Miss Brommer to Wed Mr. Klein In Ceremony Here

Of interest to her many friends here is the announcement of Miss Frederica Brommer's engagement to Ralph Klein. Both former local residents reside in Portland and their marriage will be an event of August 31 in this city.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Brommer and Mr. Klein is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Klein. Both couples make their homes here.

Miss Brommer, a graduate of Medford high school, later attended Oregon State college in Corvallis where she was a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. She left Medford two years ago to live in Portland.

Mr. Klein, also a graduate of Medford high school, received his higher education at Stanford, from where he graduated. He is associated with the North Pacific Grain Growers, Inc., in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Brommer received news of the betrothal on a recent visit to Portland, at which time they visited Miss Frederica and their other daughter, Mrs. A. R. Small.

Hubbard Children Travel to Alaska

Lois Ann and Bob, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Hubbard plan to leave tomorrow for Seattle where they have booked passage on a boat to Juneau and Sitka, Alaska.

The two will leave here tomorrow noon by United Air Lines for Portland and from there will travel by train to Seattle.

The trip is a graduation present for Bob from his parents. He completed studies at the Medford high school last month.

Sanders Home to Be Meeting Scene

The home of Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Sanders, 29 Richmond avenue, will be the scene of the Thursday Morning Study club picnic Thursday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock.

Mrs. A. J. Loeffler, Mrs. C. C. Furnas and Mrs. Aletha Vawter form the committee in charge. Election of officers will be a highlight of the annual affair. Members are asked to bring their own service.

Braleys to Leave On Alaska Trip

Mr. and Mrs. C. Reese Braley and Mrs. Braley's two sons, Kenneth and Billy Patton, plan to leave tomorrow morning by motorcar for Seattle where they will embark on a two weeks' trip to Alaska.

They plan to include visits at Juneau and Sitka. Kenneth has been attending University of Oregon in Eugene. The group expects to return here at the conclusion of their trip.

Two Return From North

Mrs. Birdie Coggins and Henry Swearingen returned yesterday by motorcar from the north via The Dalles highway. They spent several days in Camas, Wash., visiting Mrs. Coggins' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Knoble. They also enjoyed a trip to Rainier and attended the annual Portland rose festival.

Former Resident Here For Friday Evening Wedding

In Medford today to attend a wedding ceremony is Mrs. Harry W. Kuhn, Jr., former resident here who now makes her home with her husband in Santa Monica, Calif. Mrs. Kuhn will be matron-of-honor at the wedding of Miss June Williams and John Riley Russell in the Presbyterian church Friday evening.

Mrs. Kuhn is accompanied by her mother-in-law, Mrs. Harry W. Kuhn, Sr., of Westwood, Cal. The two visitors motored up from southern California two and a half weeks ago and have been guests of the Junior Mrs. Kuhn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cassius E. Wymore, at their Redwoods highway resort, Shona, Wauna, near O'Brien. After the wedding ceremony they will return to Shona-Wauna where they will spend another fortnight before starting for home. Traveling by way of the coast route, they will visit the Golden Gate international exposition on Treasure Island en route south.

The Junior Mrs. Kuhn will be remembered here as the former Lucille E. Wymore, Medford high school graduate and popular member of the younger set. She was united in marriage to Mr. Kuhn on August 6, 1938. Mr. Kuhn is an engineer with the North American Aircraft company. Because of the pressure of airplane business at present he was unable to make the trip north with his wife and mother.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Mattson of Los Angeles, Cal., are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harding Sr. of Trail. Mrs. Mattson is president of the Rebekah assembly of the state of California.

Leah Ivie was elected Pocohontas of the club at a recent meeting. Others named were Ione Dooms, Wenonah, Jack Dooms, Powhatan, Velma Rogers, prophetess, Esther Hobbs, reporter.

Members of Wenonah club enjoyed a recent picnic at the home of Vera McBee on the Old Stage road. Mrs. Ruel Rians was a guest. Following luncheon a business session and election of officers was held. Myrtle Kent was named president and Esther Hobbs vice-president and reporter.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hamlin and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Spires of Sacramento, Cal., spent the week-end vacationing here with Mr. and Mrs. George Tedrick on the old Pacific highway. Mrs. Hamlin was formerly Margaret Spires of Medford.

Perkins Home Scene of Lions Luncheon Meet

The home of Mrs. C. L. Perkins on Modoc avenue was the scene of the June meeting of the Lions club auxiliary. Covered dish luncheon was served from a table appointed with pink roses and contrasting Nile green napers. Assisting hostesses were Mesdames C. C. Proctor, O. M. Kesler and Ray Marti.

Those present were Mesdames Carl Bismark, C. L. Coyle, Frank Froeburger, Leland Knox, J. A. McDougall, Ray Marti, Earl Miller, C. L. Perkins, C. C. Proctor, R. M. Schino, Lyle Thurman, E. M. Wilson, Henry Zacharisen, O. M. Kesler and Earl Sims.

The club voted to send a deservingly Girl Scout to Girl Scout camp for one week. The campship will become an annual award by the club. This session concluded the meetings for the season.

Mrs. Marti, president, presided. Women of the First Methodist church will hold a tea in church parlors Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. All women of the congregation are invited to attend.

An interesting program of vocal and instrumental music and readings has been prepared.

Methodist Women To Sponsor Tea

Women of the First Methodist church will hold a tea in church parlors Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. All women of the congregation are invited to attend.

Mrs. Mary H. Driscoll returned to the home of her son, William Driscoll in the GeBauer apartments Sunday from Salt Lake City, where she spent a short time.

Mrs. Driscoll plans to spend the summer visiting her son.

What the Girl Scouts Are Doing

Roosevelt school Girl Scout troop 7 was entertained by Mrs. Don Newbury and Mrs. Ward Hammond, committee mothers, at their recent court of awards. Mrs. Tom Williams is the leader of this group. Badges presented at an informal court of awards were:

Gold stars for perfect attendance to Dorothy Beal and Kathleen Seekatz; My Troop badge to Shirley Barton, Dorothy Beal, Gail Coddling, Phyllis Hasbrook, Lois Hibbert, Nancy Newbury and Kathleen Seekatz.

CCC MASQUERADE GETS BOY IN JAIL

Marcus Dover, 19, former CCC Camp Wimer enrollee, was lodged in the county jail for 30 days this morning after appearing in justice of the peace court on a state and city police charge of vagrancy. Authorities are investigating his past record, if any.

Dover, according to police, was dishonorably discharged from the CCC camp last March and sent to his home in Tennessee. However, he returned recently and has been posing as still a member of the camp, police stated.

City and state police arrested him this morning as he was attempting to leave town on a CCC train.

SLOT MACHINE IS CAUSE OF ARREST

Charged with possession and display of a money slot machine, Leslie Roy Wilson, 49, proprietor of the Gold Hill hotel, pleaded guilty before Gold Hill Justice of the Peace John Chisholm this morning and passing of sentence was scheduled for Saturday.

State police, going to the hotel this morning on other business, noticed the five-cent "one-armed bandit" in operation and made the arrest. They confiscated the machine and expect to obtain a court order Saturday to destroy it. The machine, police said, was open to the public.
