HAPPY RELIEF FROM PAINFUL BACKACHE
Many of those gnawing, nagging, painful backaches people blame on colds or strains are often caused by tired kidneys—and may be relieved when treated in the right way. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking strong acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about a pint a day. If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pain, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eye, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 45 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Gene Autry In Western Drama

Gene Autry, little Mary Lee and Smiley Burnette have leading roles in Autry's new range romance, "Gauchito Serenade," which opens a three-day run at the New Rialto theater. Based upon one of today's "upper bracket" song hits, "Gauchito Serenade" presents Gene and Smiley as rodeo stars abandoned by their manager in New York. Their adventures in their transcontinental trek home involve them with a band of crooks, a pretty girl who is running away from an unwelcome marriage, and a Mexican music fiesta in the course of which Gene sings "The Gauchito Serenade" and "Frog," in his own inimitable way, renders "The Wooing of Kitty MacFutry." Others in the cast include June Storey and Duncan Renaldo. "Bullets for Rustlers," starring Charles Starrett, plays as the companion western on the rip-roaring double bill.

"Lillian Russell" Delights Audience Craterian Showing

The life and loves of Lillian Russell, "the most beautiful woman in America," have been made into one of the greatest pictures of all time. Opening yesterday at the Craterian theater, "Lillian Russell" features Alice Faye in the title role, with Don Ameche, Henry Fonda and others. It is a motion picture that brings out the strength of Hollywood, for "Lillian Russell" has everything. Drama, comedy, pathos, action, color—all have been deftly blended to make a superb picture that will keep you absorbed and fascinated from start to finish. It revives many of the popular song hits of her day, including "After the Ball is Over," "Rose You Are My Poise," "My Evening Star" and "The Band Played On" ("Strawberry Blonde").

Blonde Alice Faye more than justifies the faith Zanuck placed in her when he chose her to portray the great Lillian Russell. Her acting reaches an all-time high and her charm and her singing voice heighten the triumph.

Don Ameche gives another excellent performance in the role of Edward Solomon, Lillian Russell's composer husband. Henry Fonda proves once more his rare talents in the role of Alexander Moore, the Pittsburgh newspaper publisher who also became Lillian Russell's husband.
