

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Ill at Home—H. C. Obye, assistant supervisor of the Rogue River national forest, was confined to his home at 22 Glen Oak Court with a cold today.

Parsons Here—Reginald H. Parsons of Seattle, Wash., and Hillcrest orchards arrived in Medford this morning by train to spend ten days.

Confined—Mrs. Homer Hixon and young son Bruce were today confined to their home at 124 Vancouver avenue with colds.

Back from Trip—Miss Alice Ward of 1280 Sunset avenue and Miss Vera Hale of 311 Vancouver avenue returned last night after visiting for several days in San Francisco and Vallejo, Cal.

Davidson Home—Bill Davidson returned to his home at 32 Ashland avenue this morning by train from Portland where he attended a sales meeting of the Albers company which he represents here.

Texas Flier Here—Ross E. Thompson of Fort Worth, Texas, arrived this morning from Red Bluff, Cal., at Medford municipal airport in his Rearwin plane. He was en route to Seattle, Wash. After his plane had been refueled, Thompson awaited more favorable weather to the north before continuing his flight.

Minor Mishaps—Claude Miles of Eagle Point and Richard I. Simmons of route 4 operated cars that collided at Riverside avenue and 8th street yesterday afternoon, a report on file today stated. Pierre Dougan of Gold Hill and R. M. Burnham of 124 King street were operators of autos that collided in the Grape and Sixth street intersection yesterday noon, according to a report on file today.

New Slacks—The new regulation slacks arrived today for members of Company A, 186th Infantry of the Oregon national guard, and will be issued tonight when the company assembles for its semi-weekly drill in the armory. Men of headquarters company, third battalion, also are to be outfitted with the new apparel, though the company's allotment had not arrived today. The slacks replace the breeches and wrap-around leggings that have constituted standard army apparel for many years but are now viewed as obsolete. Both Medford national guard companies will drill tonight.

Skating Better—Improved skating in Crater Lake national park was reported by rangers in their daily radio broadcast today. Conditions for skating were improved materially by a snowfall of nine inches in the 24 hours ended at 8 o'clock this morning. The snow was described as "normal pack." Snow depth at headquarters was increased to 35 inches. South and west entrance roads to the lake rim were covered with a hard packed snow and tire chains were required for safe driving, the rangers stated. Weather this morning was cloudy, visibility poor. Lowest temperature during the night was 27 degrees.

New Foreman—W. J. Frost arrived today from a state CCC camp in the Vancouver district to succeed J. Ben Doss as a foreman at Camp Applegate. Mr. Doss has been transferred to the state CCC camp at Wimer. Camp Applegate is administered by the U. S. forest service.

Guests from North—Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Obye and baby son Allan of Portland are guests at the home of Mr. Obye's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Obye of 22 Glen Oak Court. The visitors will remain here over the weekend.

Vacation Ends—Miss Maxine Waters of Olympia, Wash., returned to Medford this noon after spending the Christmas and New Year's holidays at her home. She is a clerk at Rogue River national forest headquarters. She returned by United Mainliner from Portland.

Group to Meet—Applegate Valley teachers' study group will convene Friday afternoon at 3:30 in the schoolhouse in Ruch. Bertha Haskins, principal of the Applegate school, will be chairman. Topic for discussion will be "Remedial Reading." All persons interested are asked to attend.

Appointed—The Rev. Father Augustine Meyer, assistant pastor of Sacred Heart Catholic church and Boy Scout chaplain in this area, has been appointed a deacon of honor to Archbishop Edward Howard of Portland for special Boy Scout ceremonies to be held in the Portland cathedral Sunday. Father Meyer, however, said he would be unable to attend the ceremonies. At the Sunday ritual Saint Edward, king of England, will be proclaimed patron saint of scouting in the Portland archdiocese.

Leavitt Returns—E. P. Leavitt, superintendent of Crater Lake national park, returned to his Medford home last night after spending a holiday visit in Fresno, Cal., and Yosemite national park. In Fresno, Mr. Leavitt was a guest at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. A. Wilkinson, with whom his mother, Mrs. Anna Leavitt, had been visiting. In Yosemite he was a guest at the home of another sister, Mrs. Fred C. Alexander. Mr. Leavitt was accompanied to Medford by his mother, who makes her home here, and Mrs. Alexander and her daughter, Donna. Mrs. Alexander and Donna will remain here for a few months. Mrs. Leavitt, who has been ill, was much improved in health, Mr. Leavitt said.

BUTTER FUTURES MAKE NEW GAINS

Chicago, Jan. 4.—(AP)—Butter future on the mercantile exchange advanced today to their best prices in nearly two years as buyers, spurred by bullish supply statistics and weather news, absorbed profit-taking sales. Closing prices were at the session's highs and showed net gains of about 1/2 cent. February contracts, which paced the market, closed at 28 1/2 cents a pound, and January at 28 cents.

Beagle

Beagle, Jan. 3.—(Spl.)—Holiday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Seegmiller were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hiller and Mr. and Mrs. John Burton from Oakland, Cal. The visitors arrived Saturday evening before Christmas and left Monday morning. They were most entertained by Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Seegmiller, the former being Mrs. Burton's father. Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Stallings and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sereyka, mother and stepfather of Mr. Burton. Missionaries of the Judge Rutherford creed were visiting in this community December 24. Christmas holiday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Grant and family were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Grundeland and son Roy of Oakland, Cal., and Mrs. Grundeland's father, Mr. Walden, of Minnesota, and Mrs. Pearl Grundeland, who has been visiting here for a month or so. While here the men folks of the party enjoyed a trip to Crater lake. They left for their home in Oakland December 26. All were sorry to have Mrs. Grundeland go home again. Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Sanderson and son Larry and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Arnold spent Christmas day with home folks, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Arnold and family in Medford. Antioch school children gave a Christmas program which was enjoyed by a large crowd, after which the gifts were distributed by Santa in person and each child received a Christmas treat from the school board. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Seegmiller were on the sick list with the flu but are feeling better again. Cecil Martin is home from Salem for the holiday season with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Martin and family. Merrill Martin is also home for the holidays from Ashland, where he is attending normal school. Little La Verne Seegmiller is ill with the flu. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sanderson, Robert and Ernest, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sanderson and Larry, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sanderson and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Martin and Donnie were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Sanderson and family of Shady Cove. Callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Seegmiller December 21 were Mrs. Pearl Grundeland, Mrs. Earl Grundeland of Oakland, Calif., and Mrs. Walter Grant. Frank Nelson, who has been working in Klamath county, returned home to spend Christmas with his wife and baby Earl. Mrs. Lundy and children have arrived to join Mr. Lundy on their ranch here after an extended trip back east, visiting relatives. Congratulations extended to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. De Armond on the arrival of a fine baby boy born December 19. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Martin and Donnie were Christmas dinner guests at the home of Mr. Martin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Martin and sons of Reese Creek. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Bellows entertained with a Christmas dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Bellows Sr. and Mrs. Mason Lucas and children of Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Marion Bennett and family and Floyd Sherman of Sams Valley and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sanderson of this place. Mr. and Mrs. Mark Amel of Coquille, Ore., visited at the Sanderson home December 29. Jess Richardson of Central Point brought the Amel's out. Mr. and Mrs. Cardwell and family moved during the holidays to a place down in the valley. Lois Bennett of Sams Valley, who has been staying with her sister, Mrs. Lloyd Sanderson for the past two weeks, went home December 29.

BACKACHE?

Try Flushing Excess Poisons And Acid Thru Kidneys And Stop Getting Up Nights. 35 CENTS PROVES IT. When your kidneys are overtaxed and your bladder is irritated and passage scanty and often smart and burns, you may need Gold Medal Hasiem Oil Capsules, a fine harmless stimulant and diuretic that starts to work at once and costs but 35 cents at any modern drugstore. It's one good safe way to put more healthy activity into kidneys and bladder—you should sleep more soundly the whole night through. But be sure to get GOLD MEDAL—It's a genuine medicine for weak kidneys, not from Hasiem in Holland. Don't accept a substitute.

Rialto Stars

Joe Penner is back on the screen, after a year's absence, and this time the funny fellow is playing around with bookies, taxi-drivers, a racing nag with peculiar habits and blondly, lovely Betty Grable in "The Day The Bookies Wept," which heads the double bill opening a three day run today at the New Rialto theatre. Others in the large cast include Thurston Hall, Tom Kennedy and Carol Hughes. "Mountain Rhythm," the newest smash hit from America's Number One Cowboy, Gene Autry, plays as the companion feature with the Joe Penner laugh opus, Smiley Burnette and June Storey support Autry.

"The Housekeeper's Daughter" Pleases Craterian Audiences

One of the gayest and most exciting motion pictures to reach the screen within recent months was unreel last night at the Craterian theatre under the title of "The Housekeeper's Daughter." With a capably chosen cast headed by Joan Bennett, Adolphe Menjou, Peggy Wood, John Hubbard, Donald Meek, William Gargan and Lillian Bond, the new film is a fast-moving, lively romance, smartly fashioned to contain all the elements of entertainment. Miss Bennett, portraying the alluring housekeeper's daughter, leaves her underworld boy friend flat to return to her mother, who works for the socially prominent Randall family. Learning that the family has left town for the summer, the heroine is pleasantly surprised to discover that the young and handsome scion of the family, played by John Hubbard, has decided to stay in town and brave the summer heat. Young Randall is determined to break into newspaper work and he accomplishes this feat very easily by using his father's influence. Aided and abetted by the housekeeper's daughter, he attaches himself to a murder mystery and from then on the new film proceeds at a terrific pace, introducing merry mix-ups and unexpected complications. High comedy is blended with rich romantic interludes, and the gayest scenes of the film revolve around a gang of underworld hoodlums who are scared off by a fireworks celebration.
