

BERLIN REFUSES TO AID RUMANIA IN TIME OF NEED

News Received As Carol Works to Restore National Unity and Halt Disorders

By Robert St. John
Bucharest, July 3.—(AP)—A declaration in Berlin disclaiming any assurance of German support to Rumania left a grave question here tonight as to this nation's future policy in the event of further frontier attacks.

The news was received while King Carol II worked to restore national unity and to put down internal disorders resulting from outbreaks of violent anti-Semitism.

The Berlin announcement dashed the hopes of those Rumanian officials who had been wanting a close tie-up with the reich.

Rumania in Mourning
Rumania held mourning ceremonies today to mark the end of a five-day period in which she lost one-sixth of her total area and one-fifth of her population.

Refugees from areas ceded under ultimatum to Soviet Russia participated in the observance.

While Rumanians wept over the loss of Bessarabia and northern Bucovina, anti-Jewish demonstrations spread throughout the shaken Balkan kingdom and King Carol II met with his ministers to devise means of saving his country from further loss of territory, prestige and unity.

The general staff issued the following communique:

"At noon July 3 our troops were on the following general line: On the Suceava river to Herta and the Prut river. The evacuation of personal effects and equipment is still continuing because the movement was retarded through transport difficulties caused by bad weather."

New Frontier Marked

Since the official removal period ended at noon today, the line given in the communique was interpreted as marking the new frontier between Soviet Russia and Rumania.

It was reported that Soviet Russia had protested sharply meantime, against the "tone" of yesterday's announcement of foreign minister Constantine Argetoniu that "Bessarabia and Bucovina are and will remain Rumanian."

The status of German-Soviet relations was a topic of speculation in diplomatic circles.

SPURNS CAKE FOR CANDLES—No cake-eater is "Barnegat Pete," that strong-willed deer whose amiable disposition and eating habits have made history for Barnegat, N. J. Pete's master, Raymond Beckett, arranged the party, complete with cake, for the deer's fifth birthday. Pete preferred the candles to cake. He's also been known to eat ice cream cones and carbon paper.

dropped bombs at several points, following up last evening's assault which killed 12 persons and injured 123, officials said. This was the greatest casualty list of German raids thus far on British soil.

Indicating the persistence of the Germans attacking from the south, a joint air ministry-home security ministry communique, issued shortly after noon, said anti-aircraft defenses were still in action.

The communique said: "Several enemy aircraft crossed the south coast this morning and have dropped bombs at a number of points. Anti-aircraft defenses are in action."

Several times during the night and morning bombers were said to have been forced back from the coast by anti-aircraft fire and British pursuit planes.

Another plane was driven off when it appeared over Wales, the first German daylight flight over that region.

One invading plane strafed soldiers near the English shore with machine-guns and dropped incendiary bombs.

TRIO MEET DEATH IN BURNING HOME

Eugene, Ore., July 3.—(AP)—The third victim of a farmhouse fire near Jasper, 10 miles southeast of here, died today in a Eugene hospital as the coroner recovered the charred bodies of two others.

The victims were the three children of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Chase — Pauline, 13, Darrell, 7, and Allen, 11. The latter succumbed from burns after he jumped from the second floor where the children were sleeping and received medical treatment here. The other two were trapped in the blazing structure while their parents were away.

Eddie Vogt, 16, employed by the Chases, was awakened by smoke in a first floor bedroom. He dashed outside and shouted for the youngsters to jump, but only Allen followed his instructions. Clem Curamins, a neighbor, ran into the burning house and was burned in an unsuccessful attempt to reach the victims.

ONLY SAFE FIREWORKS KIND YOU AVOID SAYS SAFETY COUNCIL HEAD

Chicago, July 3.—(AP)—Medical leaders and safety experts redoubled efforts today to reduce the high price of life and limb Americans pay each year in celebrating July 4. Pointing to last year's fireworks casualty list of 13 killed, 19 blinded in one or both eyes and 5,341 others injured, Col. John Stillwell, president of the National Safety Council, said: "To commemorate the Fourth of July—a date when freedom was won and bloodshed ended—we have built a memorial to death in a blaze of pinwheels and skyrocketers, a bedlam of firecrackers and bombs. The whole situation is ironic and senseless. "There is only one kind of safe fireworks—the kind you stay away from." About 500,000 Italians live in New York City; 2,000,000 in the United States.

SIX YOUNGSTERS DIE ON CROSSING

Chicago, July 3.—(AP)—Three girls and their three boy companions, all 'teen aged, were killed instantly by a train at a grade crossing near suburban Maywood last night as they sped to a hospital for medical assistance.

The six young victims were attending a roadhouse party when one of the girls complained of an attack of appendicitis. Her companions decided to take her to a hospital in an automobile.

Witnesses said the driver ignored signal lights and bells and swerved around a line of cars stopped for the oncoming Soo Line passenger train.

The victims were Lorraine O'Leary, 19, Lorraine Norris, 17, and Catherine Clark, 19, all of Oak Park, Ill., and Francis Frehe, 19, the driver, Joseph Santo, 19, and John Brennan, 18, all of Chicago.

TEXAS SCHOOLS RAZED BY WIND

Taylor, Tex., July 3.—(AP)—Tornadoic winds wrecked three school houses, damaged scores of buildings and laid waste crops in this section last night. No loss of life was reported.

School houses at Thorndale, San Gabriel, and Delmond were crushed. Thorndale bore the brunt of the storm as it ripped through this central Texas area.

At Eckrom and Taylor trees were uprooted, outhouses damaged and crops virtually wiped out by wind and rain.

They can't get along without it!

The life we lead, the work we do, the pleasures we enjoy are materially influenced by what's going on in the world. It's only natural, therefore, that reading the newspaper should be as much a part of everyday life as eating and sleeping.

Most people, as a matter of fact, can't get along without it . . . and practically everybody reads a newspaper every day, not only for the news it brings, but for the interpretation it presents, the pictures it prints, the entertainment it provides, the advice it offers.

Small wonder that the newspaper should be the forceful, profitable advertising medium that it is. Small wonder, too, that today, when the news plays so important a part in people's lives, the newspaper is an even more vital and profitable advertising medium than ever before.
