Grandma Murrey, a real pioneer of Medford, has had a long useful life, full of hope, faith and love. Her life has been a living example of a true Christian. Her bright smiling face shows forth a heart full of love.

She has suffered hardships and had sorrow, yet still has a sweet smiling face, a heart full of divine love and understanding. She has let her light shine abroad to all that know her, and all realize that she had gained wisdom from above, and had meditated with the Master who once walked on the shores of Galilee.

Grandma Murrey, we love and honor you.

COUNTY DRIVE FOR RED CROSS FUNDS UNDER WAY TODAY

Millions in Need
Washington, May 22.—(P)—The American Red Cross speeded up its campaign for a $10,000,000 war relief fund today after receiving word that between three and five million Belgian and French refugees were fleeing terror-stricken toward southern France.

Wayne Chatfield Taylor, European delegate of the organization, telephoned National Chairman Norman H. Davis from Paris.

"It is impossible to exaggerate the refugee problem. There are probably 5,000,000 men, women and children homeless. The impact is staggering, but the Red Cross is in there pitching."

Asked how many civilians had been injured, Taylor told Davis that a "rough estimate" would be 150,000 killed or wounded.

Executive committee members and their aides took to the field today to raise Jackson county chapter's quota of $2400 in the American Red Cross campaign for $10,000,000 to bring some degree of relief to the suffering victims of the European war.

As the committee members went into action, the Red Cross office here continued to receive urgent pleas from national headquarters telling of the almost unbelievable suffering especially among non-combatant men, women and children. In a telegram to the office here, Red Cross headquarters asserted that large numbers of ambulances and medical and surgical supplies are needed urgently and that the Red Cross is striving to supply these as fast as money is received.

Nazi Forces Head for British Channel

Reports of German troop movements indicate that Nazi forces have veered their drive across France and turned toward the British channel. Five Nazi mechanized divisions were reported driving westward between Peronne and Cambrai (swastika arrow) toward channel ports. Successes were claimed by nazis in Belgium (4) west of Antwerp and Brussels. The allies, according to reports, were massing huge forces at Valenciennes (1), Reihel (2) and Rheims (3) for a pinners counter-offensive (white arrows) against the 50-mile deep German salient in French territory.

Ben E. Harder as Campaign Director

Ben E. Harder as campaign director, will contact all business, industrial and professional offices and plants in the Medford area. Each service club named a member to the five-man executive committee.

Meantime Mr. Harder continued to organize rural communities of the county so that all sections might help in the Red Cross campaign, first organized drive held here since 1923.

Central campaign headquarters were established today at the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce and persons desiring to contribute voluntarily, to procure information or to offer their services as workers in the drive may now call there.

Mr. Harder emphasized the desirability of raising the quota quickly so that the helpless victims of the war may receive the basic assistance they need so urgently without agonizing delay. He implored everyone to contribute in accordance with his means.

Obligation Stressed

In answer to the question of some who ask if American funds should not be kept here in case this country becomes involved, the Red Cross office emphasized that it is the obligation of civilized people to help their fellowmen when they are in need. Other countries contributed to their Red Cross societies generously even when they were certain they were to be drawn unwillingly into the conflict. It was pointed out, Belgium being cited as a little nation that sent $1,000,000 to Finland for war relief when she, herself, was under the very shadow of the giant war machine. There are no valid reasons, it was declared, for nullifying humanitarian impulses.

Musical Concert Enjoyed; Year's Activities Lauded

By Mrs. E. E. Gore
The Public Spring Concert at the high school auditorium Monday night under auspices of the Medford Musical Society marked the close of an interesting and constructive series of public social and musical activities, undertaken by this organization under leadership of Mrs. Charles W. Lemery, president.

Feeling the need of very definite, concerted community musical effort, organization, plans were started in the late summer and early fall of 1939 and now the society numbers more than 100 members. The homes of Mrs. Lemery, Mrs. J. C. Boyle, Mrs. A. J. Loeffler, Mrs. Bruce Bauer, Mrs. M. N. Hogan and Mrs. E. E. Gore have been open for both social and business meetings and a Christmas program was given for the public in December. The group did definite work in an attempt to stimulate interest in the annual artist concert series, Donald Dixon, baritone; Ossy Ren-

Violinist and Marian Anderson, mezzo-soprano, and also for the musical pictures "Moonlight Sonata," and "They Shall Have Music," and all other musical pictures.

Due to Mrs. Lemery's magnetic and enthusiastic activity a strong spirit of co-operation has been maintained among local music lovers and also between the organization and the splendid groups developed in the public schools.

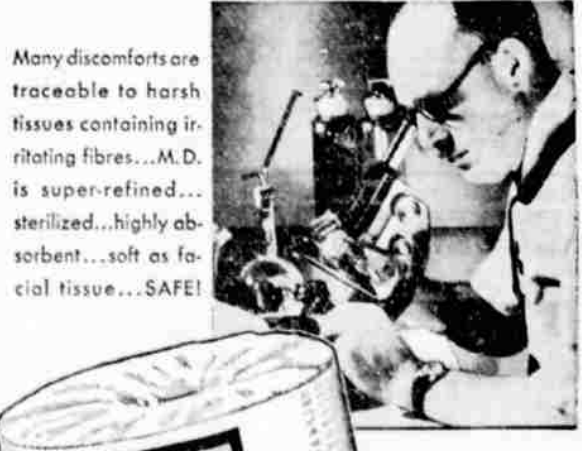

The delightful monthly musical programs have been representative of the unusual talent resident in the valley.

Closing event of the year is a business meeting, at which time election of officers will take place, and picnic at the home of Mrs. Porter Neff, June 24. An interesting program is also being prepared.

The program Monday night was presented by F. Cyril San-
