EVANGELIST ENDING MASS MEETINGS AT HIGH SCHOOL TODAY

Dr. Oscar Lowry, evangelist, concludes his southern Oregon evangelistic campaign today. At 2:30 p. m. he will conduct the closing evangelistic mass meeting in the Medford senior high school on South Oakdale. A number of churches in and about Medford are cooperating in the service.

Dr. Lowry for a number of years was on the teaching staff of Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. He knew D. L. Moody personally.

Dr. Oscar Lowry.

 The evangelist has given more than a quarter century to union and special tabernacle campaigns in the states, Canada and overseas. He is also an author of wide repute, sales of his publications running into about 10,000 volumes.
 During his recent campaign in Medford, N. D., in one Sunday mass meeting there were 73 professions of faith and at the end of the fifth week Sunday, there were 42 professions of faith. He has witnessed as many as 140 professions of faith in a single service.
 A great mass meeting is anticipated at the high school this afternoon. The public is cordially invited.
