Of interest locally was the marriage on Saturday, June 1, of Miss Ruth Mary Armstrong and Eugene E. Reames in Lakeview. The Rev. Griffith performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a blue gaberdine suit with white accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds, orange blossoms and lilies of the valley.

They were attended by Miss Laverne Roberson, as bridesmaid and Wayne G. Carter as best man. As a prelude, Charles Sturgis sang Cadman's "At Dawning," accompanied by Miss Betty Dano. Miss Margaret Ramsay played the wedding music.

The bride was attractively gowned in navy blue crepe with blouse, blue shoes and hat. She carried a colonial bouquet of gardenias and sweetpeas and the handkerchief which her mother carried at her own wedding.

John Barker and Harold Reedy were ushers. Following the wedding ceremony, a buffet luncheon was served the bridal party and members of the immediate families at the home of the bride's parents.

Later, guests attended the graduation ceremonies of Mr. Merriman at the Southern Oregon College of Education.

Mr. and Mrs. Merriman will make their home for the summer at Union Creek, where Mr. Merriman is employed by the forest service. The coming winter they will make their home in Prospect where Mr. Merriman teaches.

Both are graduates of SOCE. Mrs. Merriman has lived in Ashland all her life and has been active in social, school and church activities. She taught the past year at Central Point. Mr. Merriman has been active in college activities, being student body president the past year.
