ZULU GIANTS RAP CRATERS, 9 TO 3, IN FUNNY FRACAS

The African Zulu Giants, a funny barnstorming ball club, and a good one, took a 9 to 3 fall out of the Medford Craters at the fairgrounds field last night before some 1,500 fans, who got a real bang out of the Wacky antics of the colored boys.

A four-run outburst in the fifth inning clinched the contest for the Zulus, who wore grass skirts but certainly weren't feminine when wielding the war clubs. Singles by Bihee, Penu and Hoodoo, a walk to Bolo and doubles by Knocredi and Rosto accounted for the tallies.

Virgil Haynes started on the Crater pitching mound and went five frames, during which he gave up 11 blows and seven runs. Young Al Wimer, southpaw, hurled the last four frames for the locals and turned in a fine performance, giving only three hits and two runs while fanning three.

Walteras, big righthander, went the route for the Zulus and held the Craters to nine scattered hits. He whiffed seven and gave five bases on balls.

Hank Pacheco's triple against the left field boards and Riney Cook's single to left gave the Craters a run in the second. A walk to McDonald and three errors accounted for another Medford run in the fifth. In the sixth the locals again scored when Cook reached first on an error, Crippen singled to left and Walteras issued two bases on balls.

The Zulus bunched doubles by Bolo and Hoodoo and a single by Walteras for two runs in the second, and a single by Hoodoo and Rosto's double for another in the fourth. They picked up one each in the sixth and eighth to complete their scoring.

Bill Calvert, with two doubles, led the Crater attack, while Cook hit a pair of singles and Pacheco tripled. Rosto belted two doubles for the colored gents and Hoodoo hit three singles.

A feature of the Zulu show was their shadow infield practice. They went through the motions of fielding ground balls and throwing, without a ball. Rosto, rightfielder, kept the large crowd happy with his dizzy antics throughout the game.

Next Saturday night and Sunday afternoon the Craters entertain the Silverton Red Sox in a pair of crucial State league games.

Score:	R.	H.	E.
Zulu Giants	9	14	5
Medford	3	9	4

Walteras and Hoodoo; Haynes, Wimer and Calvert.

LEGION JUNIORS TANGLING TODAY

American Legion junior baseball teams of Medford and Marshfield were slated to collide at the senior high school field here at 1:30 this afternoon, with the possibility a doubleheader would be played.

Marshfield, with a 6 to 4 win over the locals last week, needed only one more victory to clinch the southern Oregon district series. If the Medford juniors should win this afternoon, a third and deciding game will be played immediately after conclusion of the first fracas.

ASHLAND GRAPPLE CARD SHIPSHAPE

Promoter Mack Lillard announced today that everything was in readiness for his seven-man battle royal grappling card at Ashland tonight, starting at 8 o'clock sharp. The program will be the first in the Lithia city since last July 4.

These husky matmen will participate in the extravaganza: Dangerous Danny McShane, Pete Belcastro, Dude Chick, Bulldog Jackson, Ernie Piluso, Sgt Bob Kenaston and Prince Selaki Mehalikis.

Three regular matches will follow the free-for-all, with the grapplers paired according to their elimination from the opening tangle.

HUTCHINSON GOES BACK TO DETROIT

Toronto, July 4.—(AP)—Freddie Hutchinson, whom the Detroit Tigers purchased from Seattle in a $100,000 deal two years ago, has been recalled by the American league club to aid in its pennant drive, Manager Steve O'Neill of Buffalo announced.

Shortly before O'Neill made his announcement Hutchinson pitched the Bisons to a six-hit, 4-2 victory over Toronto last night.

ITALIAN WARFLEET SPEEDS TO AID OF FRENCH VESSELS

ers and anti-submarine craft.

Churchill bitterly assailed Petain's government, which he said had inflicted "what might have been a mortal injury" to Britain "with full knowledge of the consequences."

More than 400 German air pilots imprisoned in France, he said, had been delivered over to Germany despite France's promise that they would be sent to England.

Churchill disclosed that French battle forces at Alexandria—warned that they would not be permitted to leave the harbor—had joined British warships in fighting off an Italian air raid.

Petain Orders Return

Premier Marshal Petain had previously ordered the French navy to "fight its way home" if necessary to escape British control.

Long-range British shelling fired two huge new French battleships, the 26,500-ton Dunkerque and the 22,189-ton Provence, according to the DNB account.

The French flotilla leader Mogador was also reported burning in Oran harbor.

The 22,189-ton battleship Bretagne, sister ship of the Provence, was blown up when it hit a mine, DNB said, while attempting to run the British gauntlet.

The battleship Strasbourg, sister ship of the Dunkerque, succeeded in fighting her way out to open Mediterranean waters, along with five flotilla leaders, a number of torpedo boats and submarines.

Pledge Seen Violated

The Petain government also commanded French warships to stop all British merchantmen encountered on the high seas.

This order was not explained, but if "inspired" by German authorities in control of France it would be a contradiction of Germany's armistice pledge not to use the French fleet against the British.

In Berlin, authorized Nazis said Adolf Hitler had given the French navy "permission" to do anything it pleases against the British fleet.

Britain's royal navy opened fire on the French warships at Mers El-Kebir base, near Oran, 275 miles east of Gibraltar, after the French commander refused to submit to a six-hour ultimatum to scuttle his ships or surrender them.

Other developments broke in swift succession.

Rumania's pro-allied government, headed by Premier Gheorghe Tatarescu, resigned, and a new Nazi-Fascist regime was ushered in with a cabinet headed by Ion Gigurtu, a strong nazi sympathizer.

Simultaneously, most British oil men in Rumania—including "minute men" prepared to destroy oil wells in the event of an invasion by Germany or Russia—were ordered to leave the rich little Balkan kingdom within 24 hours.

In London, British military circles estimated that Germany's total casualties since May 10—when Hitler started his westward drive through Holland, Belgium and Luxembourg into France—totalled about 400,000.

The Nazi high command, by contrast, said on July 2 that Germany's total casualties were only 156,492, including 27,074 killed, 111,034 wounded and 18,384 missing.

French casualties in the last month of hostilities have been estimated at 1,500,000 dead, wounded and missing.

SALEM WILL RELEASE CLABAUGH FOR HURLER

Salem, Ore., July 4.—(U.P.)—Outfielde rMoose Clabaugh will be released by the Salem Senators of the Western International league when the team returns home, Manager Biddy Bishop said today.

Bishop said Clabaugh had a managing job in prospect. He will be replaced by Joe Kralovich, former Vancouver Capilano pitcher.

much the same class who are nudging Mr. Roosevelt to step in over his head off the deep end. All this could be learned at Philadelphia by any reporter who looked for underneath stuff and avoided the convention hall.

Willkie's views on the foreign policy have paralleled those of Mr. Roosevelt. Oregon's Charley McNary, running mate of Willkie, is for keeping the home fires burning, for national defense and he is not for intervention.

IF a third party materializes it will be a peace party, although the Republicans at Philadelphia claimed that title and undertook to plaster "war party" on the new deal.

While there are other Democrats in the senate who accuse the president of leading the country into war, most vocal is Wheeler. Missouri's Bennett Clark, West Virginia's Holt, Washington's Bone and others are outstanding opponents of war. They have had and will have plenty to say on the subject in the ensuing months.

Wheeler is the logical man to lead a third party on this issue. John L. Lewis has been promoting Wheeler for the Democratic nomination against Mr. Roosevelt, but as that is a hopeless cause a third party might accomplish what Lewis wants—defeat of Mr. Roosevelt. The big labor boss is intensely bitter against Mr. Roosevelt despite all the favors the president gave Lewis, and the president finally decided that the large contribution to his campaign fund by Lewis did not give the labor leader a mortgage on the White House.

MR. Lewis also has ambitions. He has himself hoped for the presidency. It is on this known ambition that conversations have been held concerning a third party with Lewis the team-mate of Wheeler. How many labor votes Lewis can control is problematical. He has undertaken to swing labor's Non-Partisan league away from Mr. Roosevelt, but with only fair success. In fact, units of the league, in the face of the Lewis manifesto, have adopted resolutions supporting Mr. Roosevelt for a third term. Of course, Lewis could not attract any votes in AFL.

THERE are in the country hundreds of thousands of young men in the colleges who are opposed to a war party, regardless of the label. These, conceivably, would flock to a third party instead of following Mr. Roosevelt or Mr. Willkie, but there are not enough votes for a third party to do more than scramble the situation for the two major parties.

One valuable asset a third party would have, however, would be the isolationist senators making red-hot speeches during the campaign with the senate serving as a sounding board. That is an advantage previous third parties did not enjoy for congress was not in session.
