

Ernie Piluso to Battle Bob Kenaston in Revenge Match Tonight

ERNIE PLANS TO FIGHT FIRE WITH FIRE IN REMATCH

Dude Chick Meets Prince in Middle Go—George Wagner, Clemens Open Card

On the one hand, Sgt. Bob Kenaston of Gold Hill will be bending all his efforts to hand Ernie Piluso a second straight wallop.

On the other hand, Ernie Piluso will be striving to get revenge and ram Bob Kenaston's dirty tactics right back down his throat.

That's the nutshell and main event situation in the Medford armory tonight as Promoter Mack Lillard unleashes six of his grapple gladiators to provide three matches in what promises to be a dandy program, perhaps one of the best in recent months.

Kenaston trimmed Piluso last week, but the manner in which he accomplished the feat was no credit to him. Kenaston has the reputation of being a soiled wrestler, and he added to that reputation 100 percent last Monday. He was meaner than ever before and Piluso, trying to keep things on a legitimate basis, was simply overwhelmed. Tonight, though, Ernie promises that Kenaston will discover how it tastes to be battled with no regard for the rules.

Action Expected
Piluso's offensive plan for the struggle includes a blazing attack of sonnenberg's and drop-kicks, plus plenty of the same tactics Kenaston uses on him. The match honestly looks like it will turn into an alley brawl, for the first time Kenaston makes an unfair move Piluso will be ready to deliver it back with interest.

No such fireworks are looked for in the middle event, although the milling will probably be none the less spectacular. Dude Chick and Prince Selaki Mehalikis are the two boys slated to match scientific maneuvers in this bout, with Chick replying on his airplane spin and the Arabian Prince trusting to his camel-lock and other holds to bring him a victory.

Wagner a Newcomer
A newcomer to southern Oregon, big George Wagner of Texas, will tangle with Indian Frankie Clemens in the opening bout. Promoter Mack Lillard stated that he believed Wagner had an excellent chance of winning if he keeps clear of the Clemens Indian paralyzer.

The program will start at 8:30 sharp.

Grapples Newcomer Tonite

Frankie Clemens (above), Indian "Wonder Boy" with the potent paralyzer hold, will provide the competition for Texas George Wagner when the latter gladiator makes his first appearance in a southern Oregon wrestling ring here tonight. Clemens and the newcomer will collide in the opening event at the armory.

GOLD HILL TRIMS MEDFORD ROGUES

Although outhit, 12 to 14, the Gold Hill Beavers made the best use of their blows to hand the Medford Rogues an 8 to 6 defeat in a Southern Oregon league game at Gold Hill yesterday afternoon. The game ended the loop's first-half race, with the Rogues in the cellar and the Grants Pass Merchants, skinned yesterday, winning the title. Skinny Wilson of Gold Hill and Ray Tungate of Medford both went the route on the pitching mound, with Wilson fanning 13 and Tungate striking out two. Gold Hill clinched the game with seven runs in the fifth inning.

Hampel, with three hits, led Medford's attack, while Dusenberry hit twice for the winners. Paul (Hoosier) Hoffman, deposed manager of the State league Medford Craters, played left field for the Rogues and collected two hits.

LANNING PITCHES THREE-HITTER TO BEAT JILL, 12-2

Craters Score Eight Runs in Big Fifth—McDonald Hits Double and Single

Week-End Results
Medford 2-12, Jack-Jill 0-2.
Silverton 9-7, Babes 3-6.
Albany 3-3, Eugene 3-2.
Bend 19-5, Hills Creek 0-4.

Big Bill Lanning turned in a three-hit pitching performance and his teammates clouted out nine solid smacks, including doubles by Bill Calvert and Alex McDonald, as the Craters made it two in a row over Portland's Jack and Jill Tavern at the fairgrounds park yesterday afternoon. The score was 12 to 2.

The victory enabled Medford to deadlock Bend's Elks for second place in the second week-end of the Oregon State league's second-half pennant race, Silverton leading the pack by virtue of a double triumph over the Portland Babes.

An eight-run outburst in the fifth frame clinched the contest for the locals, after they tallied once in the first inning and three times in the fourth. The Tavernmen scored one in the third and their other in the eighth.

Don Pendergrass, Jiller southpaw, lasted only three and two-thirds innings and Norm Leitheiser, lanky righthander, finished the game. The former gave up two hits and two runs, while Leitheiser was rapped for seven blows and 10 tallies. Pendergrass' wildness caused his own downfall. In the first frame Calvert reached first on an error, Peterson walked and McLean singled infield, loading the bags. Pendergrass then hit Al Wray with a curve ball and Calvert was forced over the plate.

The Jillers tied it up in the third when Lanning, himself, lost control. Schroer, Pendergrass and Granato walked, and Schroer tallied after Kellenberger flied out to Wray in right field.

After escaping damage in the second and third innings, Pendergrass blew up in the fourth and was removed for Leitheiser. With one away, Cook walked, Patterson stepped away from a curve ball and blooped a single into right and Lanning walked, filling the bases. Calvert drew another base on balls forcing in Cook, and Leitheiser took over the Tavern hurling duties.

McDonald's slammed Leitheiser's first pitch into center-field, scoring Patterson and Lanning, but Peterson grounded out to end the inning.

Hawkins Singles
The Craters really broke out their heavy artillery in the fifth, and when the shelling was finished the score was 12 to 1. McDonald started the rally with a single to short, and Wray followed with a single to right. Cook sacrificed and Patterson walked, loading the bases. Manager Tommy Hawkins blasted a line single into center and McLean and Wray tallied.

Lanning reached first base on Schroer's boot, and Calvert doubled to the scoreboard, scoring Patterson and Hawkins. McDonald then crashed a double to right and Lanning and Calvert raced across the plate. Peterson walked and, with McDonald, scored on Granato's error on McLean's grounder. Wray whiffed and Cook grounded out to end the inning.

The Jillers scored their last run in the eighth when Kellenberger singled to center, Leitheiser doubled to right and Wittke grounded out.

Lanning Hot
Lanning pitched one of his best games. Ogdin, first man up in the first inning, hit the first ball thrown for a single, but from then until the eighth frame the Jillers didn't touch a base hit. Twenty-seven batters faced Big Bill over this hitless stretch.

McDonald, with a double and single and four runs batted in, led the Crater attack. Al Wray hit two singles, as did McLean. For the Jillers, Ogdin, Kellenberger and Leitheiser collected socks, one apiece.

Wray pulled a fine catch of a foul fly in right field, and Patterson came up with a pretty stab of Parker's liner down the right field line in the eighth.

Southpaw Jimmy (Goof) Rego, Medford's brainstorming pitcher, almost stole the show with his clowning. He set off a string of firecrackers in the first-base coaching box, and had the stands in stitches with his antics. He climaxed his screwy show by climbing into the grandstand in mock anger to "get the guy who said that."

Grants Pass Next
The Craters will tangle with the Grants Pass Merchants here Wednesday night in a grudge battle, and next Saturday night and Sunday afternoon will meet the Portland Babes in a pair of double-headers.

TWO MORE MAJOR LEAGUE PLAYERS GET HEAD HURTS

By Bill White
Associated Press Sports Writer
The argument of whether a player should dress up like one of King Arthur's armor-plated knights before stepping onto the diamond is due for its annual airing.

The cobwebs had hardly cleared from Dodger Ducky Medwick's brain after being beamed by Bob Bowman of the Cards Tuesday, when Billy Jurgens of the Giants was boffed yesterday by Bucky Walters of the Cincinnati staff, and Ted Williams, lanky Boston Red Sox outfielder, also suffered a concussion when he and Roger Cramer collided, while pursuing a fly ball.

The Giants, right in the thick of the National league pennant fight, dropped a pair to the Reds yesterday by 7-4 and 2-0, and that dropped them back to third place, while the Reds were re-mounting the throne for the sixth time.

WARD FAVORED IN AMATEUR TOURNEY

By Gail Fowler
Seattle, June 24.—(AP)—Until further notice, you might as well post Bud Ward and Marian McDougall as the goiters to beat in the Pacific Northwest Amateur men's and women's golf tournaments which opened today.

Ward, the national amateur champion from Spokane, returned to championship form last week when he won the north-west open crown for the second year in a row with a nine-under-par 271.

All Miss McDougall of Portland has done in the last six years is to win the northwest women's title five times.

Aside from post entries, 83 men and 84 women were listed to take part in the tourney. The men were to play all week at the Broadmoor Golf club. The women will play three days at the Rainier Golf club, then switch to Broadmoor for the rest of the week.
