

FEELING GRAND? SECRET LIKELY IN BAROMETER

If Pressure Rises, Odds for Grouch Are Good, Doctors Find — Health Signals.

Milwaukee, Wis. (U.P.)—Your general well-being as well as the weather may be signaled by the barometer, according to Dr. William F. Petersen, pathologist and bacteriologist at the University of Illinois.

The next time you feel a grouch coming on consult the barometer. It is ten to one, said Dr. Petersen, that the barometric pressure will be going up.

The doctor asserted that air pressure plays an important role in health. Sudden death and even spring fever are some of its effects, he contended.

Reaction Noted
Pain in an abscessed tooth may be due in some degree to high atmospheric pressure; the ability of an athlete to persevere and the tone of his muscles vary with the air pressure; the nervous, mental and even digestive systems react to the stimulus of air pressure.

In normal persons, Dr. Petersen said, high barometric pressure increases the blood pressure and with cold temperatures when the blood runs fast, you feel full of pep. However, when the pressure makes the blood sluggish the effect is to put you in the dumps.

Changes in atmospheric pressure work the hardest suffering on the young, old and sick. Ordinarily healthy, can readily adjust their bodies to outside influences like a thermostat.

Changes Warn
Dr. Petersen said changes in the barometer should serve as a warning to physicians to be especially watchful over their patients.

On the basis of a survey, the doctor concluded that the death rate is in direct proportion to the ups and downs of the atmospheric pressure. Sudden increases or decreases in the pressure, he declared, often will show an adverse effect on patients who appeared to be on the road to recovery and sometimes the shock is so great it causes death.

- 3 cups diced apples
- 1/8 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon paprika
- 1/4 cup diced celery
- 1 teaspoon minced parsley
- Discard crusts from bread and cut into half-inch cubes. Carefully mix with the butter, stirring with a fork. Blend in the rest of the ingredients and lightly stuff the duck. (Make three times this amount for stuffing a goose.)
- Steamed Cherry Pudding
- 2 cups flour
- 4 teaspoons baking powder
- 1/2 cup granulated sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon paprika
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup milk
- 1 1/2 cups seeded red cherries, drained
- 3/4 teaspoon grated lemon rind
- 3 tablespoons fat, melted
- Mix all the ingredients. Half-fill greased molds. Cover tightly and let steam one and one-half hours. Serve hot with cherry fruit sauce.
- Cherry Fruit Sauce
- 1 cup granulated sugar
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup cherry juice (or water)
- 1/3 cup orange juice
- 1 teaspoon grated orange rind
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 1 cup water
- 2 tablespoons butter
- Blend the sugar, flour and salt. Add the juices, rinds and water. Cook slowly and stir constantly until a creamy sauce forms. Mix in the butter and serve warm.

FLORA FINCH, FAMOUS IN EARLY DAY FILMS, DIES IN HOLLYWOOD

Hollywood, Jan. 5.—(U.P.)—Flora Finch, a famous film comedienne of the nickelodeon days, is dead after years of obscurity.

An accidental arm-scratch led to a streptococcus infection which sent her last Saturday to a hospital. She died there late yesterday of blood poisoning and bronchial pneumonia.

Death claimed her a full quarter century after taking the role of John Bunny, her starring partner in many an uproarious comedy, in the magic-lantern period of motion pictures.

With the Finch and Bunny comedy team disrupted by his death in 1915, Miss Finch's popularity declined and there were years of slim earnings.

But for the past decade or more she was back on a regular salary, playing bit and extra roles at Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios.

Never married, she kept her personal history to herself and was chary about telling her age. She must have been past 70.
