NAZIS STAGE ALL-DAY BOMBING RAID

Flames Level 12 Homes in Logging Community

ENGLAND IS RAKED FROM END TO END; THREE SHOT DOWN

15 Dead, 144 Wounded in 24 Hours; Royal Air Force Stabs at Nazi Positions

Washington, D. C., July 3.—Providing the Republican national ticket is successful in November and thereby Charles L. McNary becomes vice-president, it will leave a vacancy in the senate, and it is the ambition of Governor Charles A. Sprague to succeed Senator McNary in the upper branch of congress. This statement is made on the authority of one of the high party leaders who says "the deal is all fixed up."

The mechanics are these: A governor fills a senate vacancy by appointment. Governor Sprague cannot, obviously, appoint himself, so a device is arranged. If Governor Sprague resigns, Speaker Fatland becomes speaker. The normal line of succession would be the president of the senate, but Robert Duncan has resigned since the legislature met, to become a circuit judge. With no president of the senate, the house speaker steps into the executive office.

An understanding has been reached between Fatland and Sprague and all that is necessary to complete the deal is for McNary to become vice-president. This story was brought to the national capital four hours after McNary was unanimously nominated at Philadelphia.

London, July 3.—(AP)—German bombers in all-day attacks today over the whole length of England killed two persons and injured 22.

The raiders dropped bombs on the southeast coast, in the north-east of England, in Scotland and on the eastern English shore.

Three German bombers were shot down, one of them in a fierce fight off the southeast coast.

Today's casualties brought to 15 dead and approximately 144 wounded the total for the past 24 hours.

New stabs at the German Ruhr, Westphalia, Belgium and Denmark were made meantime by the Royal Air Force, the air ministry announced.

R.A.F. Stabs Bases
 Tonight the air ministry disclosed that coastal command planes of the R.A.F. which raided German bases in Holland last night were American Hudson-Lockheed bombers. One of them shot down a Messer-Schmitt fighter.

A baby and a grandmother were reported killed by a bomb which demolished a house in a southeast coast town.

Several workmen were injured by three bombs which dropped in northeastern England.

In the southeast, a bombing attack set a big building afire during the afternoon. Nazi planes also throbbed over a northeastern town, but no bombs were dropped immediately.

British defenders tallied their 24th raiding plane brought down in a half-month of continuing, big scale forays.

At one point in the south a German bomber fled southward, pursued by three British Hurricane fighters. With Swastikas plainly visible, it swooped to drop "whistling" bombs, then circled and dropped more. A column of smoke rose where the bombs fell.

Open Country Bombed
 In the southeastern raid one bomb fell in a garden, smashing the front of a house. Two other bombs fell in an adjoining roadway and more fell in the open country and in the sea.

A German plane was seen low over the town before it disappeared over the ocean.

German planes spanned south coast defenses this morning and

Townsend, Wheeler Confer

Townsendites Told Pension Periled by War Excitement

St. Louis, July 3.—(AP)—Senator Sheridan Downey (D-Cal.) today told the Townsend national convention of 8,000 delegates that "before the war hysteria hit Washington, a substantial majority of the senate was ready to vote for the Townsend plan."

The old-age pension program of 73-year-old Dr. Francis E. Townsend calls for a 2 per cent gross income tax to finance payments to citizens over 60, with an ultimate maximum of $200 a month.

Downey called the present social security act "a tragic, stupid failure," and said that in recent debates "no senator had the courage to defend that charter of misfortune and poverty."

Although Downey is recognized as the leading "Townsendite" holding public office he called Dr. Townsend "out leader"—he did not refer to the third party hints made at the convention.

The third party talk yesterday—by Senator Burton K. Wheeler (D-Mont.), John L. Lewis of the CIO and Dr. Francis E. Townsend, founder of the pension movement—carried an "if" more or less directed at the Democratic candidate.

Wheeler, who announced that his name would be presented to the Democratic convention, whether or not President Roosevelt seeks a third term, told the Townsendites:

"Unless the Democrats adopt a liberal, progressive platform, . . . and pledge their candidate to keep this country out of war, then there won't be any difference between the Republican party and the Democratic party."

"If this should happen, there will be a tremendous demand for a strong, liberal peace party which will give the people a chance to vote on whether they want war or peace."

VAST ADDITION TO NATION'S DEFENSE TO BE REQUESTED

Defense Program Officials and President Agree On Five Billion Dollar Plan

Washington, July 3.—(AP)—The senate naval affairs committee unanimously approved today a house bill authorizing the eventual expenditure of $4,000,000,000 to add 200 combat ships to the navy's fighting fleet. The legislation also removes the limit on the number of airplanes it may acquire.

Committee approval came a few hours after it became known that a vast, supplementary defense program, costing upwards of another $5,000,000,000, would be submitted to congress next week. It is designed to go far in building up the nation's air forces toward a 50,000-plane goal.

Washington July 3.—(AP)—A vast, supplementary defense program, expected to cost upwards of $5,000,000,000 and designed to take long strides toward building a 50,000-plane goal, will be submitted to congress next week.

The program discussed today at the White House, is intended to start mass production of planes, tanks and guns.

Details were worked out in a conference between President Roosevelt and top officials in the defense program, but the necessity for completing some factors for the navy probably will result in holding up its submission to congress until next week. One informed individual said a message probably would be submitted to the legislators next Monday.

Washington, July 3.—(AP)—The national defense commission announced today that the Packard Motor company had agreed tentatively to undertake a contract for 9,000 aircraft engines—3,000 for the United States and 6,000 for Great Britain.

William S. Knudsen, in charge of defense production, said the agreement was subject to approval of the Packard directors. Henry Ford refused the order, saying he would work only for the United States.

BRITISH LINER SUNK WITH NAZI, ITALIAN PRISONERS ON BOARD

London, July 3.—(AP)—The 15,501-ton British liner Arandora Star, carrying German and Italian prisoners, was interned in Canada, has been torpedoed and sunk off the coast of Ireland.

The Berlin high command communique today announced that a German submarine had torpedoed the Arandora Star west of North Channel, the strait between Ireland and Scotland.

Many Germans and Italians went down with the ship. British soldiers were aboard as guards.

About 1,000 scantily clad survivors were landed by a British ship at a Scottish port today.

The Germans and Italians were part of a contingent of prisoners of war and civilian internees. A first contingent was landed at Quebec and Montreal over the week-end.

Two soldiers said the ship was struck without warning and there was a desperate scramble for lifeboats.

COL. KNOX GIVEN COMMITTEE OKE FOR NAVAL POST

Roosevelt Nominee Not An Interventionist Is Finding — Vote 9 to 5 in Favor

Washington, July 3.—(AP)—The senate naval committee approved today President Roosevelt's inclusion of Col. Frank Knox in his cabinet and simultaneously issued a statement indicating that it had not found him to be an "interventionist."

The action, taken by a 9 to 5 vote, cleared the way for the senate to act, probably early next week, on confirmation of the Knox nomination to be secretary of navy and the nomination of Henry L. Stimson to be secretary of war. Stimson was approved yesterday by the military committee. Both men are republicans.

On behalf of the naval committee, Chairman Walsh (D-Mass.) made public a statement saying the group would have opposed Knox's nomination if it had found that he was an "interventionist." But, after questioning Knox yesterday and today, Walsh said:

Favors Aid to Allies
 "The committee is of the opinion that, though Colonel Knox has expressed extreme views in favor of aid to the allies, he has also declared emphatically his opposition to entering the European war and favors only 'moral and economic' aid to the allies by our citizens as differentiated from economic aid by our government."

"He stated his opposition to extending any governmental aid that would involve us in the war or would in any degree impair our own defenses, which cleared up the principal issue before the committee."

Chairman Walsh announced this committee vote on Knox: For the nomination—Walsh, Russell of Georgia, Byrd of Virginia, Gerry of Rhode Island, Andrews of Florida, Elder of Louisiana, Lucas of Illinois, Democrats; and Hale of Maine and Barbour of New Jersey, republicans.

Against the nomination—Senators Smith of South Carolina, Tydings of Maryland, Bone of Washington, and Holt of West Virginia, democrats; and Johnson of California, republican.

TEN WEST TIMBER FAMILIES OUSTED BY EARLY BLAZE

Fire Demon Strikes While Menfolk Away Battling Fire in Neighborhood

West Timber, Ore., July 3.—(AP)—Flames spreading in the night from an abandoned lumber mill dock destroyed 12 or 15 houses here early today. Ten families were left homeless.

The blaze started in the old Eagle Lumber company buildings, across the road from homes of loggers, many of whom were fighting forest fires on Sunset Logging company property at the time.

No residents in the tiny logging community were injured. The road dividing the single street village was piled high with household goods salvaged from the flames. The ruins still were burning furiously at 10 a. m. today and a pumper was sent from Portland.

On Wolf Creek Route.
 The town is located on the Wolf Creek highway west of Forest Grove, in the Coast range of mountains.

The Eagle mill, shut down for years, was the property of the Alaska Junk company, Portland, which had stripped it of machinery.

Officials at the Fire Protective association headquarters in Forest Grove feared continuation of weather favorable to spreading the Wolf creek blaze might undo the measure of control established last year. Unofficial estimates placed the extent of the Wolf creek close to the Washington-Tillamook county line at 200 acres, principally in old farms and slashings.

About 200 loggers combated the flames in the Sunset Logging company holdings. Many sections of green country along Portland's short highway route to the beaches had been turned to ash desolation.

A dog frightened by the fire barked so constantly it awakened its owner, Mrs. Charles Simmons, who spread the alarm among West Timber residents.

ALICE HANLEY, 82, PIONEER RESIDENT, CALLED BY DEATH

Miss Alice Hanley, beloved and widely known pioneer of the Rogue River valley, passed away shortly after noon today. Ten days ago she suffered a stroke of paralysis from which she steadily weakened.

Miss Hanley was 82 years of age. She was born in Douglas county, but at an early age she moved, with her parents, to the Jacksonville section, and spent all her days on the Hanley home place near Jacksonville. She led an active life, and for many years managed the farm. She was regarded as the best-posted person in southern Oregon on the early day history of this part of the west. She was one of the leaders in the Southern Oregon Pioneer association.

Among the surviving relatives are a sister, Mrs. Ella Hanley Bush, a nephew, Mike Hanley, Jr., of Lake Creek, two nieces, the Misses Claire and Mary Hanley, and a brother, Ed B. Hanley of Seattle. Another brother was the late William Hanley of Burns, eastern Oregon cattle king and state political figure in his day.

A complete obituary was being prepared this afternoon.

Willkie Expects Party Lines To Have Small Part in Vote

New York, July 3.—(AP)—Wendell L. Willkie said today he thought party lines would play little part in the coming presidential campaign, and that the issue was between those who believed in the New Deal's philosophy and those who opposed it.

Asked to comment on a statement by John L. Lewis, CIO chief, that Senator Wheeler (D-Mont.) was the only candidate the Democrats could nominate to defeat him, Willkie said: "It doesn't matter who the Democrats nominate. We are going to win."

Willkie added that he agreed with Lewis that President Roosevelt should be re-elected for a third term, but that he would not support him.

During his morning press conference, Willkie said he had talked by telephone last night with his running mate, Senator McNary of Oregon. He said he described the type of man he was seeking and asked McNary for suggestions.

New York, July 3.—(AP)—Wendell L. Willkie has turned thumbs down on big contributions to his campaign for president.

In a statement on campaign fund policy, the Republican nominee said yesterday, "I don't want any man who contributes to this campaign to think that by reason of a large contribution he is entitled to any reward in the way of an ambassadorship or any other public position." He announced he had issued instructions that contributions be limited to $15,000, and that all contributions from corporations be refused.

"Kid Brother" Sure

Portland, July 3.—(AP)—One man—E. E. Willkie—is certain Wendell Willkie will be the next president.

It is partly a matter of brotherly regard. E. E. Willkie is the Republican presidential nominee's "kid brother." The 43-year-old, 250-pound, 6 feet 4 1/2 inch vice-president of Libby, McNeill & Libby, paused here briefly en route to Alaska by air to check up on the salmon packing industry.

"There isn't any question but that he (Wendell) will be the next president," Willkie told interviewers. "I think the people decided that at the convention."

"Yes, McNary's an excellent choice, too, both from the geographic standpoint and from many others."

MILL TO RESUME MONDAY MORNING

The Medford Corporation (Owen-Oregon) sawmill will resume operations next Monday, after closing down today for a three-day Fourth of July vacation for its employees. General Manager James H. Owen announced today.

Manager Owen said new orders had been received recently, and the mill would continue operations as long as the volume of business justified. It was first feared the Fourth of July shutdown would be for a longer period.

FEHL ATTORNEYS WILL TRY AGAIN

Salem, July 3.—(AP)—Attorneys for former Jackson County Judge Earl Fehl said today they would begin new habeas corpus proceedings in another attempt to free Fehl from the state hospital, but they did not disclose the nature of the new action.

After Circuit Judge Louis P. Hewitt of Portland a few days ago refused to release Fehl on grounds that the court was without jurisdiction, the attorneys said they would appeal to the state supreme court. Fehl contends he now is sane.
