SIX UNDER ARREST IN BURGLARY RING

San Francisco, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Three men and three youths were held on burglary charges today in what Captain of Detectives Charles Dullea termed a breakup of the "largest scale burglary ring to operate in San Francisco in recent years."

Police Inspectors Richard Hughes and James Hansen said the six were seized yesterday along with $50,000 worth of stolen jewelry, furs and silverware assertedly taken from 75 San Francisco homes during recent weeks.

The officers said the ring-leader was William Carson, 48, who they described as a former convict at McNeil Island, Wash., Federal penitentiary and Carson City, Nev.

Others seized were booked as: Isaac Lemelstraich, 69, manufacturing jeweler, said to have been a "fence" for the burglars;

Victor Cozzetti, 32, assertedly another "fence"; John Jackson, 18; Tim Skondon, 19, and Tom Ryan, 19, all of San Francisco.
