CALIFORNIA 'DEFENSE' REPULSES BOMBERS IN SAN FRANCISCO SECTOR

San Francisco, Jan. 17.—(AP) General staff of the "blue" army at Monterey, defending California from a "black" invasion, received word today attack planes were launched from an aircraft carrier off Avalon, on Santa Catalina island.

Invading bombers, initiating what was believed to be the opening attack in the biggest mimic war games ever staged by combined navy and army, roared over San Francisco at 7:50 a. m., headed toward Oakland.

But Major Charles M. Myers, commanding the aircraft warning headquarters here, said anti-aircraft and aerial defenders had 18 minutes warning of the approach, and apparently repulsed the attacking "black" bombers.

The warning came from watching and listening outposts of the 400 military and civilian observers throughout the state.
