

Merle Oberon In "Til We Meet Again" Opening Today At Craterian

GEORGE BRENT IS CO-STAR IN STORY OF TENDER LOVE

"Til We Meet Again," co-starring Merle Oberon and George Brent, opens today at the Craterian theatre. Featured in the stellar cast are Pat O'Brien, Geraldine Fitzgerald, Binnie Barnes and Frank McHugh.

The story begins in Hong Kong. At the Bar of All Nations, Dan and Joan, (the roles played by Brent and Miss Oberon), meet over a cocktail. It is a hall and farewell meeting, for she is sailing back to San Francisco immediately. They part, and Dan runs straight into the waiting hands of Steve Burke (Pat O'Brien), a detective who has trailed him all over the world since Dan, had escaped on his way to San Quentin. So Dan and Joan meet again on the boat, but she doesn't know he's a prisoner, for Burke allows him the freedom of the ship. He, on his part, doesn't know that she has a heart ailment which may cut off her life at any moment. Both know, however, that every moment they have together is breathlessly important.

Linda Darnell In "Star Dust" Heads Rialto's Program

Boasting what has been called the most original entertainment idea in years, "Star Dust," starring lovely Linda Darnell in a thrilling story that might well be the story of her own exciting rise to fame and stardom, opens a two-day run today at the New Rialto theater.

Linda is cast as a plucky small-town girl in Hollywood, scrapping for her place in the sun. In the great adventure that is the mecca of young screen hopefuls, she meets handsome John Payne, another screen hopeful. Together they share heartbreak and happiness—and find out about love.

With the odds a thousand to one against them, they won't take no for an answer. They enlist the help of talent scout Roland Young and dramatic coach Charlotte Greenwood. And when things look darkest they stage a stunt that stands Hollywood on its ear.

Mary Healy sings "Star Dust" and two new songs titled "Secrets in the Moonlight" and "Don't Let It Get You Down."

Miss Darnell made her meteoric rise to fame in Elsa Maxwell's "Hotel for Women," and with Tyrone Power in "Daytime Wife"—and according to Hollywood master-minds she's the best bet of the new star discoveries.

"Gangs of Chicago," featuring Lloyd Nolan, Lola Lane and Barton MacLane, plays as the companion feature with "Star Dust."

Roxy Double Bill

Henry Fonda and Claudette Colbert co-star in the Technicolor filmization of "Drums Along the Mohawk," which heads the double bill opening a three-day run today at the Roxy theater.

Mark Twain's favorite boy comes to the screen in "Tom Sawyer, Detective," which plays as the companion feature on today's bill with Donald O'Connor in the title role. Walt Disney's "Autograph Hound," starring Donald Duck in Technicolor, also plays on the big program.

Alice Faye As Lillian Russell At Craterian Wednesday

All the color and glamor of America's most fabulous era will be brought to the screen of the Craterian theatre Wednesday in the production "Lillian Russell," featuring Alice Faye, Don Ameche, Henry Fonda, Edward Arnold and a huge supporting cast. The life and loves of the famous American stage beauty are depicted in the film. Alice Faye sings several of Lillian Russell's famous songs, including "After the Ball is Over," "My Evening Star" and others, while Don Ameche introduces two songs that were written especially for the picture. These are "Adored One" and "Blue Love Bird." Also featured in the cast are Warren William and Leo Carrillo.

On Wednesday night, at 9:00 o'clock, the Craterian will pre-

Higgins Family Coming In New Hit

That fun-loving, all-American screen clan, the Higgins Family, will be with us again, with James and Lucille Gleason up to their necks in trouble as Grandpa goes on the warpath in their newest film, "Grandpa Goes to Town," coming to the New Rialto theater for Tuesday and Wednesday.

Harry Davenport plays lovable Grandpa again—and in this episode of the family's adventures he meets up with a Hollywood picture company on location out in Nevada. He misunderstands their picture-making and spreads the news that gold has been found anew in Coyote Wells—and from then on out the fun is fast and hilarious. The new fighting sensation, Arturo Godoy, heads the supporting cast with a tenuous fight between himself and Maxie Rosenbloom. "Murder in the Air," featuring Ronald Reagan, will play as the second feature.

Seek Missing Grower.

Hood River, June 1.—(AP)—Yoshie Akiyama, 28, Oakgrave fruit grower who has been missing since yesterday, was the object of a search today along the banks of Hood river. His car and untouched dinner bucket were found near the stream, where he was fishing.
