GOV. OLSON WILL EAT CAVEMEN'S FARE IN G. P. VISIT JUNE 30

Grants Pass, June 20.—(AP)—Governor Culbert L. Olson will leave California to eat raw meat of the sabertooth tiger here Sunday, June 30, and to drink the blood of the dinosaur. If the primitive food is effective, he will become an honorary member of the Oregon Cavemen.

David L. Foutz, the governor's secretary, wrote that the "persistence of the Oregon Cavemen certainly was inherited from the cavemen of old. While your efforts in the past to capture Governor Olson have met with setbacks, you have finally been successful in trapping him in your snare."
The governor will stop at Grants Pass on his way from formal opening of the Mill Creek Redwood park near Crescent City on his way to Mt. Shasta lodge.
