

Vivien Leigh and Robert Taylor in "Waterloo Bridge" at Craterian

SHERWOOD'S HIT IN MODERN FORM OPENS RUN TODAY

Lucile Watson, Virginia Field in Brilliant Cast — 1940 Setting Is Featured.

Vivien Leigh and Robert Taylor form the outstanding romantic team of 1940 in "Waterloo Bridge," their new starring film which comes today to the Craterian theatre for an engagement of three days.

In her first American screen appearance since she won the Academy Award for her performance as Scarlett O'Hara in "Gone With the Wind," Miss Leigh has a no less romantic but more tender and sympathetic role in the new film as a ballet dancer who falls in love with a dashing young officer she meets on Waterloo bridge during an air raid.

As the officer, Taylor has one of the finest roles of his career, a characterization which requires him to age from 25 to 48. Their breathless love story and the effects of war on their romance and lives is graphically told in the film.

Giving the picture more timelessness and vitality, the Robert E. Sherwood stage success has been adapted to open in London of 1940 and then turns back the pages of history to 1917 for its major theme.

Featured in the notable supporting cast are such screen favorites as Lucile Watson, Virginia Field, Maria Ouspenskaya and C. Aubrey Smith.

Lake Claims Victim
Portland, June 29. — (P) — Robert Crano, 21, Portland, was drowned in Blue Lake last night after his boat upset. A companion, William A. Gramsley, attempted to rescue his friend, but the body was in the water ten minutes before it was recovered.

"Oomph Girl" In Brilliant "Torrid Zone" Cast

James Cagney, Ann Sheridan and Pat O'Brien make up the triple-threat star cast of the Craterian theatre's next attraction, "Torrid Zone," opening a four-day run Wednesday. In the featured supporting cast are Andy Devine, Helen Vinson, Jerome Cowan and George Tobias, among others. An exciting comedy drama, set against the tropical background of the South American banana country, "Torrid Zone" shows Cagney and O'Brien as the hard-boiled plantation bosses for a big fruit company. Ann Sheridan is an American torch singer who goes to the "torrid zone" to cash in on her talents as a singer and card sharp.

As an added attraction on the same program, the Craterian will have a new Walt Disney cartoon in Technicolor, "Bill Posters," featuring Donald Duck and The Goof.

John Garfield and Ann Shirley Stars Of Rialto's Drama

Topping the program at the New Rialto theatre for today and Monday is "Saturday's Children," dealing with the every-day problems portrayed by down-to-earth characters. Starring Ann Shirley and John Garfield, plus a pleasant group of performers that include Claude Rains, Roscoe Karns, Lee Patrick, Dennis Moore and many others, the picture is to quote a familiar phrase—as American as apple pie.

A charming and wistful drama, with plenty of comedy to liven things up throughout, "Saturday's Children" is the story of an average boy and girl who meet in a business office and fall in love. The eventual proposal is effected after the girl succumbs to the wiles of a hardened older sister, and coerces the boy into marriage—forcing him to give up a promising future in the Philippines.

As the "Saturday's Children," John Garfield and Ann Shirley are said to give further evidence of their talents and to make an ideal screen team. Claude Rains has a semi-comedy role as the girl's father;

Dennie Moore plays a "there's one in every office" type of secretary commuting daily from the jungles of darkest Bronx; Roscoe Karns is the brother-in-law whose only sin in life is a flat wallet; and Lee Patrick is Anne's older sister.

"Pop Always Pays," with funnyman Leon Errol in the title role as the father who promises to double his daughter's fiancée's bank account when it reaches a thousand dollars and finds himself in hot water when it actually does happen, much to his surprise, brings added laughs to the screen. Adele Pearce, Dennis O'Keefe and Walter Catlett are featured.

FIRESTONE SALES MANAGER VISITOR

C. M. Barnes of Los Angeles, sales manager in the west for the Firestone Tire and Rubber company, was a visitor in Medford last week. He was accompanied by R. W. Davis, manager of the Oregon district. Mr. Barnes directs Firestone sales throughout 11 western states.

More than a routine inspection of company operations in this city, Mr. Barnes and Mr. Davis came to Medford to see the newly established tire retreading department just installed in the building of the local Firestone Auto Supply and Service store at Ninth street and Riverside avenue. This department, replete with latest equipment for retreading passenger car and truck tires of all sizes, has been added at an estimated cost of $10,000. Retreading for Firestone dealers will also be handled in this new modern department.

New Charlie Chan Thriller Coming

Charlie Chan returns to the screen of the New Rialto theatre for Tuesday and Wednesday with his latest thriller, "Charlie Chan's Murder Cruise," with Sidney Toler playing the detective and Marjorie Weaver and Robert Lowery heading the supporting cast that includes Lionel Atwill, Sen Yung and Cort Witherspoon. Matching wits with a master strangler who slays three victims on board a luxury liner, the wily Oriental's latest exploits make action-packed mystery entertainment. "Hot Steel," newest of the Richard Arlen-Andy Devine adventures, will be the companion feature.

motorists and truck operators to secure added service from tires by having the carefully checked and serviceable casing "half-soled."

Mr. Barnes and Mr. Davis also conferred with Chet Lindley, local Texaco agent who has become a distributor for Firestone tires in this area. Arrangements were also made for the appearance here of a unique tire X-ray machine at an early date. This novel equipment is now creating considerable attention at Portland.

Semi-Skill Help Gains
Salem, June 29. — (P) — The state employment service reported today that of 6,031 placements in May 2,037 were of semi-skilled workers. Skilled labor accounted for 490 places, unskilled workers for 1,752, professional service 802 and other "white collar" occupations for the remainder.

Gloria Jean

"The Underpup," which brought stardom to little Gloria Jean, heads the twin bill opening a three-day run today at the Roxy theatre. As an East Side New York youngster who wins a trip to an exclusive girls' camp, the 11-year-old Gloria is given a chance to sing five song numbers during the course of the picture.

"Henry Goes Arizona," starring Frank Morgan as a vaudeville player who goes west and runs into more than he bargained for, is the second feature on the Roxy twin bill.

Firefighter Hurt
Portland, June 29. — (P) — One fireman was slightly injured by falling boards today as flames swept stacked lumber at the Portland Lumber company. Fire investigators estimated loss at not more than $2,500, although 22 pieces of apparatus hastened to the fire.

WHEAT, RYE, CORN PRICES IN DROP

Chicago, June 29. (P)—Wheat prices slumped two cents, corn three cents and rye more than a cent today as grain values returned to around the lowest level since the European war began.

Weakness was associated with liquidation of July contracts upon which delivery can be made beginning Monday, enlarged marketing of new winter wheat in the southwest, favorable weather and crop conditions and the disturbed European situation.
