

SCOTT HAMILTON CHOSEN CHAIRMAN LOCAL DEMOCRACY

Scott Hamilton, Central Point orchardist, was elected chairman of the Jackson county Democratic central committee at the organization meeting of precinct committeemen and women in the Hotel Jackson yesterday afternoon.

Hamilton succeeds Ward Spatz, county chairman for the past two years, who now is being projected for the state chairmanship. Spatz pledged complete support to the new county chairman and pleaded with all the committee members to give him loyal cooperation.

Mrs. Jay Terrill, Talent, was elected vice chairman; V. D. Bert Miller, Ashland, secretary, and Dr. Charles T. Sweeney, Medford, treasurer, were re-elected.

Former U. S. Senator A. Evan Reames was re-elected state committeeman and Mrs. Reames was chosen state committeewoman, a new position. J. R. Marshall, Medford, former county chairman, was elected congressional committeeman and Mrs. Elda Anderson, Ashland, congressional committeewoman.

The chairman was empowered to appoint the executive and nominating committees. Appointments would be made soon, Hamilton said.

The meeting, attended by about 40 men and women, adopted a motion thanking the Mail Tribune for publishing news of the Democratic party.

KLAMATH DRIVERS HELD RUM COUNT

Four Klamath Falls taxi drivers were being held in the Jackson county jail yesterday pending presentation of their cases to a federal grand jury. They were charged with a violation of the U. S. alcohol tax law.

The men were listed as Mark Goin, 43, William Michelson, 24, Einar Berge, 22, and Alvin Gunn, 36. Each had been held under $2500 bail after a preliminary hearing June 19 before U. S. Commissioner Bert C. Thomas in Klamath Falls. George Duke, Jr., 22, son of the owner of the taxicabs, was charged with the same offense but was released on $2500 bail. The taxicabs were taken into federal custody and stored at the Klamath Indian agency, said Paul Hanlin, U. S. deputy marshal, who brought the four defendants to the county jail here from Klamath Falls Friday night.

The charge is that the men engaged in the retail liquor business without paying the federal tax. It was said to be the first asserted bootlegging case of its kind to be filed by the government in southern Oregon.

JESSENS CALLED EAST BY DEATH

The Rev. Werner Jessen, pastor of Zion English Lutheran church, left Saturday morning with Mrs. Jessen for Freemont, Neb., where Mrs. Jessen's father, Dr. C. H. B. Lewis, passed away suddenly Friday afternoon, as the result of a heart attack.

Dr. Lewis, field secretary of the parish and church school board of the United Lutheran church in America, visited his daughter and son-in-law here several times, his last visit being in January when he came 3,400 miles especially to christen the Jessen's son, John Lewis Jessen, born December 2, 1939.

IMMIGRATION AIDE HERE JULY 1, 2 & 3

T. S. Griffing of Portland, assistant divisional director of the U. S. Immigration and Naturalization service, will be in Medford July 1, 2 and 3, for the purpose of filing petitions and declaration of citizenship matters, Victor A. Tengwald, deputy clerk of the U. S. district court here, announced yesterday.

Mr. Griffing will be in Tengwald's office in the postoffice building during the above dates, at which time filings will be made. Those interested are requested to contact Mr. Griffing.

Grey Honored

Herb Grey (above), advertising manager of the Mail Tribune, was elected vice-president of the Oregon Newspaper Publishers association at the organization's 53rd annual meeting which ended Saturday at Gearhart. Mr. Grey had served as treasurer during the past year.

HOMEMAKERS TO CAMP JULY 14-18 AT ROCKY POINT

The Jackson county homemakers' vacation camp will be held July 14 to 18, jointly with the Klamath county homemakers' at Rocky Point Resort on Pelican Bay, Upper Klamath Lake, Mabel C. Mack, Home demonstration agent, announced Saturday.

Rocky Point Camp is exceptionally well equipped with sleeping cabins and a well equipped kitchen and dining hall, Mrs. Mack said. Purpose of the camp is to provide a restful, inspiring vacation period at minimum cost. Any homemaker in Jackson county, whether from the city or the country, is eligible to enroll. Registration can be made at the home demonstration agent's office or with local home extension unit chairmen.

Facilities make it necessary to limit the number who attend to thirty women, therefore, early enrollment is advisable. Those interested are urged to register as soon as possible, or before July first.

Many interesting features will be available to the homemakers including swimming, boating, nature study, crafts, campfire programs, and other activities. There will be no dish washing, meal planning or cooking required of the homemaker. An excellent cook is employed for this purpose. The staff will include Mrs. Winifred Gillen, home demonstration agent of Klamath county, as director, and Mrs. Maude Purvine, home demonstration agent of Columbia county as crafts instructor. Other staff members will be a nurse and life guard.

TOURIST BUREAU ON SUMMER SKED

The tourist bureau, an adjunct of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce situated on North Riverside avenue at Fifth street, will go on a summer schedule of operation Monday.

The bureau will be open from 7 a. m. to 8:30 p. m. every day, Sunday included, the chamber announced. It will be in charge of Mrs. Thomas A. Culbertson, Jr., and Miss Fredene Daugherty. The A. A. A. office, situated at the same place, will continue in charge of Miss Alice Kellogg.

The chamber of commerce asked all local residents to direct their telephone calls for travel and road information to the tourist bureau, telephone 312, and not to the chamber of commerce office.

CONVICT FARMER OF DEATH CHARGE

Oregon City, Ore., June 22.—(P)—A circuit court jury on a second ballot tonight convicted John Odell, 43, Cherryville district farmer, of manslaughter in the death of his hired man, Dave Dunlap, 22.

Dell admitted firing the fatal shot, but claimed he acted in self-defense after ordering Dunlap from the house. He said he learned that Dunlap had assaulted Mrs. Odell. Circuit Judge Earl C. La Tourette set 9 a. m. Tuesday for sentencing.

40 BUSINESS MEN VISIT DIAMOND LK. FOR ROAD OPENING

About 40 Medford business men Friday afternoon attended the Diamond lake celebration dedicating and opening the new North Umpqua highway between Roseburg and the lake. Opening of the highway brought to reality Douglas county's 20-year-old dream of a modern highway from Roseburg to Diamond lake.

Mayor C. C. Furnas and Glenn L. Jackson, president of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce, gave brief talks in the general ceremonies held at Diamond lake after the celebrants had enjoyed a picnic lunch on the shores of the lake. Jackson county was represented by all the members of the county court. Besides the 30-car caravan from Roseburg, delegations were present from Klamath Falls, Eugene, Cottage Grove and Bend. Harris Ellsworth, editor of the Roseburg News-Review, was master of ceremonies.

Other speakers were C. A. Clark of Roseburg, state senator and personal envoy of Gov. Charles A. Sprague, Henry S. Cabell of Portland, chairman of the state highway commission, James Frankland of Portland, assistant U. S. regional forester, Col. Harvey H. Fletcher of Medford, U. S. A., commander of the Medford CCC district whose enrollees built much of the new highway which it passes through the forest. Judge B. L. Eddy of Roseburg and Judge Morris Bowker, Douglas county jurist. In all, between 250 and 300 persons took part in the celebration.

PUBLISHERS NAME GREY VICE PREXY

Gearhart, June 22.—(P)—The Oregon Newspaper Publishers' association adopted a resolution today advocating "selective military service for all American citizens—particularly single men whose physical condition permits."

Delegates at the association's 53rd annual convention also pledged support to the national defense program. The association elected Giles French, Moro, president, to succeed Henry Fowler, Bend.

Other officers named included Herbert Grey, Medford, vice-president; E. Palmer Hoyt, Portland, treasurer; Merle R. Chessman, Astoria, Hugh Ball, Hood River, Claude Ingalls, Corvallis, Wallace Sprague, Salem, Harris Ellsworth, Roseburg, Douglas Malarkey, Burns, and Eric W. Allen, Eugene, directors.

LEGION TO HONOR RETIRING LEADER

Medford American Legion post will honor Capt. H. J. Meiring, retiring commander, at the meeting Wednesday at 8 p. m. in the armory, and his successor, Lloyd Williamson, will be given the oath of office by Department Commander Niel R. Allen. Formal installation of officers will be held in the fall.

There will be no meetings in July and August with exception of one, just before the state convention in Seaside, when delegates will be instructed. Adjutant George E. Hoard urges all officers-elect and members to attend Wednesday's meeting as refreshments will be served following the business session. Non-member veterans are also invited.

Medford post is forming a disaster relief committee and has received supplies from the national department for keeping suitable records. The local post now has 269 members, 7 more than last year's total. Over one million veterans now belong to the Legion and the largest membership in the organization's history is expected this year.
