

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Roads Slushy—Roads were slushy in the Union Creek district today. Diamond Lake highway was open to The Dalles-California highway but motorists were counselled to use tire chains.

Lindley Pledges—Ted Lindley of Medford recently was pledged to Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity on the University of Oregon campus in Eugene, according to an Associated Press report received here today.

To Attend Rites—D.A.V. and its auxiliary are asked to meet Thursday morning at 11 at Perl's funeral parlor to attend in a group the funeral of Mrs. Mary A. Wycoff, Gold Star mother.

Minor Mishap—Fred B. Leonard of 516 Park street and Charles Campbell of Star route drove cars involved in a slight accident at Main street and Central avenue Tuesday afternoon, according to a report on file today.

Court Citation — Duane G. Zamrila of 19 Crater Lake avenue was cited by city police yesterday to appear in court this afternoon. He was charged with violation of the basic traffic law. Police said Zamrila drove a car at 40 miles an hour through a school zone on East Main street.

Rites Tomorrow—Funeral services will be held at 11 a. m. tomorrow in Afton, Okla., for Paul Lancaster, brother of Mrs. H. Barnhart of 722 Dakota street. Mr. and Mrs. Barnhart are in Afton to attend the services in leaving left here by train last Saturday night after receiving word of Mr. Lancaster's death. Mr. Lancaster was killed in an accident last Friday evening. Details of the tragedy have not been received here.

Plan Building—Charles F. Rose of Portland, regional architect of the U. S. forest service, and Karl L. Janouch, supervisor of the Rogue River national forest conferred today on plans for the reconstruction of some old buildings in the Union Creek. The two men went to Union Creek to inspect the buildings that are to be converted to new uses. The reconstruction work is to be done by the CCC. Mr. Rose arrived here from Portland last night by motorcar.

Plane Passengers—Robert H. Evans left by United Mainliner last night for Seattle, Wash. Mrs. Ruth May of Klamath Falls left by Mainliner for Los Angeles last evening. Elmer Herried and son Don departed for Portland by Mainliner yesterday afternoon. Today's forenoon and early morning Mainliners flew over Medford because of low clouds. The morning plane from the south was late and arrived over the field about the same time as the forenoon plane from the north. Last night's midnight Mainliner also flew over Medford because of low clouds.

Reservists to Meet — Rogue River chapter of the Reserve Officers association will hold a regular semi-monthly assembly in the Medford armory tomorrow night. The schedule calls for pistol firing and instruction at 6:30 and a class in military action at 7:30. The class will be instructed by Lieut.-Col. H. C. Dempewolf, regular army officer on special duty at Eugene. Study of "mobilization" will be continued. Motion pictures of army training and mobilization will be shown. All reserve officers residing or visiting in southern Oregon are invited.

Driver Quiz—Persons seeking licenses or permits to operate motor vehicles will be examined here as usual Saturday. A state examiner will be in council chambers on the top floor of city hall from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. and applicants are asked to report to him. The customary written quiz and road tests will be given. To pass the tests it is necessary to be familiar with traffic rules and regulations as explained in the state motor vehicle manual. Copies of the manual may be procured without cost at city and state police headquarters, the sheriff's office and the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce.

In Hospital—Miss Josephine Koppes, office secretary of the Jackson county health department, was confined to Community hospital today with a cold.

Unit To Meet—Roxy Ann extension unit will meet at the home of Mrs. Eugene Nowling on Spring street Friday from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. Local leaders, who will demonstrate care and styling of the hair, ask that members bring to the meeting the necessary articles such as comb, brush, curlers and pins. All women interested in learning individual hair styling are invited to attend. A pot luck luncheon will be served at noon.

More Park Snow — Seven inches of snow fell in Crater Lake national park during the night, increasing the ground cover at headquarters building to a depth of 61 inches. The snow was described as "wet" and skiing was listed as poor. Park roads were open but covered with snow 1 to 4 inches deep and tire chains were advised. Weather was cloudy, visibility poor, the rangers stated. Lowest temperature during the night was 27 degrees.

Girl Improving—Elaine Winkle, 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Winkle of 113 Willamette avenue, was reported by her attending physician today as improving from a head injury she suffered when her bicycle was struck by an automobile Monday morning. The doctor stated she would probably be able to leave Community hospital in a day or two and return to her home. The girl sustained a brain concussion when a car driven by LeRoy F. Cline hit her bicycle in the 1200 block on East Main street, reports stated.

MARY J. WYCOFF TAKEN BY DEATH

Mary Jane Wycoff, 67, beloved resident of Medford, where she has lived for the past 12 years, passed away at her home, 345 North Bartlett street, at 7:15 a. m. Tuesday, after a prolonged illness.

Mrs. Wycoff was born in Tippecanoe, Ind., on May 27, 1872. She spent her early life in Indiana, was educated there, and was united in marriage to Simon Dawson in 1891. Mr. Dawson passed away October 14, 1914. She was later united in marriage to Bert Wycoff in 1916. He passed away Nov. 12, 1935.

She lived in Medford since 1926, and has many friends who will be grieved to learn of her passing. She was a Gold Star Mother, her son Hollis Dawson, being killed in action in France during the World war.

She leaves to mourn her departure, two sons, Roy Waggoner, Superior, Wis., and Ray Dawson, Appleton, Wis., four daughters, Mrs. Ethel Saas, Marshfield, Ore., Mrs. Vern Lofquist, Olympia, Wash., Mrs. Fay Sauer, Medford, and Mrs. Hilda Berrian, Copco, Cal. Two brothers, David Waggoner and Oliver Waggoner, both of Indiana, also survive.

Funeral services will be conducted from the chapel of the Perl funeral home Thursday at 11 a. m., with Rev. R. W. Coleman, pastor of the First Christian church, officiating. Interment will take place in Jackson cemetery. Friends are respectfully invited to attend the services.
