Latest "Thin Man" Picture Delights Craterian Crowds A couple of favorites returned to the screen at the Craterian theater yesterday and it looked like all Medford was there to greet them. The picture that brought such crowds is "Another Thin Man," blending laughs with thrills and mystery with mirth in the well remembered and delightful fashion of Nick and Myrna Loy as Nick and Nora Charles.

William Powell Takes Bride

eight-months-old William Poulson. Others in the large cast include Virginia Grey, Otto Kruger, C. Aubrey Smith, Ruth Hussey, North Pendleton, Patrice Knowles and Tom Neal. Asta, the famous wire-haired terrier of the "Thin Man" pair, is also present and as caninely-comical as ever. The story is laid in New York with the murder of a millionaire as its starting point. How shrewd Nick Charles solves the murder, between entertaining his family and rescuing Nora from a Broadway clip joint, makes for a not-notch entertainment.
