HUMANE SOCIETY GARDEN BEAUTIFUL

One of the valley's most attractive informal gardens is located at the Humane Society grounds on Midway road and particularly at this time of year is a splash of beautiful hues. Nucleus of the gardens is a half block, square of ground containing masses of German bearded iris of pale bluish lavender hue; salmon Sweet William, bronze snapdragons, rose colored stock and numerous other blossoms. Bordering the square like a tall hedge are Paul Scarlet climbing red roses, masses of sweet smelling Spanish broom and shrubbery of varying kinds. The red roses intermingled with yellow broom make a truly exquisite picture. Surrounding the buildings and other parts of the yard are huge old lilac bushes, wisteria and towering birch, locust and apple trees.

An invitation is extended to the general public to view the Humane society gardens at any time.
