Klamath Wedding Unites Prominent Medford Couple

Miss Gertrude Parker and William Edward Holmes, prominent Medford couple, were united in marriage Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Albert S. Veatch in Klamath Falls. The Rev. Theodore Smith of the First Presbyterian church read the service.

The bride was attractive in a gown of starched chiffon in a delicate shade of pink. She carried a shower bouquet of white bouvardia and rapture pink ruscus centered with an orchid.

Mrs. Johnnie Fleet Smith of Medford was the bride's only attendant. She wore a frock of delphinium blue dotted swiss made with full length skirt and trimmed in old Irish lace. She carried a colonial bouquet of pastel colored blossoms.

Lyle Van Scoy, also of this city, acted as best man for Mr. Holmes.

The couple spoke their vows before a fireplace banked with white snapdragons, white gladioli and candles. Mrs. Augusta Parker, sister of the bride, sang "At Dawning" and "O Promise Me," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Veatch who played the wedding music.

A reception followed immediately after the beautiful ceremony. Presiding at the refreshment table were Mrs. W. L. Ireland of Portland, sister of the bride and Mrs. John P. Moffat of Medford, sister of the bridegroom.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes returned to their ranch home here Saturday evening. Later in the summer they plan a motor trip through the south. For traveling Mrs. Holmes wore black marquisette with white accessories and a single orchid corsage.

Miss Thomas Leaves For Extended Trip

Miss Dorothy Evelyn Thomas daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Thomas, left Friday evening for Klamath Falls where she joined Miss Darlene Warner of Chiloquin and the two started on an extended trip through the east, south and middle west.

Miss Thomas plans to visit relatives in Iowa and Indiana, after which the two will then visit Niagara Falls and travel to New York for the world's fair. After stopping in numerous other places of interest they will proceed to Mexico City where they will enroll at the University of Mexico for the summer session. Late in August they will visit in Los Angeles and take in the Golden Gate International exposition on Treasure Island before returning to their respective homes.

NAVAL PATROL BOMBERS REACH MANILA SAFELY

Manila, June 10.—(AP) Fifteen navy patrol bombers tugged at Manila bay moorings today after a trans-Pacific flight which began at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, last Tuesday.

The planes, from squadron VP-26, arrived yesterday afternoon under command of Lieut. Commander S. H. Ingersoll. They will relieve a similar squadron which has been on neutrality patrol duty in the Philippines for nine months.

CATERPILLAR PLAGUE CRAWLS IN TILLAMOOK

Tillamook, Ore., June 10.—(AP) A plague of moth caterpillars crawled today in southern Tillamook county.

They have eaten leaves from the trees on a 25-mile stretch along the Nestucca river and Three Rivers.

The plague is attributed to the mild weather the Oregon coast experienced this past winter.

CHINESE LEADER DIES IN BATTLE

Hongkong, June 10.—(AP)—Japanese military dispatches reported today that Chinese General Sun Cheng had been killed in action in Hupeh province, where a bitter battle is progressing for possession of the Yantze river treaty ports of Ichang and Shasi.

The Japanese also reported that another Chinese general, Liu Ching-Min, had been seriously wounded.

The Chinese said their troops were making a vigorous effort to cut off Japanese forces west of the Han river by re-taking points at which the enemy had crossed the stream in a drive on Ichang and Shasi.

Japanese reports said yesterday they had captured all points forming the outer ring of defenses for the two cities, most important on the middle Yangtze between Hankow and Chungking.
