Billy Hulén Says:

Baseball Booker Praises Brand of State Loop Ball

It was confirmed yesterday that the African Zulu Giants, hilarious barnstorming Negro baseball team, would be in town next Wednesday night, July 3, to engage the Craters in an exhibition fracas. With the completion of arrangements for this game, the number of nationally famous clubs signed for tilt here was increased to four.

The Piney Woods Collegians, another colored nine, will play here the evening of July 17. On July 31, the bewhiskered House of Davids of Benton Harbor, Mich., will show under the local lights, and they will be followed by the Kansas City Monarchs, Negro champions of America and probably the finest barnstorming team in the world. This game is tentatively scheduled for August 7.

H. Witts, booking agent for the Piney Woods, House of Davids and Monarch clubs, was in town yesterday winding up plans for the appearances of his three teams. He made some very enlightening observations on the brand of ball being played in the Oregon State league.

"I saw Eugene beat Albany, 8 to 3, last Saturday night," he stated, "and I can truthfully say I've witnessed few better games anywhere. I saw five games in the Western International league last week, and not one of them could compare with the one Saturday night. There is no doubt but that the State league is playing better ball than class D or C loops in organized baseball, and better than many teams in class B."

Witts explained it this way: "Your ball players in class D professional leagues are paid $85 to $90 a month; in class C leagues from $75 to $100, and in class B circuits from $85 to maybe $150 for the stars. Naturally, you can't expect to get expert players at class D and C salaries. The good players would much rather play semi-pro baseball, where they receive so much per game or a cut of the gate receipts, and are able to hold down steady jobs. They make more money in semi-pro towns than they do in the lower class organized leagues, and that's why the State league, for example, boasts better players and displays a better brand of ball than that in many professional loops."

When told that the State league probably would leave its semi-pro status behind and jump into organized ball within three years, Witts warned that if it did fans wouldn't see the same high-class baseball they are witnessing now. "It will be the same story," he explained. "You will be paying ball players less than they are getting here now, and as a result you won't be able to obtain the same caliber of players. They will be youngsters coming up, true, but they won't turn up the class of baseball you are seeing right now."

Witts, incidentally, remarked that the House of David team, for years the most famous traveling nine in the country, had a $2,650 per month payroll. That the team always meets its player obligations is proof of its year-after-year drawing power in the cities, towns and hamlets of America. When the House of David plays, they usually turn 'em away from the park.

HARRELL PITCHES 7-0 VICTORY FOR BEAVERS

By the Associated Press. The Hollywood Stars staged a super-colossal Movietown hitting extravaganza last night and the Oakland Acorns of the Pacific Coast baseball league found themselves on the short end of a 7 to 0 score. The Seattle Rainiers widened their margin of league leadership by trimming San Diego, 4 to 1. Still skidding, the Sacramento Senators slumped into seventh place by dropping a 7 to 0 shutout to the tail-end Portland Beavers. The Sacs got just four safeties off Ray "Hard-luck" Harrell, who struck out 12. San Francisco climbed to the top of the second division by coming from behind to curb the Los Angeles Angels, 5 to 4.

Craters to Clash With Grants Pass Nemesis Here Tonight

JIM REGO GIVEN FLINGING CHORE FOR LOCAL NINE

Cook, DiSordi or Ostrom Scheduled to Pitch for the Merchants; Game at 8:30

Jimmy Rego will toss his southpaw slants tonight as Medford's State league Craters attempt to get revenge against the Grants Pass Merchants, first-half champions of the Southern Oregon league, for that 8 to 3 licking they suffered at the capable hands of the Climate City laddies last Wednesday eve. The game is called for 8:30 under the arc at the fairgrounds park.

It is not definitely known who will take care of the flinging job for the Grants Passers, but it will be one of three right-handers—Jack Cook, Nig DiSordi or Chuck Ostrom. DiSordi was the boy who beat the Craters last time the two clubs collided, and may again get the call tonight. However, it is believed that Ostrom, ace of the Merchant staff, will open on the firing line.

Manager Tommy Hawkins of the Medfords will send his strongest lineup against the team which ended the first-half S.O.L. race with seven victories and no defeats and has a winning streak of eight straight. Patterson will be on first, Cook on second, McDonald on short, McLean on third, Wray in right, Peterson in center and Calvert or Pacheco in left. Hadkins will do the catching.

Fans Excited. Grants Pass will go to the post with Woods catching, Ralph Lanning on first, Blacksmith on second, Hibbard on short, Gordy Howerton on third, and Joe Gray and Gipe taking care of two outfield berths. The other outer gardener won't be known until game time.

Reports from Grants Pass are to the effect that fans of that city are planning to move into Medford en masse for the clash tonight. The Merchants' starting victory over the Craters last week sent enthusiasm sky rocketing in the Climate village, and at the same time caused a considerable decline in the prestige of the local nine. Grants Pass tonight will be shooting for even greater honors: two straight over the State leaguers, while the Medford club will be bending its efforts toward erasing the blot of what it regards as a "disgraceful" defeat.

Manager Hawkins announced yesterday the signing to a Crater contract of Al Wimer, young southpaw pitcher who hurled for Medford high this spring and turned in a no-hit, no-run victory in one trip to the rubber. Wimer will be carried the rest of the season and may get a chance to fling occasionally.

FANS BATTLE AT L. A. RINGSIDE

Los Angeles, June 26.—(AP)—Eight thousand boxing fans—some of whom may be readily identified by black eyes and mashed noses—would like to see a rematch between lightweight champion Sammy Angott and Baby Arizmendi. Thanks to these two, boxing came back to life in Los Angeles last night. They battled so ferociously for 10 rounds that a dozen or so belligerent gents in the audience wanted to keep the action going—and did.

When Lieut. Jack Kennedy, who years ago was rated a first-class referee, called the fight a draw, no less than five bare fists started as soon as he had rendered his decision. It took the police 10 minutes to separate the combatants.

GEORGE PACHECO CUT LOOSE BY PORTLAND

Portland, June 26.—(AP)—Freddie Muller, once the middle link in the Pacific Coast league's best double-play combination, was released unconditionally last night by the Portland Beavers. Muller, veteran of many seasons with Seattle, joined Portland this spring but failed to get into his old-time stride, either afield or at the plate. The Beavers also released George Pacheco, utility infielder.

TEE QUEEN—Par holds no terrors for Betty Jameson (above) of San Antonio, Tex. Last year's women's national golf champion, she won Trans-Mississippi title, defeating Patty Berg in 8 under par over Glen Echo course, St. Louis.

BOB GILSTRAP LANDS STEELHEAD WITH DRY FLY; RUN IN RIVER

A two and a half pound steelhead was landed by Bob Gilstrap near the Jimmy Valentine home on Rogue river last evening and, remarkably, the fish was caught with an absolutely dry fly, an occurrence seldom enjoyed by anglers.

Bob's fly was rather small and brown with a yellow rib around it and a China pheasant tail, brown hackle with buck hair for wings. Bob made the fly himself, and stated that he had used it for the past two years with great success, although yesterday was the first time he ever landed a steelhead with it.

Bob said that he fished dry on a light tapered leader and advised other anglers that if they would do the same they would receive far more enjoyment than usual. He also landed eight trout yesterday.

Fishing in the river Saturday and Sunday evening, Gilstrap caught his limits of trout on a number 10 hook, which seemed to be the best lure, he said. From 6 p. m. until time to quit apparently is the best time for fishing, he stated, and added that the river was very low for this time of year, probably the reason for dry flies being good lure.

There is a fresh run of steelhead in the river, with many being taken on spinners and crawfish.

BOXMEN RALLY TO DEFEAT CATHOLIC KATBALLERS, 4-3

Wooden Box pulled off a three-run rally with two men out in the last half of the seventh and final inning to edge out the Catholic Men, 4 to 3, in a thrilling American league softball game at the stadium last night.

Behind 1 to 3, the Boxmen suddenly broke loose when Piche singled, Baker walked and Hank Pacheco drove a long fly into right-center which Morrisey dropped, allowing all runners to tally.

In the other American league clash, Medco remained unbeaten by trimming Jennings Tire, 8 of 3. Pritchard, Hoffer and Caples belted doubles for the winners, while Severson tripled and Bowerman doubled for the losers.

Two fine tilts were played in the National league, Elks beating Gasco, 4 to 2, and Bear Creek nosing out Eagles, 8 to 7. Graham hit a homer and double for the Elks and Vandegriff tripled for Gasco. Curry homered and tripled for Bear Creek.

MAGAZINE STORY PRAISES ROGUE

The famous fishing waters of Rogue river received nationwide publicity in the July issue of Field and Stream magazine, through the lead story in the publication, "Steelhead Days," written by H. L. Betten.

The author, in a fine article, describes the great sport he has enjoyed in various parts of the Rogue. The article is illustrated with actual photographs, including one of Pierce Riffle, "where thousands of steelhead have been taken."

Safety Plan Devised

Samden, N. J. (AP)—Herman A. Knapp, Colingswood power engineer, has a sure-cure system for preventing payroll robberies. He suggests establishment of governmental agencies for the cashing of pay vouchers and checks.

Screwball Title at Stake In Galento, Baer Fracas

By Sid Feder
Shmolt N. J., June 26.—(AP)—Tony Galento, at 240 pounds, is a mere shadow of his former self. And every inch of his 42-inch circumference bristles with a grudge.

The grudge is against Madcap Maxie Baer. And if you've never seen one-and-a-half Ton's waist-line bristling, you really should come up and see him some time. Tony tangles with Madcap Maxie in the Jersey City hall park next Tuesday for 15 rounds or less in a brawl for the championship of the screwballs and presidency of the whackos. It seems the keg-shaped gent from Jersey hasn't felt the same about Maxie ever since he, himself, took all of Joe Louis' Sunday stuff last June and then recalled that Baer had been accused of "quitting" to the Brown Bomber back there five years ago.

"Imagine any bum, quittin' to Louis," he shouted. "And imagine dat bum out of all of dem doin' it!"

So Tony collected himself a home-made grudge because of it. Now, some cynics may say this is only part of the build-up for the fight, but no one, to date, has ever accused the roly poly one of being that subtle.

He took the Baer bout against the best judgment of his advisors. Joe Jacobs before he died advised against it. Since Joe and his big cigar left, Herman Taylor and Harry Mendel, carrying on for him, argued the same thing. They pointed out the match could mean nothing to Tony. They showed him that by his stand against Louis last year he was a cinch to get the title shot anyway, especially since the available challengers might just as well "stood in bed." Still, Tony insisted on the Baer thing.
