

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Vilas Visits—George Vilas of Seattle, Wash., is spending a week here visiting his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth E. Vilas, and his brother, E. P. Vilas and family.

Watkins Here—R. E. Watkins, Standard Oil company of California manager at Eureka, Cal., was a business caller here today.

On Business—H. F. Reed, associated with the Tye Mining company of Idaho, and O. H. Horner of Seattle, Wash., transacted business here today.

In Hospital—Friends here today awaited word from Everett G. Trowbridge who went to Portland by train last Tuesday night to enter St. Vincent's hospital for an operation.

Hart Home—Floyd Hart, president of the Timber Products company, returned by train this morning from San Francisco where he transacted business for several days.

Meeting Tomorrow—Regular meeting of the Intermediate Teachers council will be held at 11:15 a. m. tomorrow in the Jackson county courthouse auditorium. Guest speaker will be Miss Marion Ady of the Southern Oregon College of Education faculty who will speak on "Creative Art." All who are interested in the program are invited to attend.

Holbrook Better—Frank J. Holbrook of 1012 East Jackson boulevard, who underwent an operation in Sacred Heart hospital recently, was reported by hospital attendants today to be improving rapidly.

Council To Meet—Upper Grade Teachers council will convene Saturday at 8:45 a. m. in the county courthouse auditorium. Mrs. Ursula Ogle, leisure arts teacher of the Jackson school, will be the guest speaker. Subject will be "Art."

Enright Sentenced—Thomas J. Enright, 45, was found guilty in a city court trial yesterday afternoon on a charge of drunkenness and was sentenced to 10 days in the city jail. He had pleaded not guilty after being arrested by city police Wednesday.

Receives Sentence—State police have received word that Willis S. Turpin, 46, of Medford, arrested here last November 18 and charged with selling liquor to Indians, has been sentenced to serve eight months in a federal road camp and fined $10. Turpin appeared before Judge James Alger Fee in federal court in Portland.

Unit To Meet—Medford extension unit members are asked to note the change in the time of meeting from Wednesday to Monday in the county courthouse auditorium at 1:30 o'clock. Mrs. Mabel Mack will present the second of a series of talks on weight control. No refreshments will be served and a short business session will be held with Mrs. Rita Meyers, chairman, presiding.

Dinner Guests—Mrs. Riley D. Hensen and son James were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Childs of Griffin Creek Wednesday evening. The guests motored over from Klamath Falls Wednesday morning. They have been residents of Griffin Creek the past few years.

Cancelled—This week's rehearsal of the Jackson County Teachers chorus has been cancelled. The director, Esther Church Leake being out of town. Usually the chorus rehearses each Saturday morning in the Jackson county courthouse auditorium. Rehearsals will be resumed January 20.

On Schedule—United Mainliners were back in operation through here today after a short disruption in service caused by fog up and down the coast. With the exception of this morning's early northbound Mainliner, all planes have been operating on schedule since yesterday afternoon. This morning's northbound plane, due here at 4:52 a. m., was held at Oakland, Cal. for several hours because of fog around Portland. It arrived here at 11:25.

Investigators—John Arkell, special officer at the Klamath Indian agency, called here yesterday before returning to his station. He had been in Ashland to investigate the case of Ethel Jackson, 12-year-old Klamath Indian who, police said, shot herself in the left shoulder at her home Tuesday morning. The girl made the suicide attempt, police stated, because she was ashamed of the poor grades she was receiving in the Ashland junior high school. The shoulder wound was not considered serious.

Have Baby—Medford friends of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McGinnis of Portland will be interested to know that a baby girl was born to them early Thursday morning. Mrs. McGinnis has often visited her brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Bishop, at their home at 2303 Hillcrest road here. The family was particularly pleased with the baby as this is the first girl born to immediate members of the family, the others all being boys. The McGinnises are also the parents of a boy, about 18 months old.

Enrolled—Seven Jackson county men were enrolled yesterday afternoon at the fairgrounds in the civilian conservation corps. They were Clyde R. Paris, Harvey Thayer, Victor Lehman, Charles Cramer, Claude Cox, Richard Frye and Virgil Palmer. With the exception of Palmer, who will be cook at Camp South Fork, the enrollees will go to Camp South Umpqua Falls. Also enrolled yesterday were two men from Josephine county, two from Douglas, five from Klamath, one from Lake and two from Siskiyou county.

In Jail—Three men were held in Jackson county jail today awaiting disposition of federal charges that they sold liquor to Indians. The men were listed as Robert F. Holstein, 52, a Minnesota Indian residing at Chiloquin, John Nelson, 58, of Klamath Falls and Gust Peterson, 58, of Chiloquin. They were brought from Klamath Falls to the jail here last night by Paul Hanlin, U. S. deputy marshal. Each was held under $2,500 bail after hearings before U. S. Commissioner Bert C. Thomas in Klamath Falls. Peterson is charged as a second liquor sale offender and his case will go therefore automatically to the federal grand jury. The other two were listed as first offenders and they will be arraigned directly in U. S. district court on informations.

Returning Home—Paul A. Brinson, district ranger in charge of the Butte Falls district of the Rogue River national forest, was expected to arrive home tonight from Wallace, Idaho, where he spent the year-end holidays with relatives. Mrs. Brinson will continue her visit in Wallace and go from there directly to the Brinsons' new home in the Skykomish district of the Snoqualmie national forest in Washington. Mr. Brinson has been promoted to the Snoqualmie forest position and will leave for his new post January 21.

Sea Drama Craterian's Feature

A boy and a girl whose love and courage defied a world that said it couldn't be done and helped achieve that triumph of the first trans-Atlantic crossing by steam, are played by Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. and Margaret Lockwood in Frank Lloyd's "Mutiny on the Bounty." Lloyd's "Rulers of the Sea," Lloyd's new epic of the sea, which co-stars the handsome young American leading man,

"Return of Dr. X" Here Sunday

Rosemary Lane would rather, by the expression on her face, have pleasanter things to look at than the grim Humphrey Bogart in this science from "The Return of Dr. X," which comes to the New Rialto theatre for Sunday and Monday only. Starring Wayne Morris with Miss Lane and sinister Bogart, "The Return of Dr. X" carries the further activities of infamous Dr. Xavier who returns to carve upon his foes. Bogart has the role of the surgeon and Morris is seen as the man who trapped him and sent him to his doom. "The Bad Little Angel," starring Virginia Weidler, Ian Hunter, Guy Kibbee, Henry Hull and Gene Reynolds, will play as the added feature with "The Return of Dr. X."

Flare Tips—A signal flare at construction work at South Fir and Ninth streets tipped over last night and set fire to a nearby plank. The fire department's chemical crew put the blaze out. Damage was negligible.

La Grande Airport Lacks Fund Sponsor

La Grande, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Ability to find a sponsor's $3000 share apparently has doomed the La Grande airport project. Dr. C. L. Gilstrap, state aeronautics board member, said today. The WPA and the civil aeronautics authority agreed to contribute to the $98,931 project but the attorney general held union county participation illegal. Dr. Gilstrap said unless the problem is solved, the aeronautics authority will withdraw a $5000 offer and abandon the plan.
