

"Dr. Kildare's Strange Case" Opens Three-Day Run At Craterian Today

BRILLIANT CAST IN NEW MYSTERY 'KILDARE' DRAMA

Lionel Barrymore, and Lew Ayres Stars—March of Time on Program.

The romance behind the walls of a great hospital and dramatic moments of a life and death struggle mingle in the newest of the popular medico-detective "Dr. Kildare" stories, "Dr. Kildare's Strange Case", which opens a three day run today at the Craterian Theatre. With Lew Ayres and Lionel Barrymore again in their familiar roles as the impetuous young interne, Dr. James Kildare, and the eminent diagnostician, Dr. Leonard Gillespie, the story revolves about a supposed incurable psychiatric case.

After Kildare has refused a tempting and highly remunerative life-time post in a private sanitarium, he returns to his hospital and is assigned to surgery. His first case is an accident victim, demanding immediate brain surgery. His patient comes out of his coma hopelessly insane, and Kildare's friend, Shepperd Strudwick, is held responsible for having bungled the operation.

Taking matters in his own hands, Kildare does a little detective work and administers insulin shock treatments to restore the patient to mental normalcy. Though he refused to let Dr. Gillespie or even the head of the hospital, Dr. Carew, know what he is doing, Ayres goes ahead, brings the patient out of insanity and thereby clears himself and the surgeon friend.

Based upon further adventures of Dr. Kildare, the picture presents many dramatic highlights, including the picturization of the successful insulin shock treatment and the re-

Dorothy Lamour In "Typhoon" Here Wednesday

White arms, red lips, black pearls and lashing waves bring "Typhoon", the greatest adventure film since "Hurricane", to the Craterian Theatre Wednesday for a four day run. Teamed for the first time in films, lovely, sarong-clad Dorothy Lamour and handsome Robert Preston have the romantic starring roles in this technicolor South Seas adventure. Others in the large cast include Lynne Overman and J. Carrol Nash.

Miss Lamour plays a girl, sarong-clad Dorothy Lamour cast away on a deserted island when she was ten—who, when grown, drifts to a nearby island inhabited by a derelict navy officer—the outcome of which is said to be the most actionful and beautiful story ever told in technicolor. The underwater swimming shots are a highlight of the film.

wrench, and Marie Blake as the gum-snapping telephone operator. A new "Crime Doesn't Pay" subject titled "Know Your Money" is also on the bill opening today at the popular Central street showhouse. Based upon the bulletins sent out by banking houses of the country, "Know Your Money" is a short drama built around the workings of counterfeiters and their million-dollar rackets.

The latest war news from Europe rounds out the well-groomed program.

Jones Family Coming To Rialto

More trouble comes into the lives of America's favorite screen family—the Jones Family—in their new and most uproarious film "On Their Own", which heads the double bill coming to the New Rialto Theatre for Wednesday and Thursday. According to advance reports, they're a scream as they try to retrieve the family fortune—and this time, without the help of Dad. Featured in the popular family are Spring Byington, Ken Howell, George Ernest, June Carlson and Billy Mahan.

Where there are beautiful women there's bound to be romance—and so it is with "And One Was Beautiful", which plays as the supporting feature with "On Their Own". Robert Cummings, Laraine Day and Billie Burke feature in the later—a Saturday Evening Post story by Alice Duer Miller.

Carroll plays the woman in the case and young Jones plays a romantic singer who is also in love with the boss of Allen's Fifth Avenue. Little Carolyn Lee nearly steals the show, according to advance reports, and Letting down her lovely blonde hair with a vengeance, Madeleine Carroll, acknowledged by many to be the screen's most beautiful woman, stars with Allan Jones and Fred MacMurray in "Honeymoon in Bali" which opens a three day run today at the Roxy Theatre.

In "Honeymoon in Bali", Fred is cast as an adventuresome lad, just returned from Bali, who believes that the proper place for a woman is in a man's arms and not at the head of a Fifth Avenue department store. Miss does steal it as far as laughs are concerned. Others in the romantic comedy include Akim Tamiroff, Helen Broderick, Astrid Allwyn and John Qualen. "Jeepers Creepers", a good old down-to-earth hill-billy comedy, starring the Weaver Brothers and Elviry, plays as the second feature and a Walt Disney Donald Duck cartoon filmed in technicolor, "Donald's Penguin" plays as an added treat on the big program.
