

SOCIETY AND CLUB NEWS OF THE WEEK

By CLARA MARY DAVIS

Lois Frazee to Wed Mr. Bergman In July Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Frazee announce the engagement of their daughter Lois Dorothy to George R. Bergman, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Bergman of Los Angeles, Cal.

Miss Frazee graduated from Medford high school, class of 1936 and later attended the Southern Oregon College of Education in Ashland. She graduated from Stanford university school of nursing May 24 of this year.

Mr. Bergman graduated from Stanford university in Palo Alto, class of 1937 and is now a senior at the Stanford University school of medicine.

The wedding will be an event of early July in San Francisco. Miss Frazee will spend a brief time in Medford prior to the ceremony.

Recent Wedding Ceremony of Interest Here

Of interest to their many friends in the valley is the marriage of Miss Norma Zinser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Zinser of Coburg and former Central Point high school teacher, to Harold H. Head, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Head of Central Point on Saturday, June 15.

The wedding took place at noon at the home of the bride's parents, the service being read before an arched lattice decorated with pink roses, madonna lilies, and light blue delphinium, by Dr. J. D. McCormick of Springfield. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Joan DuRette of Gervais, sang "The Prayer Perfect" accompanied by Mrs. Frank Saalfeld of Woodburn.

The bride wore a dusty blue afternoon dress made with a yoke of blue lace, and a shoulder corsage of pink roses, lily of the valley, and blue forget-me-nots. For her going away ensemble, she wore a rose and white crepe dress with a navy blue coat and navy blue accessories.

After a breakfast served to the immediate relatives and close friends, the couple left on a wedding trip to Victoria and Vancouver, B. C. Mr. and Mrs. Head will be at home after June 24 at 225 North Holly, Medford.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Oregon in Eugene where she was affiliated with Mu Phi Epsilon and Phi Beta Kappa sororities.

Mr. Head graduated from Oregon State college in Corvallis where he was a member of Beta Alpha Psi and Mu Beta Beta. He later took a year of graduate work at the University of Oregon.

Rebeks to Convene Soon

Monday evening at 8 o'clock Olive Rebekah Lodge will meet for initiation and social. All Rebekah lodges in southern Oregon are invited. The degree captain, William H. Dyer, and his staff have been practicing for some time. Any Rebeksahs visiting in the city are welcome.

Caroline Leaders and her committee will serve refreshments.

Bride of Friday

Mrs. John R. Russell, who was Miss June Williams prior to her marriage on Friday evening. The impressive ceremony took place at the Presbyterian church, with Dr. Sherman L. Divine officiating. The couple will make their home in Medford after a wedding trip north.—(Photo by Wilfley.)

Church Wedding Unites Medford Couple Friday

At a beautiful ceremony in the First Presbyterian church Friday evening at 8 o'clock, Miss June Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Williams, became the bride of John Riley Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Russell. Sr. Dr. Sherman L. Divine united the couple in marriage.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an exquisite white printed organdie dress with full skirt. Her finger-tip veil fell from an organdie coronet trimmed with fresh white flowers.

Mrs. Harry Kuhn, Jr., of Santa Monica, Cal., was matron of honor. She wore a frock of peach net and carried a colonial bouquet of pastel colors. Bridesmaids were Miss Jeanne McKay, who wore a turquoise blue taffeta gown; the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. LeRoy Williams, whose gown matched Miss McKay's; Miss Shirley Gibson, who was attired in light blue taffeta, and Mrs. Elsie Moore, whose dress was rose net. Their bouquets were colonial of pastel hues.

Miss Joyce Williams, the bride's niece, and Miss Darlene Alvord, cousin of the bride, were flower girls. The former was pretty in a green taffeta frock with matching small bonnet which tied under the chin with yellow ribbon and lace. Miss Alvord wore peach taffeta and a matching bonnet trimmed in blue ribbon and lace. They carried baskets of flowers.

Carl Bennett, Jr., acted as best man, and ushers were the bride's brothers, LeRoy and Lewis Williams, and the bridegroom's two brothers, George and Robert Russell.

Vows were spoken at an altar decorated with ferns and baskets of delphinium, white lilies and tapers.

Mrs. Rose Ellen Uhrine sang "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly." Hans Hoerlien, church organist, played the wedding music.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, 925 Reddy avenue, for 50 guests. Assisting Mrs. Williams were Mrs. Gene Cameron, Mrs. Orville Childreth, Mrs. F. S. Alvord, aunt of the bride from Pasadena, Cal., and Mrs. Jack Gibson.

The bride's birthday was also celebrated on her wedding day so a wedding cake and birthday cake were placed at either end of the refreshment table, which was centered with pink tapers. Pastel flowers decorated the cake plates.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell departed later on a wedding trip to Seattle. For a going-away ensemble, Mrs. Russell wore a rose-colored dress, white accessories and a white corsage. They will return in a fortnight to make their home in this city.

Mrs. Williams, mother of the bride, wore a rose lace dress, blue accessories and a white rosebud corsage at the wedding. Mrs. Russell, mother of the bridegroom wore a gray and black ensemble with white rosebud corsage.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Harry Kuhn, Jr., Mrs. Harry Kuhn, Sr., southern California; the bride's aunt, Mrs. F. S. Alvord, and her daughter Darlene of Pasadena, and Mrs. Cass Wymore and daughter Caroline of the Redwoods highway.

Lady Elks to Meet Tuesday

Lady Elks will hold their final luncheon and card party of the season Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the Elks temple. Hostesses will be Mesdames H. M. Weishaar, Harry Barneburg and Claude Post.

Closing time for Two Late to Classify Ads is 1:30 p. m.

Bride-Elect Is Feted at Shower; Bridge Affair

Miss Jenet Jensen, bride-elect of Norman Moty of Klamath Falls, was entertained at a shower or party last week at the John J. Wilkinson home on Park avenue. Hostesses were Miss Geraldine Wilkinson and Mrs. John E. Wilkinson.

Guests included Mesdames Oliver Hughes, William Tucker, Ray Scott, Jack Fitzgerald, Eugene Monaco, and the Misses Patricia Thompson, Jane Russell, Maurine Carlton, LaVerne Stephenson, Martha DeSousa and Jeannette McKee.

Bridge was played throughout the evening with prizes being won by Miss McKee, Miss De Souza and Miss Thompson.

The honoree, whose marriage will be an event of June 25 in Sacred Heart Catholic church here, was presented with many lovely linen gifts at the shower.

Former Teacher's Wedding Lovely Event in Portland

Grace Memorial Episcopal church in Portland was the scene of the wedding of Miss Catherine Campbell and Harry Coleman Campbell last Sunday evening at 8:30 o'clock. Uniting the couple in marriage was the Rev. Oswald T. Taylor.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, Angus Milton Campbell, wore a beautiful gown of heavy white slipper satin of basque style with long train trimmed with cording of ruchings of satin and long leg o' mutton style sleeves. Falling from a halo of orange blossoms was a hand-made veil of tulle inset with deep points of edging of chantilly lace. She carried a white prayer book and a shower bouquet of orchids and stephanotis.

The bride's sister, Virginia May Campbell, was maid of honor. She wore a bouffant dress of azure hue marquisette and a matching poke-bonnet. She carried an old fashioned nosegay of yellow roses, snapdragons and delphinium.

Bridesmaid was Mrs. Patsy Smith Barr of Medford who wore hyacinth blue marquisette and carried an old-fashioned nosegay of yellow snapdragons, violets and yellow roses.

Barbara Balch was the flower girl. She was dressed in pale yellow marquisette with a poke bonnet and carried a basket of yellow rose petals.

William T. Angell, a fraternity brother of Mr. Campbell, acted as best man and ushers included Norman Swanson, also a fraternity brother and Douglas Wight.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. S. D. Williams, 636 South 17th avenue.

The couple went to Victoria, B. C., on their wedding trip and will be at home after June 20 in Portland. For a going-away ensemble the bride wore a fitted coat and dress of postman blue wool with matching hat and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Campbell was a popular member of the Medford high school faculty for the past several years and was active in civic and social affairs of the school and city. Prior to leaving here for Portland she was honored at several delightful pre-nuptial parties.

Pythian Sisters Will Convene

Pythian Sisters will meet for a pot-luck dinner Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the K. P. hall. Members of Knights and their families are invited to attend. Sisters will hold a business meeting at 8.

Mrs. William E. Holmes

Mrs. William Edward Holmes (nee Miss Gertrude Parker), whose wedding was an event of Saturday, June 8, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Elbert S. Veatch in Klamath Falls, with the Rev. Theodore Smith of the First Presbyterian church officiating. Mrs. Holmes has been a teacher in the Medford schools for many years and is widely known in the valley. Mr. Holmes, the brother of Mrs. John P. Moffat, is also well known here as an orchardist. The couple will make their home on his ranch here.

Webb Home Scene Of Shower Event

Mrs. Martin Boggs Webb, Jr., was pleasantly surprised by a group of friends who called at her home on Sailing avenue on Thursday evening to present her with a miscellaneous shower of many beautiful and useful gifts.

Participating in the enjoyable affair were Mrs. Lester Shaw, Mrs. John Eddy, Mrs. Jack Schmitt, Mrs. Lou Rogers, Mrs. J. E. Randies, Mrs. Wayne Carter, Mrs. Harold Looper, Mrs. Marvin Albert, Mrs. Emil Peterson, Mrs. Frances Stevens and the Misses Virginia Anne Hall, Katherine Shelley.

Mrs. Webb, who was formerly Miss Verna Rae Shelley, has been the inspiration for a number of gatherings since her marriage in this city several weeks ago.

Guests spent the evening playing Chinese checkers, after which refreshments were served.

Ruth Hedges Home From Willamette

Miss Ruth Hedges recently returned to Medford from Willamette university where she completed her junior year. A scholar of languages, next year Miss Hedges will study French under Dr. Vazakas, head of the department of languages.

Miss Hedges was accompanied home by Drs. A. R. and Louis Hedges, who attended the state convention of chiropractic physicians held at the Columbia Gorge hotel near Hood River. While there Ray Samuels, mayor of Hood River, personally conducted them on a tour of the valley for the women's auxiliary.

Navy Mothers Will Convene

Navy Mothers' club will convene at the home of Anna Mears, 11 Vancouver avenue, Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

Use Mail Tribune want ads.

Young-Moore Betrothal Made Known in City

A betrothal of interest was received here yesterday with announcement that on August 20 Miss Beverly Young, daughter of Mrs. C. R. Bowman of Ashland will wed David Amos Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rawles Moore of this city.

The bride-elect is the sister of Miss Floy Young, well known Medford high school music instructor. She graduated from the high school and Southern Oregon College of Education in Ashland, attended the University of Oregon in Eugene and is now working on her master's degree at University of California in Los Angeles. She is affiliated with Chi Omega social sorority and Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic honorary fraternity.

Mr. Moore whose parents are prominent long time residents of the valley, is a graduate of Medford high school and San Mateo Junior college. He is a senior at U.C.L.A. where he is majoring in geology. At the present time he holds a position with Douglas Aircraft company.

The ceremony will take place in the Presbyterian church in Ashland.

The bride-to-be was recently honored at a shower party when graduate students of the physical education department at U.C.L.A. entertained at the home of Ruth Felton in Brentwood Heights in Los Angeles.

Early this month a surprise luncheon also honored Miss Young at the El Encanto tea room in Westwood Village, near the U.C.L.A. campus.

Noble Grands Enjoy Meeting

Past Noble Grands club met at the Girls' Community club Thursday evening, with 35 present.

Leah Ivie, president, presided over the meeting. After the regular business the entertainment committee, with Elizabeth Bowerman in charge, presented a very interesting program. Lona Bergman and her committee served refreshments. The cakes were decorated with flags.

The second Sunday in July there will be a picnic at the Ashland Luthia park, with Carrie McDannel, Grace Hamlin, Rosie Young and Nettie Groves in charge.

Mistletoe Group Plan Two Events

Mistletoe club, Royal Neighbors of America met at the home of Mrs. Myrtle Arnold on Arnold Lane. Mrs. Ethel Latham assisted.

Two new members, Lottie Daniels and Loree Ridgeway were admitted to the club. Plans for a penny dinner to be given June 20, and for a juvenile picnic to be held in Ashland park, June 21, were made.

Thirty-two members and friends enjoyed the afternoon. Next meeting will be a dessert luncheon at the home of Mrs. Francis McConochie, 1015 West 12th street Wednesday evening at 8:00 o'clock, June 26.

(Continued on Page Five.)

Closing time for Two Late to Classify Ads is 1:30 p. m.

Use Mail Tribune want ads.

BIG SPECIAL!

Tussy Vacation Cleansing Cream

1.00 1 1/4 oz.

A summer supply of this grand summer cleanser! The light, fluffy cream quickly removes dust, stale make-up, excess oil. Cool and soothing after sun, wind, exposure. Leaves skin looking fine, radiantly clean. Big family size.

WAINSCOTT'S East Side Pharmacy

Main and Broadway

Edward Reames Visits Parents

Edward Reames, son of former United States Senator A. Evan Reames and Mrs. Reames, arrived in Medford yesterday afternoon by motorcar from Washington, D. C.

En route to his parents' home here, Mr. Reames visited friends in San Francisco for a brief time. This will mark his first trip to Medford in over two years and he will be greeted here by his many friends.

The former Medford resident is employed in the federal budget division of the general accounting department in Washington. His vacation will be concluded on June 30.

Auto, Plate and Window Glass installed reasonably. Medford Plate Glass & Mirror Co., 96 So. Bartlett.

Moles Are Hosts To House Guests

Mrs. Oscar Johnson of Minneapolis, Minn., is a recent arrival here to visit her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mole, at their home on Newtown street.

Mrs. Johnson has been taken on trips of scenic interest, including Crater Lake national park, Diamond lake, Oregon Caves national monument and Crescent City, during her stay. She plans to return home the first of the week.

Gym Glasses

Join YOUR friends in a gym class. Have Fun—Improve your Health. Low group rates—Expert supervision.

Nissen Health Institute

15 Genera—Phone 253

America's Table Milk MEDFORD'S PREMIUM MILK

Produced and Distributed by one of Oregon's finest Dairies!

WING'S CLOVERHILL GOLDEN GUERNSEY DAIRY

TELEPHONE 369

Miss Georgia Tucker

REPRESENTING

Dorothy Perkins Co.

MANUFACTURERS OF BEAUTY PREPARATIONS

WILL BE AT

Western Thrift Store

MONDAY, JUNE 17TH
TUESDAY, JUNE 18TH

WITH EXPERT ANALYSIS FREE ON YOUR BEAUTY PROBLEMS

CALL 274 NOW FOR YOUR FREE FACIAL APPOINTMENT

HERE COMES The Bride

The moment a bride assumes the management of her home, she will be judged on its appearance and that of her husband.

That judgement will be favorable if she sends her laundry to the AMERICAN LAUNDRY, for everything here must pass rigid inspection, never delivered until they receive our final O. K.

American Laundry

PHONE 873
132 SOUTH CENTRAL