Party Is Given For Recent Bride

The Misses Neva and Vera Childreth entertained Tuesday evening at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Childreth on West Eleventh street.

The affair was a miscellaneous shower complimenting Mrs. John Hardon (nee Thelma Humpton), a recent bride.

Various games were played during the evening, after which refreshments were served.

Those enjoying the pleasant affair were Nita Steverson, Doyla Huntley, Esther Hobbs, Henrietta Moss, Thelma Mardon and Dorothy Gillette. Mrs. Mardon received many lovely gifts at the party.

Party Honors Mrs. W. Harris

Mrs. Wayne Harris was complimented by members of her club at her home on Haven street last evening with a surprise shower party.

Guests included Mesdames John Wilkinson, Oliver Hughes, Bill Knips, Jack Boyl, La Vern Reich, Dick Wray and Glen Watson and the Misses Jerry Wilkinson, LaVerne Stevenson and Peggy Reter.

Bridge was enjoyed throughout the evening.

Wrays Hosts to House Guest

A visitor at the GeBauer apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Wray is Bob Orme of Victoria, B. C.

Mr. Orme was a school mate of Mr. Wray when the two attended the University of Oregon in Eugene. He is en route home from southern California where he spent the holidays and attended the Rose Bowl game in Pasadena on New Year's day.

Lodges Install Officers Monday

On Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock the Rebekah and Odd Fellows lodges of Medford will have a joint installation meeting in the I. O. O. F. hall.

W. W. Hittle, district deputy grand master and installing officers of Gold Hill, assisted by Miss Caroline Leaders, district deputy president of Medford, will install the local officers.

Following the meeting, refreshments will be served. All lodge members and their wives and husbands are invited to attend the session.

College Women Meet Saturday

The Rogue River Valley College Women's club will enjoy its annual luncheon tomorrow at 1 o'clock at the Hotel Medford.

The program will have to do with American Art. Mrs. E. E. Gore is the social chairman. Reservations may be made by phoning Miss Vera Humphrey, 1463-M.

Musical Society To Meet Monday

The Medford Musical society will convene Monday evening for a regular session at the home of Mrs. E. E. Gore, 116 Geneva street.

A business and social time will be in order with an informal musical program also being presented.

P. T. A. Activities

Of interest to every mother in the County Parent-Teacher meeting to be held in Eagle Point Grange hall Wednesday, January 17. The meeting will begin at 10 a. m. The Grange and Parent-Teacher association of Eagle Point will serve luncheon at a nominal price. The morning will be devoted to the business meeting and unit reports. In the afternoon there will be four conference groups led by county chairmen. There will be split group discussion on the following subjects: Finding the middle way in discipline.

The importance of fine arts in the life of the child, led by Miss Yette Olsen, teacher in the Eagle Point school.

Character building through education, led by Geo. H. Fields, district educational advisor for C.C.C.

All members who can possibly attend are to contact their unit president for transportation.

Nile Daughters Meet Saturday

Zuleima Temple, Daughters of the Nile, will convene tomorrow in the Masonic Temple in Ashland.

Luncheon at the Plaza Cafe in the Lithia city will precede the regular session. A committee will be appointed and plans formulated for the ceremonial which will be held in this city February 10.

Mrs. Lenore Kellom, Zuleima queen, will preside at the meeting.

The local organization is busy making plans for the visit here of the Supreme Queen, Roxie Mathis of San Antonio, Texas.

Two Speakers Address Meet

The Girls' Community club was the scene of the regular meeting of the Toastmistress club Wednesday evening. Miss Margo Boyle acted as toastmistress.

Using as their subject, "Women and Democracy," the Misses Valeria Whitney and Violet Wood presented various phases associated with the topic. An interesting discussion followed.

Eleven members were present at the session.

FOG, SNOW AND ICE GENERAL IN STATE

Portland, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Fog, snow and ice prevailed today as freezing temperatures spread more generally over Oregon.

Only five of 14 cities reporting to the federal weather bureau recorded temperatures above freezing. Fog blanketed most Willamette valley sections, although Portland was cloudy.

Bend, on the central Oregon plateau, reported the lowest temperature today, 13 degrees.

Other minimum readings included: Baker 24 degrees, Brookings 38, Burns 19, Eugene 31, Hood River 31, Lakeview 28, Medford 36, Newport 36, North Bend 37, Pendleton air port 24, Portland 32, Roseburg 35, Siskiyou summit 24.

All major highways remain open with the exception of the McKenzie pass.

SPAIN AND ITALY HELPING FINLAND

Paris, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Spain, Italy and southeastern European countries are shipping war materials to embattled Finland through France, an official spokesman said today.

"The material from these countries is considerable," he said, adding volunteers also are en route from them to join the Finnish forces.

Observers understand the Spaniards were sending the Finns German and Russian guns which opposed each other in Spain during the civil war.

PIGGLY WIGGLY MAINTAINS RIGID STANDARDS OF QUALITY

"If you can't trust your meat man, you'd better trade elsewhere"—that is an old, old saying, but it still applies. And that's why we at Piggly Wiggly go to such trouble to maintain such rigid standards of quality, first of all in our meat department, and secondly, throughout the whole store. We believe that we merit your complete trust. Try us and see for yourself.
