NAZI BATTLESHIP BOMBED IN FJORD

London, June 14.—(P)—The British admiralty announced today that the naval air force scored a hit with a "heavy bomb" on the battleship Scharnhorst in Trondheim fjord early yesterday.

One hit was said to have been made behind the funnel of the 26,000-ton German battleship, and a second possibly scored.

The communique said: "Aircraft of the fleet air arm carried out an attack on German naval units in Trondheim fjord early yesterday morning."

"Information has now been received that one hit abaft the funnel was obtained with a heavy bomb on the battleship Scharnhorst. It is also reported that possibly a second hit was registered on the same ship."

Eddie Cantor In Sunday Show

A program of outstanding appeal comes to the Craterian theater Sunday, with Eddie Cantor's "40 Little Mothers" as the feature attraction of the program and Frank Capra's 30-minute featurette, "Cavalcade of Academy Awards," as a special added hit on the bill.

Cantor has Baby Quintinilla as his chief opposition for honors in the feature picture, with Judith Anderson, Rita Johnson, Bonita Granville, Ralph Morgan, Diana Lewis (Mrs. William Powell), and Nydia Westman in supporting roles.

Bite for Bite Their Claim

Marlene Ray Sparkes, 4, of Chicago, showed her mother, Mrs. Gwendolyn Sparkes, 24, marks she said were left on her lip by the teeth of a neighbor, Mrs. Lillian Goodman, 25. Mrs. Goodman, charged by Mrs. Sparkes with assault, said in court that she had bitten Marlene after the girl had bitten her son, Jackie, 4, on the nose. "I thought it would cure her of the biting habit," Mrs. Goodman said. A $25 fine was suspended.

ELKS CONVENTION OPENS SESSIONS

Pendleton, Ore., June 14.—(P)—Oregon Elks, with registration over the 200 marker and more arriving hourly, swung into their business sessions here this afternoon after listening to an address of welcome by Mayor C. L. (Buck) Llewellyn and a response by William M. Hartford, trustee.

The state association's annual convention is to continue through tomorrow's heavy program, winding up with evening entertainment features following completion of business and selection of the 1941 convention city.

Early arrivals Thursday joined in an initiation meeting last evening, followed by entertainment, with music by the Heppner Elks' orchestra. Oratorical and ritualistic contests were in progress today with flag day exercises tonight.

GRANGE FAVORS PLEA FOR TAX PAYMENT ON FEDERAL LAND AREAS

Salem, June 14.—(P)—A resolution asking that the United States pay counties taxes on its forest and other lands was adopted today by the Oregon State Grange, which will end its five-day 67th annual convention tonight.

The Grange also favored a movement to increase federal forest fire-fighting funds, and it asked the Grange officers to make an investigation to determine the advisability of seeking legislation to make all county offices non-partisan.

Other resolutions approved federal legislation to require proper labeling of woolen goods, advocated a proposed law providing for compulsory arbitration of labor disputes after a reasonable time for negotiations has expired but only if a perishable crop is involved, advocated that producers be permitted to sell direct to the Federal Surplus commodities corporation, and asked that farmer-owned cooperative telephone systems be exempt from taxation.

Musical Show On Rialto's Bill

Lana Turner, George Murphy and Joan Blondell will sing and dance their way into your heart in "Two Girls on Broadway," which heads the double bill coming to the New Rialto theater Sunday for a two-day engagement. The season's first streamlined musical, "Two Girls on Broadway," tells a litting story of three hoofers from Nebraska who paint the Great White Way red in a big way. Introducing a new combination between glamour and sex appeal, called "Glex," the film musical comes to the popular Main street playhouse as the smartest and brightest musical hit of many a year. Kent Taylor, Wallace Ford and two new song hits make up the supporting features.

"Curtain Call," featuring Barbara Read, will play as the added feature.

Paris was almost a deserted city, the dispatch said. The French who remained while most of the population fled stayed in their homes or sat in their shops with the shutters down.

All buildings and bridges, it said, were left intact.
