

OREGON'S SOLONS GET SETTLED FOR CONGRESS SESSION

Finding Living Quarters in Capital Difficult When Law Makers Flock to City

Washington, Jan. 9.—(AP)—One of the greatest congressional worries and one the folks back home rarely hear much about is that of the members in getting settled in suitable living quarters in the nation's capital.

Senator and Mrs. McNary (R-Ore.) and their five-year-old daughter have been comfortably settled in one of the large hotels since the special session. The senator remained in Washington during the recess at the president's request so he could be here for consultation if a crisis in the European situation arose.

Rep. James W. Mott (R-Ore.) is temporarily housed at the University club, but his family will arrive later in the session. Rep. Homer Angell (R-Ore.) and Mrs. Angell live in a new apartment house southwest of the White House and near the Potomac river. Rep. and Mrs. Walter Pierce (D-Ore.) are making their home, as usual, at the Dodge hotel, across the plaza from Union Station and close to the old house office building where he has his office.

Hull Stubborn, Senator McNary, minority leader, told an Oregon friend he could see no hope of getting Secretary Hull to change his policies in regard to trade agreements.

Writing to R. A. Ward, general manager of the Pacific Wool Growers' association at Portland, McNary said "in my opinion we can do nothing with Secretary Hull about the injustices of these agreements and the indifference with which the agreeing nations violate the terms of the reciprocal contracts."

Wait - Wait - Wait

Mrs. Elinore Herrick (above), New York national labor relations board regional director, who once complained of "OGPU" and "un-American" tactics of the labor board, paused for a drink of water as she testified at the Smith committee hearing at Washington, D. C., that the long delays in handling Wagner act cases in 1937 tended to promote strikes.

$220 CONTRIBUTED TO FINNS' RELIEF BY MEDFORD FOLK

Donations Range From Fifty Cents to Fifty Dollars Say Local Bankers.

Medford citizens, sympathetic toward the plight of Russian-inhabited Finland, have contributed $220.50 to the Finnish Relief Fund for aid to the non-combatants, it was revealed in a check of local banks today.

Donations, which may be made at any of the city's three banks, have ranged in amount from 50 cents to $50, with most of the contributors giving $1 or $2.

In a press release from the New York City headquarters of the Finnish Relief Fund, it was disclosed that donations have been pouring in at the rate of $115,000 a week.

Former President Herbert Hoover, who heads the fund, stated, "every dollar of this money will go for relief of non-combatants in Finland, not one penny going for administrative expenses which are being borne by outside interests."

MEDFORD IS FAVORED BY WEATHER MAN AS EASTERNERS CHILLED

For the third consecutive day Medford today enjoyed mild weather, the temperature climbing to 48 degrees early in the afternoon. Yesterday's maximum was 50 degrees. Lowest during the night was 37. With rain forecast, the weather bureau looked for little change in temperature.

By the Associated Press
Winter jabbed its subzero finger into the nation's mid-section today.

While residents farther north enjoyed comparatively mild weather for early January, early risers in Toledo, Ohio, Indianapolis and Ft. Wayne, Ind., Lansing, Mich., and Columbia and St. Joseph, Mo., found the mercury at zero or below.

The Duluth, Minn., at the head of the Great Lakes, had 16 above while Ft. Wayne, south of the lower end of Lake Michigan, had 5 below.

people would like to treat the British as they are treating "their conquered people."

"But we on our side have no such vindictive designs," he said.

He labeled as a "vicious invention" of German propagandists the thought the British would attempt to annihilate the Germans. He described Germany's policy as a threat and a menace "to the moral standards on which western civilization is built."

Chamberlain declared Britain's mastery of the seas was unimpaired and England was ready to repel any invader from the air.

Air Raid Withheld

"Four months have gone by and the air raids have not come," he said after mentioning blackouts and other precautions. He drew laughter a moment later when he said:

"Some people are disappointed, perhaps."

"I do not consider that the risk of air raids is over or diminished," he said, "and I am certain that we should make a capital mistake if we became lax in our policy or changed it."

KLAMATH JUDGE ATTACKS BOIVIN AS RAIL COUNSEL

Ashurst Takes Two and Half Hours to Charge Grand Jury—Chides Van Winkle

Klamath Falls, Ore., Jan. 9.—(AP)—Quoting Shate, Gibbon, Webster, Shakespeare and others in a two and a half hour charge to the grand jury last night, Circuit Judge Edward B. Ashurst attacked State Representative Harry D. Boivin, Mayor or Clifton Richmond, Councilman Elmer Hosking and Attorney General I. H. Van Winkle.

Ashurst read at length from Governor Charles Sprague's recent address to the State Bar association concerning legislators who allegedly accept retainers from large corporations. He presented the jury with files of cases in which Boivin had appeared as attorney for railroad companies and charged Boivin had used a Southern Pacific pass.

The judge chided Van Winkle for his opinion upholding the purchase of Klamath Falls city property by Councilman Hosking, a transaction which Ashurst attacked as unlawful. He remarked he had not seen Van Winkle quoted in any supreme court decisions and said he was glad Mayor Richmond and Hosking were city officials and not members of the state land board.

Aberdeen, Wash., Jan. 9.—(AP)—Prosecutor Stanley Krause and Chief of Police George Dean announced at noon today the federal bureau of investigation will send G-men to Aberdeen to help solve the murder of Mrs. Dick Law, wife of a prominent CIO leader, who was bludgeoned and stabbed to death in her home Friday night.

At the same time the prosecutor, in answer to questions, said there "might be" some connection between the Law murder and the Mattson kidnap-murder case, and acknowledged that some aspects of the crimes were similar, particularly the brutality.
