Engles Honored On Departure Eve

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Engle, managers of Cargill Court for the past three years, were honored last evening by the court tenants at a social gathering held in one of the apartment sitting rooms.

The affair paid tribute to the kindly couple whose many thoughtful daily deeds brought happiness to their friends residing in the court.

Refreshments were served during the evening from a table centered with a large bouquet of magnolias brought from the gardens of Mrs. Margaret Fabrick. Other bouquets of spring blossoms decorated the room.

Mrs. Jonas Wold presided at the tea table and refreshments were in charge of Mrs. E. C. Ferguson, Mrs. Elizabeth Bowerman and her daughter, Miss Beth Bowerman and Mrs. John Norwood.

During the party, the group presented the Engles with an attractive going-away gift. The couple expect to leave here Monday for the north where they will vacation for a short time. Their plans thereafter are indefinite.

Pocahontas Has Card Party Event

At the recent Pocahontas lodge card party, nine tables of cards were in play with high scores being won by Bernice Wilson, Velma Rogers, Harriet Watson, Mrs. S. Ash, Bob Kent, Orville Hayes, Jack Doms and L. Lovell. Velma Singler won the attendance prize. Refreshments were served later in the evening by Lucille Anseth, Wilma Hayes, Laura Wicker, Helen Keesee, Leah Ivie.

Mrs. Nellie Purdin and Esther Powell were in charge of cards.

Janet Reter Is Feted at Party

Miss Janet Rae Reter, bride-elect of Marion Johnson, was feted at a shower party Tuesday evening when Miss Dorothy Coffeen and Lorraine Swospe entertained at the latter's home on North Riverside avenue.

Games were enjoyed during the evening and the honoree received numerous attractive gifts. Refreshments were served to Shirley Enders, Melba Linn, Helen Smith, Wanda Conkel, Jean Bowen, Shirley McCulloch, Eeryle and Blynn Davis, Pat Marquess, Henrietta Spiney, Neva Croucher, Nancy Heath, Mrs. J. L. Campbell and Elsie Atkins.

Miss Reter's marriage to Mr. Johnson will be an event of Saturday.

Group Enjoys Weenie Roast

The Misses Eleanor Lemire and Lucille Metterneck were hostesses for a weenie roast at Bybee's bridge Tuesday evening.

Those present were the Misses Rose Widmer, Ethel Bobbett, Louise Lemire, Bernice Nary and Jeanette Metterneck, and Messrs. Leslie Corey, Lester Wendt, Eddie Sakraida, Joe Doblemeier and Donald O'Brien. Mrs. H. E. Casey, Olive Lemire and L. well Dupray acted as chaperones. Games were played prior to the roast.

Barbara Drury Feted at Party

The Misses Mildred Drury, Isabel Miller and Patricia Thompson entertained at the latter's home in Phoenix recently with a shower party honoring Miss Barbara Drury, bride-elect of Fred Underwood, whose marriage will be an event of Friday evening at St. Mark's Episcopal church.

Guests included Mesdames William Bowerman, Otto J. Frohnmayer, George Harrington, Norris Porter, Robert Sherwood, Charles Barnes, William A. Thompson and A. B. Drury, mother of the honoree. Also the Misses Clarita and Frances McCormick, Harriet Sparrow, Marian Moore and Jarvi Thompson.

The bride-to-be received an abundance of canned goods as shower gifts. Bridge was played throughout the evening with Mrs. Bowerman and Miss Frances McCormick winning the prizes.

Miss Young Attends Portland Wedding

Miss Floyd Young, Medford high school music instructor, left last evening by plane for Portland where she will sing at the wedding of Miss Catherine Campbell and Harry Campbell. The ceremony will be solemnized Sunday in Grace Memorial church.

Miss Young recently spent a few days in Ashland visiting her mother, Mrs. C. R. Bowman. After the Portland wedding, Miss Young plans to go to Seattle where she will receive voice instruction from Charles Lawrence, at the University of Washington.

Later in the summer, the popular and talented Medford teacher plans to travel to Chicago to work on her master's degree in music education at
