband in Spokane to make their new home. The couple lived in Spokane before moving to this city. Mrs. Ross's son, Billy Porter, left today for Eugene to resume his studies at the University of Oregon.

Back to Studies—Merlin Dow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Dow, and Robert Forsyth, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Forsyth, left last evening by train for Eugene to enter winter term at the University of Oregon. They spent the Christmas vacation visiting their parents here.

Back to College—Russell Ulrich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, and Don and Harry Stanley, sons of Lieut. and Mrs. H. A. Stanley, left recently to return to the University of Washington in Seattle where they are students. They spent the Christmas vacation here with their parents.

Skating Poor—Rangers broadcasting weather conditions this morning said that skating continued poor in Crater Lake national park. The snow, described as "very wet," had settled to 30 inches at park headquarters. Park roads were practically free of snow and tire chains were not needed, the rangers said. Weather this morning was cloudy, visibility poor. Lowest temperature in the night was 28 degrees.

Highway Open—Diamond Lake highway continued open today and no tire chains were needed for motor travel over it. Crater Lake national park headquarters here announced. Rain last week washed most of the snow from the highway. Cloudy weather prevailed today at Union Creek and at Oregon Caves national monument, headquarters reported. There was no snow on the ground at Union Creek.

Marked Rock—Karl Baylor today displayed a marked sandstone rock found in the Wagner creek district. There were black designs on it, the markings penetrating all the way through the stone. Mr. Baylor was certain they were Indian markings and thought they indicated landmarks in southern Oregon, such as Crater lake or Mt. Pitt. Mr. Baylor was trying to find an authority on Indian writing to decipher the markings.

Back from North—Dr. R. W. Clancy, Medford physician and surgeon, was back in his Medford Center building office today after enjoying a month's vacation in Seattle, Wash. Dr. Clancy was accompanied by Mrs. Clancy and in Seattle the Medford couple visited at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dagg. Dr. and Mrs. Clancy returned home Sunday night. They made the trip by motorcar.

Marked Rock—Karl Baylor today displayed a marked sandstone rock found in the Wagner creek district. There were black designs on it, the markings penetrating all the way through the stone. Mr. Baylor was certain they were Indian markings and thought they indicated landmarks in southern Oregon, such as Crater lake or Mt. Pitt. Dramatic Role

Nelson Eddy has his greatest singing role in the starring lead of "Let Freedom Ring," which brings a host of stars to the Roxy theatre for today and tomorrow only. The cast is headed by Virginia Bruce, Victor McLaglen, Lionel Barrymore, Edward Arnold, Guy Kibbee and Charles Butterworth. Nelson Eddy sings ten songs in the musical drama of pre-Revolutionary days.

ENGLAND IS TOLD ACTION VIOLATES PACT AT HAGUE

(Continued from Page One) ment contended "the same rule obtains regarding such correspondence on ships which have been required by British authorities to put into a British port."

The note then concluded: "The United States government regards as particularly objectionable the practice of taking mails from vessels which ply directly between American and neutral European ports and which through some form of duress are induced to call at designated British control bases. This is believed to be a clear violation of the immunity provided by the Hague convention."

The note was sent from the state department, December 22. The assurances requested have not yet arrived.

Wall St. Report

New York, Jan. 2.—(AP)—The stock market nodded cordially to 1940 today and then proceeded to work up a slow-going advance.

The list showed forward leanings at the start of another 12 month stretch, but the ticker tape never really got warm. While gains ranging from fractions to a point or so were well distributed at the close, transfers held to around 600,000 shares for the five hours.

Today's closing prices for 32 selected stocks follow: Al. Chem. & Dye, 176 1/2; Am. Can, 114; Am. & Pgn. Power, 7; A. T. & T., 17 1/2; Anacosta, 30 1/2; Ayn. T. & S. "Fugitive"

Jack Holt has his first big dual role in "Fugitive At Large," which heads the double bill playing today and tomorrow only at the New Rialto theatre. Holt plays a super-crook who takes advantage of his likeness in an innocent engineer just arriving from Chile—commits the perfect crime of the century and sends the other man to prison. In the role of both the crook and the engineer Holt switches makeup and at once changes from the crook with a scar on his face to the perfect neatness of the engineer. Others in the cast include Patricia Ellis, Stanley Fields and Guinn (Big Boy) Williams.

"The Honeymoon's Over," a domestic comedy starring Stuart Erwin and Marjorie Weaver, plays as the companion feature with "Fugitive At Large."

DOWNPOUR CLOGS KLAMATH SEWERS

Klamath Falls, Jan. 2.—(P)—Rain fell in torrents here this morning after a week-end that brought 1.38 inches of precipitation. Storm sewers were unable to handle the huge quantities of water which rolled down the streets here today.

Temperatures have not dropped below 37 degrees here for several days. Mrs. Edith McLeod picked a bouquet of pansies from her garden for the New Year's dinner table.

Portland, Jan. 2.—(P)—Ice presented difficulties to motorists on three major Oregon highways today but elsewhere the New Year moved on in mild temperatures.

Fog and glazed pavements greeted early morning travelers on the Old Oregon Trail and secondary roads in the Pendleton area. The Oregon Motor association reported slippery conditions on the Wapinitia cut-off. A silver thaw handicapped traffic on a 20-mile stretch along the Mount Hood road between Hood River and Government camp.
