Lady Lions Treat Firemen For Aid on Christmas Toys

The Lady Lions last night treated the city firemen to a waffle dinner at fire headquarters as a token of their appreciation of the firemen's cooperation in the annual Christmas toy project.

Before the evening was over, however, it was really the Lady Lions who were entertained. To begin with, the firemen had just sat down to the first round of golden, hot waffles when the fire alarm sounded and there was a mad scramble for the poles. Mrs. Ray Marti, Lady Lions president, said today the girls were still trying to figure out how the firemen vanished so quickly in getting out to the fire.

It was just a grass fire and the firemen lost no time in putting it out so they could get back to their waffles.

After dinner the Lady Lions were guided about fire headquarters and shown how everything works, including the inhalator used in cases of submersion and suffocation. The evening was topped off with some tennis on the firemen's courts.

"We went to the fire hall to entertain the boys with a waffle dinner, but really it was the Lady Lions who were entertained," said Mrs. Marti. "It is an interesting experience to be shown around fire headquarters and more of our citizens should stop by and see for themselves how the department is run.

"Everything at the fire hall is just as neat as a pin. It wasn't because the hall was tidied up just for us, either, because I was there numerous times when we were getting toys together last Christmas and it was always that way. The men are to be commended for their neatness and efficiency."

The Lady Lions took the materials for the dinner and the electrical equipment for cooking it to the fire hall where the meal was prepared and served. "This was to show our appreciation of the splendid cooperation we received from the firemen last Christmas in our toy project," Mrs. Marti said. "The firemen did an exceptionally splendid job in rebuilding and repainting the old toys and in addition they went out of their way to do numerous courtesies for us. We want them to know we are grateful and the waffle dinner was just an expression of our gratitude."
