By CLARA MARY DAVIS

Jenes Jensen's Marriage Date Set for June 25

Mrs. John Jensen entertained for her niece, Miss Jenes Jensen, bride-elect of Norman Moty, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. N. Moty of Klamath Falls, at her home on Park street last week, at which time the couple's marriage date was announced for June 25.

Guests enjoying the affair were Mesdames Jens Jensen, Earl York, Don Dutton, Frank Beers, Harry Beasley, John Wilkinson, and the Misses Jerry Wilkinson, Jeanette McKee, LaVerne Stephenson, Everetta Gillespie, Ruth Hill, Patricia Thompson, Helen McDonald, Polly Lindley, Maureen Carlton and Jane Russell.

Cards were played during the evening with prizes being won by Mrs. Beers, Miss Wilkinson, Miss Gillespie, Miss McDonald and Miss Lindley.

The wedding date was announced in clever fashion by a calendar crossword puzzle.

Scene of the ceremony in June will be the Sacred Heart Catholic church in this city.

The popular young Medford miss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jens Jensen, received her early schooling at St. Mary's academy in this city. Later she attended Maryhurst college in Oswego.

Mr. Moty, who resided in Medford until moving to Klamath Falls about five years ago, attended the University of Portland.

Petersons Hosts At Recent Party

Mr. and Mrs. John Peterson were hosts for a recent delightful birthday party at their home on Capital avenue, honoring Mrs. Oscar Peterson of 511 Bessie street. The honoree received many lovely gifts.

Other birthdays observed at the event were those of Mary Vincent and Alfa Peterson.

Games and refreshments were enjoyed during the affair. Forty-two guests were present.

Mrs. Young to Have Recital

On Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, at the First Christian church, a group of Mrs. Lois Young's students will present an informal program of piano numbers.

Friends and others interested are cordially invited to attend.

Visits Parents Here

Mr. and Mrs. Allyn A. Monroe are visitors here for several days at the home of Mrs. Monroe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Roberts on Crown Hill. Mrs. Monroe (above) is the former Miss Dorothy Roberts. The couple's wedding of last year took place in the east and this marks their first visit to Medford since that time. They expect to leave tomorrow evening by plane for their home in Beverly Hills, Cal.

Bride-Elect Feted At Shower Party

Miss Janette Thrill was hostess for a kitchen party last week at her home on West Second street honoring Miss Audrey Metzger whose wedding to Lawrence Hankins will be an event of June.

Guests included Alice Ray, Betty Willey, Mrs. Eudora Smith, Avonnie Rae, Mrs. Marion Felter, Mrs. Katherine Crawford, Virginia Preston, Madeline Metzger, Mayme Durkee, Rae Sparks, Mrs. Riley Cook, Mrs. Robert Forbes, Jean Smith, Audrey Metzger, Mrs. Clyde Taylor, Marguerite Luman, Ruth LeClerc.

Miss Metzger received many beautiful gifts and refreshments were served.

Mrs. Seiler Is Hostess to Club

The Past Presidents' club of the Degree of Honor Protective association was entertained last week at the home of Mrs. John Seiler. After the business meeting games and other entertainments were enjoyed. Refreshments were served buffet style from a table attractively decorated with flowers and blue and yellow tapers. Miniature maypoles topped the centerpieces for the small tables, the streamers leading to hand-painted placecards.

Those present were Mae Denman, Carrie Chase, Katherine Smith, Bessie Caldwell, Edith Elliott, Matilda Dietrich, Adabelle Seiler, Hattie Bradshaw and the hostess, Mayme Seiler.

Hogan Home to Be Meets Scene

Mary-Martha circle of the Methodist church will meet Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the home of Mrs. M. N. Hogan, Sikkiyou court. Susan Campbell will be the assistant hostess and Mrs. W. W. Walker will give the devotion. Mrs. Frank Weighill will give the program.

Senior Girls Honored At Tea, Reception

The beautiful Valley View road home of Mrs. C. Reese Braley was the scene of a tea Wednesday afternoon, honoring members of the senior class of the Medford high school. Hostesses were members of the Medford chapter of the American Association of University Women who entertain annually with such an affair.

In the receiving line were Miss Sue Moshberger, Miss Vera Humphrey, Mrs. Braley, Miss Gertrude Butler and Mrs. Robert Shepherd. Assisting about the rooms were several members of the senior high school class and Miss Esther Wilcox, Mrs. Aletha Vawter and Mrs. Walter E. Flinn.

Presiding alternately at the tea table were Mrs. Don R. Newbury, Mrs. Allen Smith, Miss Catherine Campbell, Mrs. Leonard Mayfield, Miss Alice Spurgin and Mrs. Silas King.

Beautiful floral arrangements were about the rooms and decorated the tea table. In charge of the flower arrangements was Mrs. Frank P. Farrell. General chairman of the successful event was Mrs. Glenn L. Jackson.

Musical selections were presented on the program by Leo Miksche and June Jarmin and members of the junior high school girls' trio, composed of Clara Daniels, June Jarmin, Helen Webb and the school sextette.

Miss Helen Leach was director and Roger Wolf accompanied on the piano.

Clever scrolls tied with pink and blue ribbon formed commencement congratulatory favors to the senior guests of honor. They were made by Miss Esther Wilcox.

Many Enjoy Guild Musicales Event At Collins Home

Crater Lake Guild of the Presbyterian church held its annual musicale last week, at the home of Mrs. Cornelius Collins on East Main street. The house was charmingly decorated with spring flowers and formed a lovely setting for the performing artists.

The following program was presented:
Impromptu.....Reingold
Scotch Poem.....MacDowell
Phoebe Swem, piano

Plaisir d'Amour.....Martini Chanson.....Godard
Minnelied.....Brahms
Anna Pundt, contralto

Prelude in C Minor.....Chopin
Fantasia Impromptu.....Chopin
Rondo in Five Parts (original).....Riley

Saville Riley, piano
O Lovely Night.....Ronald
My Lover Is a Fisherman

Vienna, City of My Dreams (original).....Strickland
Anna Pundt

Impromptu.....Schubert
Puck.....Grieg
Saville Riley, piano

Miss Swem, one of the city's talented younger musicians, played with a skill and feeling that might well belong to an older artist. Mrs. Pundt's voice has a depth and richness of tone that is most appealing, and her concert manner is charming. Miss Riley plays with a fire and power seldom seen off the concert stage, and her interpretations are sympathetic and sure.

The program was enjoyed by the large number of members and their guests present, and at the close of the evening's entertainment refreshments were served by Mrs. Collins, assisted by Miss Betty Willey, Miss Vera Humphrey, Mrs. James A. Warde, Mrs. Hans Hoeflein, Mrs. Harold Larsen and Mrs. Vyri Walker, Miss Humphrey and Mrs. W. E. Tummy, founder of the guild and an honorary member, presided at the refreshment table.

Campbell Home Scene of Tea

The women of the northeast division of the Methodist church were guests at a tea at the home of Mrs. Frances Campbell on East Main street, Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Helen Pierce sang a group of three songs, accompanied by Mrs. Doris Lantz. Piano solos were played by Harriet Walker, Eleanor Meeker and Joan Luttrell sang duets, accompanied by Mrs. C. A. Meeker.

Mrs. Charles P. Johnson presided at the tea table which was attractively decorated with roses. About 25 guests called during the afternoon.

Carpenters to Have House Guests

Expected to arrive today from their home in Pasadena, Cal., are Mr. and Mrs. William Witmer, to be the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter at their Old Stage road home, "Topsides."
