Zonta Club Is First To Obtain C. C. Membership

To the Medford branch of Zonta International goes the distinction today of being the first service club in Medford to buy a membership in the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce. The club, in regular session last night at the Girls' Community club voted the membership purchase as first step in a more extensive program of community service. The action was preceded by discussion and decision that community service could best be accomplished by affiliation with the chamber of commerce.

Janie Smith, newly elected president, presided, and Louise Basford acted as secretary, awaiting selection of this officer by the board.

Mabel Conger was elected delegate to the national convention June 25 in Denver, and Miss Basford as alternate.

Reports of recent trips taken were made by Margaret Fabrick, who attended several meetings of Zonta International in Portland; Neva Lowry, who attended graduation at Oregon and Oregon State; Miss Basford, who attended sessions in Seattle of the Soroptomist club.

The meeting opened with singing, Lois Young accompanying at the piano.

Thelma Jones Visits Mother

Arriving here yesterday by motorcar from Seattle, Wash., was Miss Thelma Jones who will spend the summer visiting her mother, Mrs. Laura Jones, at her home on South Ivy street. Miss Jones is a teacher in the Washington city.

Adam made one really serious mistake

IF ADAM were still about, he probably would tell you—with Madam Eve concerning—that he should have owned his own home. It would have made a difference. Everywhere homeowners are substantial people, and worth-while things are the apple of their eyes.

Among the 13,542 employees of Standard (excluding subsidiaries), 40 percent own their own homes. This total seems all the more remarkable when you recall that some are located in remote oil fields, others spend more time on tankers at sea than on land, while another group realizes that promotion may involve transfer. If you delete the Marine Department, for instance, the percentage swells to 46.

Yet there is the fact: a high percentage of our employees are home-owners, with a homeowner's natural interest in the civic affairs of home town, church, schools, boy scouts, libraries and everything that looks toward betterment of a community.

Standard's part is simply that it encourages such stability by a policy of job-security, fair pay, decent working conditions, and a record for employee-relations which over sixty years has made possible the very essence of home-owning—a dependability in the future. That's more than Adam had.

Mrs. J. W. Albig Recently Named "Woman of Month"

Mrs. J. W. Albig, daughter of I. H. Humphrey and sister of Miss Vera Humphrey of this city, was chosen as "Woman of the Month" for the month of May according to the News-Gazette of Urbana, Ill., Mrs. Albig's home.

The well known former Medford resident, was recently elected state vice-president of the Illinois League of Women Voters at a convention in Chicago. She has been outstanding in League work since 1929 and it was because of her activities in this field that she was named "Woman of the Month".

The article, accompanied by a large picture of the woman, says in part, "Mrs. Albig has a pleasing personality and is versatile in her abilities—she received her college education at the University of Oregon where she was a member of Sigma Kappa sorority—she's a member of the sorority alumna group; a member of the Campaign social science club and the city branch of the American Association of University Women, having served as treasurer of the organization. She and her husband, the latter being associate professor of sociology at the University of Illinois, have become one of the community's most popular and active young couples."

Dr. and Mrs. Albig plan to visit the Humphreys at their home on Genesee street in several weeks. They will be greeted here by a host of friends and several social affairs have already been planned for them.

Proceeding the ceremony, Gail Thomson sang "Oh, Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied on the piano by Lewis Parker, who also played Wagner's bridal march by Lohengrin.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents for close friends and relatives. The bride cut the three-tiered wedding cake and refreshments were served. Out-of-town guests were among the 60 wedding guests as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baxter and daughters, Katherine, Elaine and Dorothy and son Billy, LaVerne Rasmussen and Elders Donald Nowel and W. Thornock of Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Higgins left after the reception for a short trip along the coast. They will make their home on East Jackson street in this city. For a going-away ensemble the bride chose a wine-colored suit with white accessories.

Mrs. Higgins, a popular member of the younger set here, graduated with the 1940 class of Medford high school. Mr. Higgins is associated with the Petroleum Heat and Burner company.

Gracia Stuart Has Birthday Party

Members of the very young set gathered this afternoon at the Modoc avenue home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Irwin Stuart to participate in an enjoyable party honoring the Stuart's only daughter, Miss Gracia, on her tenth birthday.

Guests bidden to the natal day event were Jocelyn Bauer, Margaret Brown, Jimmy Scheffel, Ned and Catherine Vilas, Johnny Deuel, Bobby Stuart, Phillis Merrick, Constance and Susan Inskeeper and the honoree's brother, Richard Stuart.

Games were played throughout the afternoon and refreshments with all the trimmings, including a large birthday cake, were enjoyed.

What the Girl Scouts Are Doing

Camping days are near at hand. Girl Scouts are urged to get their registrations in the office for Lake of the Woods camp right away as the units are filling up. Additional registrations since last week's camping article are Neysa Wall, Beverly Hodgman, Mildred McKenzie, Betty McKenzie, Helen Dooms, and Mary Virginia Wait. Scouts are writing for camping information from Hill, Yreka and Hornbrook.

The Skyline Stables from Klamath Falls will have their horses near camp this summer, the same group as last year, and Girl Scouts in Camp McLoughlin may have the privilege of riding.

Out-of-door cookery will be stressed this year, with over night hikes and supper cook outs for the senior scouts. Each age group has their own camp fire and private out of door cookery classes.

Camping in a Girl Scout camp is not just a vacation. It is a rich educational experience in a democratic situation. Local civic organizations assisting in the camping program are Kiwanian Dames, Lady Lyons, Washington school P.T.A., Junior high P.T.A. and the Medford branch of the Portland National bank.

The Lady Lyons are sponsoring a one-week campership to the most outstanding Girl Scout in the senior troops, based primarily on troop and community service and scouting advancement. Senior scout to receive the award will be announced later.

Dr. Moreland Is Medford Visitor

Dr. James W. Moreland Jr., physician and surgeon of San Bernardino, Cal., was a week-end visitor at the home of his uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Mulholland, in Medford. Dr. Moreland is en route to Baltimore, Md., where he has been granted a year's study in public health work at Johns Hopkins university.

"As You Like It" Tryouts Tonight In Ashland Theatre

Preliminary stage rehearsals are called for 7:30 p. m. today in the Ashland civic Elizabethan theater for the tentative cast of "As You Like It," one of the four Shakespearean productions to be given in the Lithia City this August.

All members of the cast are urged to be on hand. Four of the leading players are Medford dramatic students. They are LaMerle Beck Witt, Robert Shaw, Dorothy Lee and Don Shanahan.

Meanwhile, Director William David Cottrell announced a complete tentative cast for the "Comedy of Errors," one of the plays held over from last season's list. Rehearsals here will start later this week.

The only play remaining to be cast is "Much Ado About Nothing," and Cottrell expected to have the tentative roster within a few days.
