

ABANDONED CATS SERIOUS PROBLEM FOR HUMANE UNIT

Society Urges Delivery of Unwanted Pets at Shelter Instead of Abandonment

So many unwanted cats have been dropped off in the neighborhood of the Jackson County Humane society on Midway road that they have become wild, a menace and a serious problem, the society said today.

A lookout is to be maintained in the neighborhood and if anyone is caught dropping off a cat he will be prosecuted under the Oregon law that prohibits abandonment of animals, the society warned.

The society made a plea that unwanted cats be delivered to its shelter where the animals receive humane treatment. When cats are abandoned in an unfamiliar neighborhood, they become wild and it's practically impossible to do anything for them, the society pointed out. They become too wild and wary even to be caught in humane traps, it was asserted.

The society emphasized that no charge is made for accepting a cat for humane treatment. True, it was said, a voluntary contribution is usually requested to help defray the society's expenses, as there are no other sources of revenue for the care of cats. But if a person cannot afford a donation, the cat is accepted just the same, it was declared. So, it was pointed out, there is no excuse for dumping off cats and leaving them exposed to starvation and to a life of wildness and prolific reproduction if they survive.

The shelter is open daily from 7:30 a. m. to 5 p. m.

SCOUTS, LEADERS HONOR 'UNCLE DAN'

Local Boy Scouts and their leaders, through their council president, Larry Schade, recognized today the ninetieth birthday of their national scout commissioner, Daniel Carter Beard, "Uncle Dan," as he is familiarly known to over a million Boy Scouts in this country has been actively associated with the organization since its founding in 1910.

Dan Beard was famous as an author and outdoorsman long before the Boy Scout movement was launched in the United States. He was quick to see its possibilities here and was one of the first to associate himself with Scouting. At the age of 90 he still appears regularly at national gatherings of scouts and writes and illustrates a page each month in Boy's Life, the Boy Scout magazine.

The following telegram was sent to him today by the local organization. "Congratulations and best wishes to the grandest scout of all on his ninetieth birthday from all the Cubs, Scouts and Scouters of the Crater Lake Area Council in southern Oregon and northern California. Larry Schade, president."
