

New Serial June 25

A swiftly-paced mystery romance, "Casual Slaughters," written by Virginia Hanson, will be the next serial story appearing in The Mail Tribune. The author is a daughter of a retired colonel, and her brother is also a retired army officer and as might be expected her story deals with the army. The new serial will start June 25.

Above is the Italian ship Capo Noli, shadowed from Montreal, Canada, and beached and fired by its crew near Rimouski, Que., Canada.

17 YEARS FROM NOW—If Europe's history follows its usual pattern, this three-year-old "Tommy Atkins" who admires the guard at Buckingham palace, London, will probably carry his own gun in 1957. His father's home on leave from war front.

Italian Chief
