Loretta Young in Wednesday Show

Ray Milland is a classic example of the man who woke up the next morning with a splitting headache—and a wife! In one of the many hilarious scenes from "The Doctor Takes a Wife," coming to the Criterion theater tomorrow, Milland is discovering that he is reportedly wed to lovely Loretta Young, Reginald Gardner, featured member of the cast, shows him the bad news spread all over the front page of the morning edition. The highly entertaining comedy romance has Milland as a doctor who has no use for women—except as objects of scientific research—and Miss Young as a scientist who dislikes all men so vehemently that she even writes books about it. When the two are thrown together, a continual round of hilarity breaks loose.

who has been auctioned off after the downfall of the empire. Helen Gilbert plays opposite Young and others in the cast include Charles Coburn, Lee Bowman and Reginald Owen.

"The Island of Doomed Men," featuring Peter Lorre in the newest of his horror films, plays as the companion feature with "Florian."

MAINE G.O.P. FOR RALPH BREWSTER

Portland, Me., June 18 (AP) - Republicans, generally dominant in Maine politics, today made U. S. Rep. Ralph O. Brewster their nominee for the U. S. senate seat to be given up by Frederick Hale (R), after 24 years' tenure.

In yesterday's primary, the G.O.P. also renominated incumbent U. S. representatives in the first and second districts.

In the third, now represented by Brewster, Frank Fellows, Bangor lawyer, won on the Republican side, while Thomas N. Curran, also of Bangor, defeated Osgood A. Nickerson, Vazir, for the Democratic nomination.

Sumner Sewall won the Republican gubernatorial race with
