

SOCIETY AND CLUB NEWS OF THE WEEK

By CLARA MARY DAVIS

Drury-Underwood Wedding Service Event of Friday

Roses and mock orange blossoms predominated in the beautiful all-white floral setting at the altar of St. Mark's Episcopal church Friday evening at 8 o'clock when Miss Barbara Drury became the bride of Charles Frederick Underwood. The Rev. Father Herald G. Gardner officiated.

The stately brunette bride given in marriage by her father Mr. Allen B. Drury, wore an ivory silk lace gown over heavy ivory satin, fashioned in princess style with a slight train. Her finger-tip ivory tulle veil was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls and orange blossoms. Gardenias and lily of the valley composed the bridal bouquet and her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls.

The bride's two sisters were attendants. Mrs. Norris Porter was matron of honor and Miss Mildred Drury was bridesmaid. They wore identical bouffant frocks of two shades of apricot sheer crepe with exquisite matching net, off-the-face picture hats. The dresses and hats were trimmed with blue velvet ribbon and they carried arm bouquets of Tallman roses and blue delphinium.

Norris Porter served as best man for Mr. Underwood and ushers were Messrs. William Bowerman, Otto J. Frohnmayer, Charles Reum, Charles Barnes and Charles Risse.

Prior to the ceremony, which was attended by two hundred guests, Mrs. C. Norman Gail sang "Because". Mrs. Eva H. Marsh played the organ wedding music.

Mrs. Drury, mother of the bride, wore a lovely gown of hyacinth blue chiffon trimmed in ecru lace and a matching picture hat of net trimmed in salmon colored velvet ribbon. Her corsage was of roses and sweetpeas. Mrs. W. I. Underwood, mother of the bridegroom wore a pale blue and cream printed chiffon dress and a natural sheer straw picture hat. Her corsage was also made of roses and sweetpeas.

A reception attended by close friends of Mr. and Mrs. Underwood, followed the wedding at the home of the Drury on South Oakdale avenue. Here the sixty-five guests were served from a table appointed with white lace cloth, white flowers and tapers. The bride, in traditional manner cut the bridal cake with the knife owned by Mrs. W. J. Warner which has been used through the years by many Medford brides.

Mrs. Drury was assisted at the reception by Mrs. Underwood, Mrs. C. H. Pasko, Mrs. E. H. Porter and Mrs. C. M. Hurd.

The couple left after the ceremony for a wedding trip and will return in a week or ten days to make their home at 25 South Peach street. For a going-away ensemble, the bride chose a beige and brown outfit and a gardenia corsage.

Mrs. Underwood was honored at numerous pre-nuptial parties and last week, Mr. Barnes and Mr. Reum were hosts for a "bachelor" party for Mr. Underwood.

The bride is a graduate of Medford high school and attended the University of Oregon in Eugene where she was affiliated with Kapa Alpha Theta sorority. In this city she is an active member of Beta Sigma Phi.

Mrs. Underwood chose the date of her marriage, June 7, because it marked the wedding anniversary of her parents.

Howells Visit In This City

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Colvig returned to Medford and their cabin on Evans creek Friday from Portland where they had visited for several days.

They were accompanied here by Mrs. Colvig's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Howell of Oregon City. After visiting overnight, the Howells left yesterday to return home. They made the trip by motorcar.

Woodcraft to Meet Wednesday Women of Woodcraft will convene Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the L.O.O.F. hall.

For Summer you need a Hair Style Easy to Keep! Permanents $2.50 up Specializing in scalp treatments Miss Alice Metcalfe added to staff.

We Specialize in HAIR DYEING Wineland Beauty Shop Jackson Hotel Phone 1015

Mrs. Fred Underwood

Mrs. Charles Frederick Underwood, who was Miss Barbara Drury prior to her wedding on Friday evening in St. Mark's Episcopal church. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen B. Drury, and Mr. Underwood is the son of Mrs. W. I. Underwood of this city. The couple will make their home at 25 North Peach street.—(Photo by Shangle.)

Summer Home on Rogue Is Scene Of Recent Wedding

At the attractive summer home of Mr. and Mrs. John Peter on the Rogue river near Shady Cove, Miss Ida Lydia Williams was united in marriage to Elmer Vickoren on Sunday, June 2, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Rooms were beautifully decorated with spring flowers and vows were spoken before an improvised altar banked with a profusion of gladioli, lilies and roses.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Williams of Medford and Mr. Vickoren is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Vickoren of Great Falls, Mont.

Attending the couple were Miss Viola Penland and Arthur Troutman. Rev. D. E. Millard officiated.

The bride wore a lovely gown of rose taffeta in princess style and a wreath of tiny rosebuds in her hair. She carried an old-fashioned bouquet of roses, pansies and sweetpeas. The beautiful cameo locket which she wore has been in the bride's family for generations and was also worn by her mother, her grandmother, her great-grandmother and her great-great-grandmother at their weddings.

The maid of honor wore a gown of turquoise blue taffeta and carried a bouquet of roses and sweetpeas.

Following the ceremony a reception and dinner were held at the summer home of the bride's parents at Shady Cove.

The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mole, Mr. and Mrs. Al Green, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Riddle, Mr. and Mrs. John Peter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Payne, Miss Dorothy Davis and Marilyn Payne.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Williams, was assisted by Mrs. Hatie Goodwin and Miss Mattie Matney.

The first U. S. census in 1790 showed a population of nearly 4,000,000—considerably less than the present population of New York City.

FEELING LOGGY? Tune up the whole system with an ELECTRIC BATH and MASSAGE... Latest equipment—Expert operators. Nissen Health Institute 15 Geneva—Phone 258

Jenes Jensen Is Complimented at Luncheon Party

Miss Jenes Jensen, bride-elect of Norman Moty, was complimented at a delightful luncheon and miscellaneous shower party last week at the Hotel Medford.

Hostesses were members of the county extension committee and alumni, as follows: Mesdames A. G. Campbell, Walter Ricks, Al Floyd, L. E. Ager, Arnold Bohnert, R. E. Green, J. R. McCracken, Joe Thornorton, Effie Birdseye, O. C. Mausl, C. E. Meyers, S. W. Hutchinson, I. C. Williams, Mabel Mack and Miss Alice Hanley. Other guests were Mrs. Ida Sweeney, Miss Claire Hanley and Mrs. Earl York.

The honoree, who received many lovely gifts at the party, is secretary of the home demonstration agent.

Her wedding to the Klamath Falls man, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. K. N. Moty, will be an event of June 25. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jens Jensen of this city.

Culbertsons Home From Wedding Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Culbertson, Jr., returned by plane Friday afternoon from a wedding trip in southern California. The popular Medford couple were married last Sunday in Las Vegas, Nev. Their itinerary included a stay on Catalina island. Mrs. Culbertson was Miss Florence Scherrer.

The couple hastened back to Medford as Mr. Culbertson is to begin work immediately on launching the new phase of civilian pilot training at Medford municipal airport under the government's new program. Mr. Culbertson is flight instructor.

Riebes Visit in Medford Briefly

Recent visitors in Medford for a brief time were Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Riebe of Portland, who with their two children, Lois Ann and Frank Davis, were en route to San Francisco.

In Medford they visited with Mr. Riebe's brother, Eugene Riebe. The brothers had not seen each other for eight years.

Episcopal Church Scene of Wedding Saturday Evening

St. Mark's Episcopal church was the scene of the wedding Saturday evening of Miss Janet Rae Reter, daughter of Mrs. Marguerite Reter and Raymond Reter to Marion H. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Johnson. The Rev. Father Herald G. Gardner officiated at the 7:30 o'clock ceremony.

Vows were spoken at an altar decorated with sprays of mock orange blossoms. The petite bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a navy blue silk jersey frock with white polka dots and a white ruffled collar. Navy blue and white accessories and a corsage of gardenia and bouvardia completed the ensemble.

Miss Peggy Reter attended her sister as bridesmaid. She wore a print silk dress, blue and white accessories and a corsage of carnations. Floyd Baker attended Mr. Johnson as best man.

Mrs. Reter, mother of the bride wore a dress of black and white chiffon with matching accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Only immediate members of the two families attended the simple but impressive ceremony. Later the young couple left for San Francisco. They will return in a week to make their home at 406 North Oakdale avenue.

Trio Departs for San Francisco Fair

Mr. and Mrs. Norris Porter and Mrs. Porter's mother, Mrs. Allen B. Drury, plan to leave today for San Francisco to attend the Golden Gate International exposition on Treasure island and vacation for a week.

At the end of the week, Mrs. Drury will return to Medford and the Porters will travel east, stopping in Detroit and other interesting places en route to New York City to attend the world's fair. They plan to return to Medford the latter part of July and will leave shortly after for Alaska to reside.

The two have been visiting relatives here for the past month. They spent the last two years in Flat, Alaska, where they taught in a government school.

Bride Of Saturday

Mrs. Robert Wilson (nee Miss Wanda Konkell), whose marriage was an event of last evening in the First Christian church. After a wedding trip to San Francisco, the couple will reside in this city. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Konkell.—(Photo by Shangle.)

Former Local Man Marries In Arizona

Word was received this week of the surprise marriage of Jack A. Denison and Miss Ellen Neva Walker on Sunday, June 2. They were married at Yuma, Arizona's Gretna Green, and were accompanied by the bride's mother, Mrs. Neva Walker of Riverside, Cal., and Mr. and Mrs. Whitney, uncle and aunt of the bride.

Both the bride and groom are well known in the younger set here, and both are graduates of Medford high school. Jack Denison is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Denison of this city. They will make their future home in Los Angeles, where Mr. Denison is employed.

Miss Kelly Leaves For North School

Miss Marjorie Kelly plans to leave today for the north to spend several weeks. In Roseburg she will visit her brother, Robert E. Kelly and family and then will travel on to Portland to visit friends and relatives briefly before motoring to Seattle where she will spend a fortnight attending a Red Cross aquatic school in Issaquah, Wash., a short distance from Seattle.

Included in the ten-day school is instruction in boating, canoeing, basic swimming, water safety and life saving. Miss Kelly will also take a special first aid course.

At the conclusion of the school, Miss Kelly will meet her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kelly, upon their return from Nome, Alaska. The group will return to Medford about the last of June.

Headquarters for the school will be Four Seasons lodge at Beaver lake.

Griffin Creek Couple Married In Sunday Service

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Fugere on Griffin Creek was the scene of an impressive ceremony Sunday evening, June 2 at 8 o'clock when Mrs. Fugere's daughter, Beulah Mattie Vogel became the bride of David Elmer Osborn in the presence of a number of guests.

Vows were read by the Rev. T. Wire, pastor of the Methodist church in Ashland, before a beautiful floral altar consisting of white mock roses with baskets of colored roses, snap dragons and sweetpeas on either side.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white taffeta with a corsage of gardenias. Her attendant, Miss Lola Straube of the Applegate district wore peach taffeta gown and a corsage of tea roses. Ray Vogel, brother of the bride, acted as best man for Mr. Osborn.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cook of Ashland played the wedding music. A violin solo, "I Love You Truly" was played with piano accompaniment prior to the ceremony. The Cooks are the uncle and aunt of the bridegroom.

A reception given by the bride's parents, followed the ceremony. A rosebud decorated wedding cake with miniature bride and groom formed the table centerpiece.

The couple will make their home on Griffin Creek where they are building a new residence. The bride has lived in the vicinity for the past eleven years and has many friends in the valley. Mr. Osborn is associated with the Stearns Mining company on Forest creek.

Young Parents to Enjoy Picnic Young Parents' study group will hold its annual picnic Monday at Bybee bridge at 6:30 in the evening.

Wanda Konkell Is Bride of Local Man Saturday Eve

Miss Wanda Konkell, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Konkell and Robert Wilson, son of Richard Wilson of this city, were united in marriage at 8 o'clock Saturday evening at the home of the Rev. R. W. Coleman, pastor of the First Christian church. Members of the two families were guests.

The charming young bride wore an afternoon bolero dress of desert rose hue with matching hat, navy blue accessories and a corsage of orchids and lilies of the valley.

Miss Jean Bowen attended the bride. She wore a gold suit and a corsage of Tallman roses. Eldon Crow acted as best man for Mr. Wilson.

Mrs. Konkell, mother of the bride, wore a navy blue and white ensemble.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents on West Jackson street followed the ceremony. Guests were relatives and friends of the couple. Refreshments were served from a table decorated in all white appointments and flowers and a large wedding cake.

Assisting Mrs. Konkell about the rooms were the bride's aunt, Mrs. Charles Brooks, her cousin Mrs. Joe Timmerman and the Misses Shirley McCulloch, Nancy Heath and Mrs. Walter Atkins.

Later the newly wedded couple left for San Francisco. They will return to Medford in a week and after June 24 will be at home to their many friends at 809 West Fourth street. For a going-away outfit, the bride wore a navy blue suit with matching accessories.

A number of delightful parties feted Mrs. Wilson prior to her marriage. She is a graduate of the Medford high school, class of 1940 and a popular member of the younger set here.

Philip Lowry Is Graduate Today

Mr. and Mrs. Bert B. Lowry are among Medford residents attending University of Oregon commencement today.

Their son Philip, law student, is being graduated with honors in political science, which he chose as his minor. He is a Phi Beta Kappa and a member of the Senior Six (the six top-rating members of the senior class). He has been president of the class and recently was elected by his classmates as permanent president of the class of 1940. After graduation, the local well known boy will take a trip throughout the east, visiting several national parks en route.

Mrs. Mack Travels To Portland Rites

Mrs. Mabel Mack left yesterday by motorcar for Portland to attend the wedding today of Miss Catherine Campbell and Harry Campbell.

On Monday, Mrs. Mack will travel to Salem to attend the State Grange meeting and later will go to Corvallis where she will teach for two weeks at the 4-H summer school session on "dollar dinners." She plans to return to Medford at the conclusion of the school.

(Continued on Page Five.)

Mrs. Marion Johnson

Mrs. Marion H. Johnson, the former Miss Janet Rae Reter, whose marriage was an event of Saturday evening in St. Mark's Episcopal church, with the Rev. Father Herald G. Gardner officiating. After a wedding trip south, the young couple will make their home in Medford.—(Photo by Wilfley.)

SAVE MORE THAN 50% ON ALL OF YOUR BEAUTY SERVICES AT THE

Medford School of Beauty Culture

Southern Oregon's oldest established and best equipped school.

Chottay Machineless, regularly priced at $10, now only $5.00
 $8.50 Chottay Machineless reduced to $4.00
 Regular $5.00 Machineless reduced to $3.00
 As an added attraction $1.00 will be reduced on all above permanents on Mon., Tues. and Wed., June 10th, 11th & 12th.
 Hot Oil Treatment Shampoo and Finger Wave or Hair-style for only 35c, and junior work 35c.
 Scalp Reconditioning Treatments 8 for $2.50 or 50c each.
 Roux Tint Shampoo and either Finger Wave or Hair-style, complete for only $1.00.
 Haircuts are 25c and junior work 15c.
 Free Manicure daily except Friday and Saturday
 All work carefully supervised by competent instructors.
 Upstairs in the Hansen Bldg., Medford, Ore.
 LENA ANN MOYER, Mgr. TELEPHONE 84

IS YOUR DAD A FORGOTTEN MAN

Too many are... and Father's Day is a mighty nice time to square things up.

Select your Father's Day Card here.

SWEM'S GIFT SHOP

Infusion DE PARFUM by Ybry

4 oz. size, Regularly $2. NOW 1/2 Price $1 For a Limited Time Only

Choice of 5 delightful odors

WAINSCOTT'S EAST SIDE PHARMACY MAIN AND RIVERSIDE

CLEAR as CRYSTAL

We can accept the responsibility of rendering a perfect laundry service, for mountain streams are not as scientifically clean nor as crystal clear as the water we use in doing your laundry!

American Laundry PHONE 873 132 SOUTH CENTRAL