The Grange

Central Point Grange

First regular meeting of the year for Central Point Grange was held Friday with large attendance. The meeting was preceeded by a pot luck dinner. Business meeting opened with officers seating drill. The surprise previously announced proved to be an angel cake offered as a prize. Upon the acceptance of the resignation of the steward, Donald Smith was elected to the position. A splendid New Years program was presented by the lecturer, Edyth Bohnert.

The membership has been divided into two sides for an attendance contest. Those with last names beginning with letters A to L inclusive are on side one and all others on side two. The court found side two ahead by nine counts, so it will be necessary for the other side to put forth more effort.

Visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Al Floyd, Jacksonville; Mr. and Mrs. John Holst, Sams Valley, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Schmidt, Fairmount.

BENNETT UNABLE TO MAKE USUAL GIFT OF ANNIVERSARY APPLES

N. S. Bennett, widely known resident and owner of the Eden Valley nursery, came from Iowa to Medford with his wife 50 years ago yesterday but he was unable to follow his custom of marking the occasion by passing out apples to his numerous friends.

For the first time on this anniversary, Mr. Bennett lay ill in bed at his home, 937 North Central avenue. Today he worried lest his friends wonder why he did not call on them yesterday with his gift of apples. But now, friends are going to see him, for they remember his friendly greetings in past years when he was able to get around.

Since his wife died a number of years ago, Mr B.ennett has lived alone. With him during his present illness, however, are his two daughters, Mrs. Cora B. Carlson of Oakland, Cal., and Mrs. E. J. Pace of Greenville, Cal. Mr. Pace also is here at present.

During his years in the nursery business here, Mr. Bennett has provided the trees that have started many an orchard. He is a life member of the Elks lodge.

LAGGARD DRIVERS RECEIVE $1 FINE

The sheriff's office estimated today 10,000 auto license stickers had been issued by them since January 1 to Jackson county motorists. It is figured approximately 3,000 secured this year's plates direct from the secretary of state at Salem.

The rush is about over but tardy citizens continued today to purchase stickers.

In justice court yesterday, Leonard E. Wood of Murphy road, Grants Pass, and Clarence E. Powell, route 1, Medford, were each fined $1 and costs for not having 1940 license plates or sticker. Each were given time to pay.

Kirby S. Sanders of Phoenix was fined $2.50 and costs for non-possession of an operator's license.
