

SOCIETY AND CLUB NEWS OF THE WEEK

By CLARA MARY DAVIS

Catholic Church Scene of Wedding Tuesday Morning

One of the loveliest of June weddings was solemnized Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock in the Sacred Heart Catholic church when Miss Jenet Jensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jens Jensen became the bride of Norman Moty, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. N. Moty of Klamath Falls, in a nuptial mass performed by the Rev. Father Francis W. Black.

The beautiful and stately bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin wedding gown of princess style with train and trimmed with seed pearls. Falling from a Juliet cap of seed pearls was a fingertip veil of fine net. Her only jewelry was a small gold cross. White sweetpeas, stercoraria and lilies of the valley comprised her shower bouquet.

The bride's sister, Miss Margaret Jensen of Salinas, Cal., was maid of honor. She wore an exquisite gown of blue chiffon with a Juliet cap made of fresh pansies and white larkspur. She carried an old-fashioned nosegay of rosebuds, larkspur and sweetpeas in pastel shades.

Bridesmaids were the Misses Geraldine Wilkinson and Jeanette McKee. Their identical gowns were made of pink chiffon and their Juliet caps were of pink larkspur and pansies. They also carried old-fashioned nosegays.

Doranne Wood of Salinas, niece of the bride, acted as flower-girl. She was pretty in a gown of yellow taffeta and tulle with a wreath of pastel flowers in her hair.

James Cronin of Klamath Falls was best man and ushers were John Jensen and George Moty, brothers of the bride and bridegroom.

Mrs. Jensen, the bride's mother, wore a green and white chiffon frock and a gardenia corsage. Mrs. Moty was dressed in navy blue and white, with a gardenia corsage.

A breakfast was given in the small dining room of the Hotel Medford for about 40 guests, following the ceremony. A wedding cake and white flowers decorated the table.

Among the out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Woods and two children of Salinas, Cal. Mrs. Woods is a sister of the bride. Other guests included the aunt of the bride, Mrs. Mathew B. Diederick of St. Cloud, Minn., Miss Margaret Jensen, sister of the bride, of Salinas, Cal., cousins of the bride; the Misses Hildegard and Loretta Fleidley of Oakland, Cal., and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Espey of Prineville. Mrs. Espey is another sister of the bride.

Following a wedding trip, the newly wedded couple plan to make their home at the Marion apartments in Klamath Falls, where Mr. Moty is associated with his father in business.

The bride received her early schooling at St. Mary's academy in this city. Later she attended Maryhurst college in Oswego.

Mr. Moty, who resided in Medford until moving to Klamath Falls about five years ago, attended the University of Portland.

Miss Simkins Visits Here

Miss Leneve Simkins, who is returning from New York City to her home at Cottage Grove, stopped for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Woodford last week.

Miss Simkins formerly lived in Medford. This last year she has been attending the New York University.

MOTHERS

Let us correct your child's health or posture problems with scientifically planned exercises.

Nissen Health Institute
15 Geneva—Phone 253

Why Have Inexperienced Operators Do Your Beauty Work WHEN

Operators with years of experience can give you the finest of beauty work in an air conditioned salon

AT THESE LOW PRICES

Permanent Waves $2.00 and up
Oil Shampoo and Hair Style $1.00

CAMEO BEAUTY SALON
18 So. Central Phone 57

Weds In Church Rites

Mrs. Norman Moty, nee Miss Jenet Jensen, who was wed in a beautiful nuptial mass at the Sacred Heart Catholic church Tuesday morning. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jens Jensen. The couple will make their home in Klamath Falls. (Photo by Shangle.)

Recent Bride Honored At Shower Party

Mrs. Arthur Davis entertained with a linen shower Thursday evening at her home on South Peach street honoring a recent bride, Mrs. Sammy Sleete, the former Miss Kathleen Carpenter.

The couple were married on June 10 in Reno, Nev. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Carpenter of Phoenix. Mr. Sleete is the son of Mrs. W. D. Sleete of Medford and is associated with Peirce Auto Freight lines. They are making their home in this city.

Guests enjoying the pleasant affair were Mrs. George Carpenter, Mrs. Sleete, Mrs. Bob Paris, Mrs. Gene Curry, Mrs. Cliff Peart, Mrs. Ralph Lantz, Mrs. Paul Corwin, Mrs. Ed Smith, Mrs. Pat Grant, Miss Yvonne Crowl, Miss Gertrude Buchanan.

Games were played throughout the evening.

Davidsons Leave For San Francisco

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Davidson and infant son Durno, accompanied by Mr. Davidson's mother, Mrs. Charles F. Shontz of Portland, left yesterday for San Francisco, Cal., to vacation until next Monday.

Mrs. Shontz had been a visitor at the Davidson home on Ashland avenue for the past few days.

Zonta Delegate Visits Former Local Resident

Members of Medford Zonta club may look forward to an interesting and detailed report of the Zonta International convention being held at Estes national park in Colorado, according to word received here Saturday from Mrs. Ernest Rostel, who visited with Miss Louise Basford, Medford school teacher and Zonta delegate to the convention.

Mrs. Rostel, former Medford resident and wife of the publicity director of the park, first saw Miss Basford in the park wearing a dusty rose dress embroidered in pastel yarns and "carrying several pounds of programs and notes."

Miss Basford, at the time of Mrs. Rostel's writing, had planned several tours including one which goes up the Trail Ridge road over the famous Continental Divide where there are lots of snow and Alpine flowers grow. The former Medfordite and the Zonta delegate promptly planned a rendezvous for the following day.

Pro-America to Convene Monday

George M. Roberts, Medford attorney, will be the guest speaker at the luncheon meeting Monday noon of Pro-America, National Republican Women's organization.

Mr. Roberts will talk on the Republican convention held this week in Philadelphia. It is anticipated that his subject will be of great interest to members of Pro-America who are all asked to be present.

Closing time for Too Late to Classify Ads is 1:30 p. m.

WEST MAIN APARTMENTS
1005 West Main

Completely Redecorated. 2 and 3 room furnished or unfurnished. Air Conditioning, heat, hot and cold water, electricity, garage furnished.

MODERATELY PRICED

Evelyn Leonard Weds Local Man In Church Service

Picturesque St. Mark's Episcopal church was the scene of a beautiful wedding Friday evening at 8 o'clock when the Rev. Father Herald G. Gardner united in marriage Miss Evelyn Mae Leonard and Franklin Van Pelt.

The lovely blond bride wore a gown of heavy French faille, fashioned with shirred bodice, full gored skirt, long sleeves and train. Her finger-tip tulle veil was held in place by a toque of orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

Preceding the entrance of the bride, who walked down the aisle with her father, C. C. Leonard, came Mrs. Robert Sherwood, the bride's only attendant. She wore a Colonial gown of light blue printed organdie and a leghorn picture hat trimmed with long velvet streamers. Her Colonial nosegay was composed of pink rose buds and blue delphinium.

Robert Sherwood was the best man and ushers were Messrs. Donald C. Leonard, brother of the bride and Murray S. Gardner.

Mrs. Gardner sang "At Dawning" accompanied by Mrs. Eva H. Marsh at the organ who also played the wedding music. Vows were exchanged at an altar decorated in all white snapdragons, gladioli and tapers.

Mrs. Leonard chose a pink lace dress, a toque of pink flowers and a gardenia and pink bawrdia corsage for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Van Pelt, the bridegroom's mother, wore a navy blue dress with matching hat and a corsage of gardenias.

After the ceremony, a reception for a few guests was held at the Leonard home on South Holly street. Arrangements of mixed bouquets and baskets of white gladioli were about the rooms.

The bride's table was covered with a white maderia cloth. A bowl of gardenias and white bawrdia with white tapers formed the center piece.

Later the couple left for a wedding trip to the bay area and southern California. The bride's going-away ensemble was a black sheer with white trimmings and accessories. She wore a corsage of gardenias.

Out-of-town guests attending the ceremony and reception were the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Van Pelt of Salem, Mrs. Dean Tucker, sister of Mr. Van Pelt of Salem, Mrs. Blossom Cronn of Portland and Mrs. H. A. Snowden and Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Irwin of Willows, Cal.

Mrs. Van Pelt, who was feted at a number of pre-nuptial events, attended Medford schools and Oregon State college for three years. Her husband graduated from the Salem schools and attended Oregon State college where he was affiliated with Delta Tau Delta fraternity. In this city he is associated with the California Oregon Power company.

Auto, Plate and Window Glass installed reasonably. Medford Plate Glass & Mirror Co., 85 So. Bartlett

Music Corporation of America

AMERICA'S SWINGING, SINGING FAVORITE!

IN PERSON

PHIL HARRIS AND HIS ORCHESTRA

Featured On JACK BENNY'S JELLO PROGRAM

Featuring RUTH ROBIN

Oriental Gardens
MEDFORD
Tuesday, July 2nd
Admission $1.00 person plus tax
Tickets on Sale Jackson County Bank Bldg., Main and Central.

Mrs. Franklin Van Pelt

Mrs. Franklin VanPelt, the former Miss Evelyn Leonard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Leonard, whose marriage was an impressive event of Friday evening in St. Mark's Episcopal church here.—(Shangle Photo.)

Baker-Casey Rites Held in Nevada

Miss Dorothy Baker, daughter of Rod Baker of Butte Falls and Lowell Casey of Medford were married in Reno, Nev., on June 17. The Rev. Mr. Case officiated.

The couple was attended by Miss Fern Cook and Ernest Childreth, a cousin of the bridegroom.

The bride was attractively gowned in a pink frock with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Her attendant wore a two-tone blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of carnations.

Those attending the ceremony were Mr. Casey's mother, Mrs. Barney Leabo of Butte Falls, her sister, Mrs. G. E. Childreth, Mrs. Bessie Cook and daughter Marie. Mr. Casey is associated with the Pierce-Allen Motor company.

Service Club To Meet Soon

Service club of Spanish War Veterans will hold a special call meeting Tuesday evening at 7:30 at the home of Gladys Rammin, 831 West 12th street.

pink clover

The fresh fragrance of summer meadows—Pink Clover—captured by Harriet Hubbard Ayer in a delightful sequence of beauty luxuries.

Perfume 5.00; 1.00 Bath Powder 1.00
Face Powder 1.00 Cologne 1.00
Soap .55; .50 Talcum 50

HEATH'S DRUG STORE

Mrs. Welch Named Sojourner's Club President At Meet

Mrs. Douglass Welch was elected president of the Medford Sojourners' club at a recent dessert luncheon, bridge and business session held at the Hotel Medford.

Other officers elected were: Mrs. C. M. Starnes, vice-president; Mrs. Royal J. Clare, secretary; Mrs. G. V. Allen, treasurer. Retiring officers who were also instigators of the Sojourners in this city six months ago, who were responsible for much of the success of the organization, include: Mrs. O. J. Halboth, president; Mrs. Clare, vice-president; Mrs. Welch, secretary; Mrs. Arthur Herring, treasurer.

Guests enjoying the afternoon affair were Mesdames Paul J. Selby, E. L. Faler, E. F. Stanton, J. J. Flanagan. Prospective members present were Mrs. Robert Thomson, Mrs. Myrtle Peyton.

Members present were Mesdames C. B. Robinson, A. W. Samuels, G. V. Allen, George Albright, Cliff Andrus, Don K. Bagley, John Barr, Charles Bottjer, Eugene Card, Royal Clare, Harold Cloake, E. S. Degman, George Dougherty, Jack Evans, Kenneth Fitzgerald, Calvin Frances, Herald Gardner, Halboth, Maurice Harris, Herring, R. L. Hollenbeck, Walt E. Hoppe, Ed Hoppe, Irving Housechild, Frank Humphrey, Hal Johnson, Leonard Lewis, A. W. LaMar, Arthur Loeffler, Clyde Moffett, James L. Murphy, Lester Nielsen, Frances Paige, George Perkins, C. H. Post, Cliff Proctor, C. S. Raymond, Glenn Rose, C. R. Shaw, Floyd Somers, Bren Starcher, Starnes, Rex Stroud, Howard Swanson, Ragnar Uden, Welch, Kenneth Wells, Robert Wright, E. S. Randolph, R. T. Alfrey, Alice Allen, Roy Byrd.

Bridge prizes were won by Mrs. Faler, Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Clare and Mrs. Humphrey.

Hostesses for the next party will be Mrs. Andrus, Mrs. Barr, Mrs. Bottjer, Mrs. C. R. Christiansen.

(Continued on Page Five.)

Hollywood, June 29.—(AP)—Wayne Morris, young motion picture actor, confirmed today that he and his society girl wife, Leonora (Bubbles) Schinas, had separated.

Elsie Andren
Formerly of Mann's has Now Joined the Staff of

ADRIENNE'S
Salon of Beauty
Phone 577

Mrs. Bismark is Party Hostess

Mrs. Herbert Bismark entertained in her Beck apartment Friday afternoon with a birthday party honoring her daughter Margaret, the occasion being her 11th natal day.

Guests included D'Ann Beck, Betty Ann and Janet Shaw, Katherine Ann Hoppe, Fannie Belle Sullivan, Artice Earnest, Shirley Barton, Jeraldyn Jerome and Dolores Bismark.

Mrs. Bismark was assisted by Mrs. Michael Beck and Mrs. Richard Witt. A color scheme of green and white was used in decorations at the pleasant birthday event.

See Mail Tribune want ads.

Mrs. Paul Selby Feted At Several Bridge Parties

Mrs. Paul Selby, a visitor at the home of her mother, Mrs. Margaret Fabrick on Crater Lake avenue, was feted at several delightful parties last week.

On Friday afternoon Mrs. Glenn Fabrick and Mrs. Margaret Fabrick entertained with a dessert luncheon and seven tables of bridge for Mrs. Selby. Prizes were won by Mrs. William Bowerman, Mrs. Rupert Henry and a guest prize was presented to the honoree. The two hostesses also gave a party the same evening. Six tables of bridge participated and prizes were won by Mrs. Vera Strader, Mrs. Frank Peri, Mrs. Jack Walker and Mrs. John White.

Also entertaining during the week for Mrs. Selby was Mrs. William P. Davidson at her home on Ashland avenue. She gave a delightful bridge luncheon for the following guests: Mesdames Jack Walker, Neville Biden, Bayard Getchell, O. J. Halboth, Walt E. Hoppe, Wilton White and L. T. Nygaard.

Mrs. Eugene Monaco was also a hostess for the visitor during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Selby and their daughter, plan to vacation here until July 8 at which time they will return to their home in Sacramento, Cal.

PERL FUNERAL HOME
John A. & Frank Post
Ambulance service
PHONE 47

Don't Let Stocking Worries Spoil Your 4th of July Holiday

WEAR

Berkshire Kantruns
And Be Secure —

You'll become a KANTRUN fan after your very first pair. These exquisite stockings resist runs...but they do more than that. They powder your legs with the dullest, sheekest, laciest stockings you've ever known. Ask for Berkshire's KANTRUNS!

BERKSHIRE'S Kantrun STOCKINGS

Popular Colors

Pair $1.25

M. M. Dept. Store