DEFENSE OUTLAY IS DEFENDED AS PEACE PROGRAM

Roosevelt's estimate of $8,424,000,000.

House passage yesterday by 252 to 131 of the Gavagan bill making lynching a federal crime had been anticipated, but southern Democrats in the senate announced they were determined to filibuster the message to death.

Oppose Budget Survey Although no revenge was involved, house Democratic in-fighting simultaneously hung up a red light against the Harrison resolution to create a joint congressional committee to comb all budget recommendations, including those for defense, before any appropriation or tax measure is passed.

The senate adopted this proposal yesterday without a roll call. Administration leaders in the house took the view the survey might be all right for future congresses, but the house has several supply bills ready and they do not intend to hold them up for a joint inquiry.

Meanwhile, the house appropriations committee was reported to have voted secretly against letting any of its subcommittees exceed the president's spending recommendations.

Many congressmen saw in this move an attempt to show that the separate budget inquiry proposed by Senator Harrison (D., Miss.) would be unnecessary. The action followed a trip to the White House by the house Democratic steering committee, whose members reported Mr. Roosevelt told them to stay within his budget so that the national debt limit of $45,000,000,000 would not have to be raised.

M·J·B WHY?
"We found the answer in a snowstorm..."

1 We were skiing cross country, miles from anywhere, when it started to snow. We lost our way and floundered around for hours. Believe me, we were scared stiff. And then we stumbled on a trapper's cabin half buried in the drifts.

2 I dug through the drift with a ski. Luckily the door was unlocked so we fished right in and made ourselves at home. There was food on the shelves and an unopened can of coffee. We started a fire and put the coffee on the stove. Maybe it was because we were tired and cold, but that coffee tasted wonderful. It had a deep, rich flavor like rare old wine.

3 "What kind of coffee is this?" I said. "Look at the can, silly," laughed the wife. "I've been telling you about M·J·B's Richer Roast for years, but you wouldn't let me change. Remember?" "You win," I said. Next morning the storm had passed so we left some money and the wife scribbled a note: Many thanks from two orphans who discovered your cabin and M·J·B!"
