

ETTA L. BARNES TAKEN BY DEATH

Mrs. Etta L. Barnes, for many years a resident of Medford, passed away in a local hospital early Monday morning after a lingering illness. She was born in Mendon, Mich., 83 years ago. On November 17, 1879, she was married to Major E. L. Barnes. The major portion of their life was spent in Great Falls, Mont., where he was engaged in mining and iron manufacturing, and where he passed away in 1920. Mrs. Barnes came to Medford for the benefit of her health.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Winnifred Robertson, of Great Falls, and Mrs. Bessie Ayer, of Akron, Ohio, and six grandchildren.

Mrs. Robertson, who was enroute to visit her mother at the time of her death, will accompany the body to Great Falls where final services will be held next Monday and interment made in the family plot in Highland cemetery.

Mrs. Barnes was a member of the Presbyterian church of Medford and the Merritt Circle. Dr. S. L. Divine and the ladies of the circle with other friends, will gather at the Southern Pacific station at 7:45 tonight to see Mrs. Robertson off on her sad journey. Peris are in charge of funeral arrangements.

AMY B. DIERCOFF PASSES, AGED 68

Amy Belle Diercoff, 68, a resident of Medford since last June, passed away at 515 West Second street at 8:15 p. m. Thursday after a two-year illness. Mrs. Diercoff was born in Illinois, Nov. 18, 1871. She spent the greater portion of her life in Illinois and was united in marriage there to Roy Diercoff 43 years ago.

She is survived by her husband; one son, Floyd Diercoff, of Lebanon, Ore.; two daughters, Mrs. L. M. Holland, of Compton, Calif., and Mrs. E. E. Jordan of Medford.

Remains will be forwarded this evening to Lebanon, Ore. for service and interment, Peris funeral home in charge.

BOY SCOUTS VISIT CAMP PRESCOTT

Boy Scout troop eight visited Camp Prescott on Roxy Ann Tuesday evening. Twenty Scouts made the trip which was conducted by Lieut. A. Basile of Camp Prescott.

The Scouts were shown the camp, hospital and the isolation room for contagious diseases, the leaders headquarters and the forest service rooms.

The Scouts were shown the blueprints of Bear Creek park south of the fair grounds.

Next part of the visit was through the mess hall and the camp bakery, the camp barracks, and education building. The education building is where the men in camp can study.

The Scouts expressed their thanks for the courteous treatment while visiting the camp.

'PHONE COMPANY HONORS V. WILSON

V. T. Wilson, well-known Medford combination man for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, recently was honored with the presentation of a gold emblem representing 20 continuous years of service with the telephone company.

The emblem was presented by Charles Jordan, district equipment superintendent, at a meeting of the southern Oregon force of the telephone company's plant department.

All of Mr. Wilson's telephone career to date has been in Medford, his first job being with the old Home Telephone and Telegraph company.

UPRISING MARKS ECUADOR BALLOT

Guayaquil, Ecuador, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Jose Maria Velasco Ibarra, apparently defeated as a presidential candidate, led an uprising of army sergeants and 30 soldiers at the military aviation field this morning, but the insurrection was quickly suppressed.

Velasco Ibarra was arrested, along with Major Rafael Astudillo and Flores Milo, a Guayaquil broker.

Velasco Ibarra was one of three candidates for the presidency in elections held yesterday and the day before.

On the basis of early returns Velasco Ibarra, a former president, was running second to Carlos Arroyo Del Rio.

CONVICTS IDENTIFIED AS SLAYERS OF TRIO

Fort Towson, Okla., Jan. 12.—(AP)—A Sawyer, Okla., farmer identified two prison camp convicts today, Sheriff Roy Harmon said, as the slayers of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rogers and their son, Dean, 4, whose bodies were taken from the burned ruins of their home New Year's eve.

Harmon said the farmer, Houston Lambert, 28, signed a statement that the convicts, Frank Wellman and Floyd Carpenter, held him up and forced him to drive them to the Rogers home.

VERNSTROM NEW EDITOR OLD OREGON MAGAZINE

Eugene, Ore., Jan. 12.—(AP)—Roy Vernstrom, undergraduate student from Portland, will succeed William L. Pease, member of the class of 1939, as editor of "Old Oregon," University alumni magazine, it was announced today on the campus. The change will take place February 1, Alumni Secretary Elmer Fansett said.

Pease has been offered the editorship of "The Oregon Motorist."

Gets Tips

Los Angeles—(AP)—Dr. D. E. Beaman, addressing the American Pressive Chiropractic association here, bluntly told housewives how to do their work, if they want to avoid ills that result purely from the nature of their work and their wrong way of doing it. His panacea was "rest more, eat five small meals a day instead of three big ones, pile up your dishes for the entire day and then do them at one dish washing session."
