Merle Oberon In Sunday Film

Merle Oberon is the ill-starred beauty of "Til We Meet Again," coming to the Craterian theatre Sunday for a three-day showing, with George Brent co-starring and Pat O'Brien, Binnie Barnes, Frank McHugh and Eric Blore featured in the supporting cast. Adapted from the story, "One Way Passage," the picture is set against the background of a trans-Pacific luxury liner and has for its theme the romance of a girl afraid of the future and a man afraid to face his past. She is under sentence of death from a heart ailment; he knows that when the ship docks in San Francisco he will be taken to San Quentin to pay the death penalty for murder. Each tries to spare the other the knowledge of their fate.

Linda Darnell In Rialto Show

Lovely Linda Darnell, the most promising star on the movie horizon (who skyrocketed to fame after her co-starring role with Tyrone Power in "Day Time Wife"), and handsome John Payne are a couple of plucky small-town youngsters scrapping for their place in the Hollywood sun in "Star Dust," which stars Linda at the New Rialto theatre for Sunday and Monday. Based upon the greatest of all modern ballads, "Star Dust," by Hoagy Carmichael and Mitchell Parish, the new film tells an exciting story of two "finds" who go to the movie capital and experience every emotion from heart-break to fame. Others in the cast include Roland Young, Charlotte Greenwood and Donald Meek. Two new song hits and the popular "Star Dust" are featured. "Gangs of Chicago," featuring Lloyd Nolan and Lola Lane, is scheduled to play as the companion feature with the Darnell opus.

Klamath Falls, May 31.—(P)—Willis (Doc) Fisher, 28, was killed while driving a tractor at Bear mountain yesterday when a log knocked him from the seat of the tractor. Fisher is survived by his widow and a daughter at Keno and by his mother, Mrs. W. C. Woolfolk at Grants Pass.

"Flying Deuce"

Oliver Hardy joins his hilarious co-star, Stan Laurel, in "The Flying Deuces," newest of their happy hits to play at the Roxy theatre for today and tomorrow only.

Gene Autrey and Smiley Burnette have co-starring roles in "In Old Monterey," which plays as the companion action feature with the Laurel and Hardy comedy.

King Leopold III Prisoner Of War

Berlin, May 31.—(P)—King Leopold III of Belgium is a prisoner of war, an authorized German source disclosed today, and it is unlikely that under that status he will be permitted to name a new Belgian government.

The statement was made in response to questions concerning Leopold's status in view of the disagreement with his emigre government.

U.S. Communists Aid German Brothers

New York, May 31.—(P)—Despite the alliance between Soviet Russia and Nazi Germany, the Communist party of the United States is sending money to its German counterpart to aid "in its fight against the Hitler regime," the party's national convention was told today.

LEMERY'S LEAVING SATURDAY ON AIR JOURNEY TO CUBA

Dr. and Mrs. Charles W. Lemery plan to leave Saturday evening at 6:15 by United Mainliner for Havana, Cuba to attend a Rotary club international convention.

The trip is unique in the fact that they will travel on the majority of air lines in the United States. From the local airport the couple will travel to Los Angeles where they will embark on an American Airways sleeper bound for Fort Worth, Texas. From the latter city, the Lemerys will proceed to Jackson, Miss., on the Delta line, and from there to New Orleans on the Southern Lines. Riding on a National Airlines plane to Jacksonville, Fla., from New Orleans they will fly to Miami on Eastern Airlines and from there will go by Pan-American Clipper to Havana, arriving June 5.

Enroute home they will fly from Miami, Fla., to Chicago via Eastern Airlines and to Seattle on the Northwest line. In Seattle the couple will again board United for the trip to Medford on June 16. Dr. Lemery is president of the Medford Rotary club.

MOBILE INFANTRY DIVISION PLANNED

Washington, May 31.—(P)—The war department says that a new division of highly mobile infantry will be organized at once with headquarters at Fort Benning, Ga.

The division will be known as the Fourth, and will be commanded by Brigadier-General Walter E. Prosser. General Prosser now is on duty with the infantry section of the Sixth division at Fort Warren, Wyo. He will leave at once for Fort Benning.

The new division is the last to be formed of six streamlined divisions previously planned. They are largely motorized.

Richmond, Va., May 31.—(P)—The largest restitution of back pay in the history of wage-hour litigation has been agreed on by the Atlantic Coast Line railroad.

The action arises out of a consent decree signed by Federal District Judge Robert N. Pollard in Richmond.
