FARMERS GUESTS AT ROTARY MEET

It was "Farmers' Day" at the luncheon meeting of Medford Rotary club today at Hotel Medford, and a number of Rotarians brought farmer guests to enjoy a special program arranged by Tom Wray. A feature of the entertainment was a series of sleight-of-hand tricks performed by John Eaco, Medford magician. Burton Isaac, Medford high school drum champion, also presented three drum numbers.

In the preliminary portion of the program, Dr. Charles Lemery, club president, arranged for a series of fines for club members which netted more than $25 for the current Red Cross campaign. Lee Bishop discussed briefly the war in Europe and gave some highlights of an interesting article published in London last January, predicting various events which have since transpired. George Gates, program chairman, assisted in planning details of today's "Farmers' Day" entertainment.

LOCAL COUPLES GET RENO WEDDING PAPERS

Reno, Nev., May 27.—(AP)—Marriage licenses issued late

"Rebecca" Coming To Craterian

Between Judith Anderson, housekeeper at Manderley, and Joan Fontaine, the bride its master brings home, is the unseen shadow of "Rebecca", hovering—always hovering over the household, a shadow of impending doom, wrapping Manderley in a shroud of nameless terror. "Rebecca", directed by master of mystery Alfred Hitchcock, and starring Laurence

"Gang Buster"

Fay Bainter, popular character actress, has her most important role to date as that of the gang-buster in "The Lady and the Mob", which comes to the Roxy Theatre for tomorrow and Thursday, as the added feature with "Spirit of Culver".

Funniest Role

"The Ghost Comes Home", featuring Frank Morgan in one of the funniest roles of his career, is the feature attraction heading the double bill opening for today and tomorrow only at the New Rialto Theatre, with Morgan as a small-town store-keeper tangling with night club high life and the problem of spending a million dollars on his home town amid tribulations galore. The story deals with a timid pet-store keeper who, after being supposedly dead in a shipwreck, returns home to find his family gleefully spending his insurance money, and trials and complications keep up the hilariousness until he exposes the local banker and becomes the town's Number One Hero.

Billie Burke heads the large supporting cast as his wife. Others include Ann Rutherford, Nat Pendleton, Reginald Owen, Donald Meek, Frank Albertson, Harold Huber and Hobart Cavanaugh.

The newest and best of the "Saint Series", based upon the romantic and detecting escapades of Simon Templar, "The Saint's Double Trouble", in which the star, George Sanders, plays both the Saint and an underworld figure, plays as the companion feature with "The Ghost Comes Home".
