Wall St. Report

New York, May 20 — (AP-U.S.) — Wall Street seemed a bit less worried over the war today, although still far from confident, and selected steels and other stock market leaders pushed up 1 to 3 points before encountering opposition. Lack of real momentum in the forward reversal was a fly in the ointment. The ticker tape frequently loafed and the turnover of around 1,200,000 shares was the smallest in a week or so. Horse Sense

Lima, O. — (AP) Howard Carey's horse is a lot smarter than some automobile drivers. While Carey was delivering milk, the horse became frightened and ran a block and a half, with Carey in hot pursuit. Then the horse came to a busy intersection. The traffic light was turning red. Dobbin slid to a halt on all four.

Too Quick

Tulsa, Okla. — (AP) — Dreaming a burglar was about to grab him a 22-year-old filling station attendant jumped from his second-story bedroom window. He was seriously injured when he struck on the concrete alley 20 feet below.

Large Berries

Bert Somerson of Talent was in Medford today displaying a crate of extra-large strawberries he grew on his three-acre ranch. The strawberries are called Red Hearts because of their solid coloring throughout. Mr. Somerson said he obtained the seeds for the luscious berries from the Tualatin Nursery company in northern Oregon.

NEW MANAGER AT REMODELED SIXTH STREET SAFEWAY

Max Millhollin, former produce manager of the sixth and Bartlett Safeway, returned to Medford from Klamath Falls to take over the management of the store. Manager Burt Moore resigned Saturday to accept a position in Seattle.

Mr. Millhollin left here in February for Klamath Falls. He has been with the Safeway organization five years. Mrs. Millhollin and their nine year old son Teddy have moved to Medford.

"I feel fortunate," Mr. Millhollin said, "in being appointed manager of the Sixth and Bartlett street store because I like Medford. I received the surprise of the life when I walked into the completely remodeled and redecorated store. We can display Safeway's many new lines of quality foods to best advantage here."

The Sixth and Bartlett store has been undergoing alterations for the past month. All of the wall shelves have been changed to carry a larger stock and new wide aisles now run the length of the store.

The interior is white with black trim and the exterior is yellow and red. New shopping buggies will be here this week. Everything has been arranged for quick and easy selection, according to Manager Millhollin.

SPANISH REFUGEES FIND NEW HOMES IN LATIN AMERICA

Mexico, D. F. — (AP) — Latin America has taken more Spanish refugees than Russia, according to figures released here by Constancia de la Mora, former chief of the press division of the republican government of Spain.

Senora de la Mora, whose husband was chief of aviation for the loyalists, is in Mexico assisting the Spanish refugee committees in their task of resettlement of thousands of fugitive Spaniards.

The committees have officially registered 6,000 refugees in Mexico, she said, in addition to which there are 2,000 unregistered persons who have entered the republic through the assistance of relatives, or by their own means.

According to her figures there are between 3,000 and 4,000 more in all other Latin American countries, led by Chile with 2,500. She estimated Russia today had received 8,000 Spanish refugees, 6,500 fewer than in Latin America.

Russia offered to take all the veterans and all the children of the loyalists, she said, but the committees preferred to send many of them west.

"Of all the refugees in the world, the Spanish refugees are the luckiest," she said. "Senora de la Mora said there were still 180,000 of her people refugees in France. She criticized the French government for the treatment many of them were getting, allegedly in concentration camps, and charged that others were being pressed into service in labor gangs."

Latest Dr. Kildare Picture Pleasing Craterian Crowds

Dramatically presenting the first picturization of the method of restoring insane patients to normalcy, "Dr. Kildare's Strange Case", latest of the "Dr. Kildare" pictures, opened at the Craterian Theatre last night for three days.

Fourth of the dramatic hospital stories, with Lew Ayres as the impetuous young interne, Dr. Jimmy Kildare, and Lionel Barrymore as the irascible but great diagnostician, Dr. Leonard Gillespie, "Dr. Kildare's Strange Case" concerns itself with Ayres' lone-handed fight to prove that a surgeon-friend is unjustly accused of performing a delicate brain operation that caused madness in the patient.

The picture presents the first picturization of the use of insulin shock treatment to restore a person out of insanity and bring him back to mental normalcy. Dramatic highlights of the feature include the actual administration of the insulin shock treatment, the reactions of the patient following the treatment and a bird's-eye view of a delicate brain surgery.

In the name role, Ayres again is convincing, impetuous and earnest in the characterization. Still, he manages easily to inject whimsical touches that have made the Kildare character a lovable one. As the great diagnostician, Lionel Barrymore seems to be effortless in his acting. He is Dr. Gillespie to the core. Laraine Day is again seen as Nurse Mary Lamont, in love with Ayres, desirous of being his wife but realizing that his judgment to become a great doctor like Gillespie is far more important than their own lives.

George Raft Tops Billing At Rialto

The gala opening of two "swell" motion pictures yesterday at the Motion Rialto Theatre proved to be an exciting event in the career of the popular Main street theatre. Not only is "The House Across the Bay" which headed the double bill, a top-notch motion picture, but it has a story which is positively one-hundred percent audience entertainment. With George Raft in one of his punchiest and most exciting roles in years and Joan Bennett giving the best performance of her outstanding career, "The House Across the Bay" is without question one of the most important pictures to come out of Hollywood in many a moon.

"The House Across the Bay" is the story of Brenda Bentley, a beautiful and alluring woman, who is left in a hostile world when her husband is convicted for income tax evasion and sent to Alcatraz in the San Francisco Bay.

ore laugh-applause was given to Bob Burns' newest home-spun picture, "Alias The Deacon", which plays as the added feature with the Raft-Bennett epic. Mischa Auer plays opposite Burns in the fun hit.
