

DEATH COMES TO ALICE HANLEY, 81, PIONEER WOMAN

By Evan Reames

Alice Hanley, whose full name was Alice Eliza Hanley, died in the afternoon of July 3, 1940, at the place of her birth, the Hanley ranch near Jacksonville, Oregon.

She was the daughter of Michael and Martha Burnett Hanley. She was of the age of eighty-one years, four months and three days. She was the third child in a family of nine children, only two of whom survive her, namely: Edward B Hanley of Seattle, and Ella Hanley Bush of Medford, Oregon. Of the Hanley children, other than the survivors, those best known to the people of Oregon were William D. Hanley of Burns, Oregon, Michael F. Hanley, and John Andrew Hanley of Medford. Other than her brother and sister, she is survived by Martha, Mary and Claire Hanley of Medford, and Katherine Heffernan of Seattle, nieces; Michael Hanley, Jr., owner of Hanley ranch at Butte Creek, Alex Hanley of Juntura, Oregon, and Edward B. Hanley, Jr., engaged in the practice of law at Seattle, Washington, nephews.

The services will be at the Perl Undertaking establishment, Rev. L. F. Belknap officiating. He is an Oregon pioneer of 1845. Elsie Carlton Strang will contribute a song. The services will be at 2:30, Saturday, the 6th. Interment at the Jacksonville cemetery.

The following is a list of the pallbearers: Honorary: George Dunn, Emil Britt, Ralph Billings, Herbert Hanna, J. A. Perry, Victor Bursell, Dr. James C. Hayes and Evan Reames. Active: Charles Hoover, John Wilkinson, Wesley Hartman, Arnold Bohnert, Don Stanley and Arlen Skinner.

Miss Hanley was one of the most colorful and interesting of the Oregon pioneers. She knew and remembered well Oregon history and particularly that of Southern Oregon. Through the years she was always active in those things affecting the farmer and farm life. From the beginning of the administration by the Oregon State college, of the Extension Division of the System of Higher Education, she took an active part in its work. At one time she was State Chairman of the Extension group and for some years was chairman of the county committee, and was a member of it at the time of her death. Her great interest in the community and in everything that affected its welfare brought her, through the years, a wide personal acquaintance with the people of the county. Her retentive memory made her perhaps the best informed woman in the county upon family traditions and family history. She gave freely what information she had. It will long be regretted that a better record of it does not exist.

She was active in her outdoor work. She had for many years personal supervision and operation of the Hanley ranch. During all of this time it has been a model establishment, and she fitted into the colonial home and the situation perfectly. There she was hospitable and kindly.

She had no lingering illness; she was confined to her bed but a few days; she suffered no pain; she was happy and cheerful to the very last moment. All memories of her are pleasant and they will be lasting.

SPENCER CHILDERS PIONEER BUILDER, TAKEN BY DEATH

Spencer Childers, 90, passed away at a local hospital Thursday morning after a brief illness. He was born at Clarksburg, W. Va., September 16, 1849. His father, Arnold Childers, and family, crossed the plains by a train of fifty ox teams and wagons. The family made their home in Santa Rosa, California. Spencer Childers was married to Mary Elizabeth Peter at Salinas, Calif., and to this union were born eight children, of whom seven are living. Besides his wife, Mary Childers, aged 84, survivors are Elmer, Clem and Gene of Medford; Harry and Guy of Fresno, Calif.; Bert of Middleton, Calif., and one daughter, Mrs. Jack Moran of Medford, also eight grandchildren, one sister, Mrs. John Richardson of Peyton, Oregon, and two great grandchildren.

The family established homes in a number of places in California and Oregon over a period of years, coming to Medford in 1884. Mr. Childers found the need of a building contractor and the same year started building one of the first brick buildings here. He has remained ever since. He established brick yards and furnished brick and built many of the early buildings on the Main street of this city. He was actively engaged in building until 1920 when he retired. He was known to a host of friends who will be grieved at his passing. Funeral arrangements in charge of the Perl Funeral Home will be announced later.

AIRPLANE PARTY AT LAKE O' WOODS

Three sportsman pilots of Medford, Tom Tepper, Frank Rogers, Jr. and Shelby Tuttle, flew as many airplanes to Lake of the Woods yesterday evening, spent the night there and returned home at dawn today. It was believed to be the first such mass flight to the popular resort.

All the pilots flew Piper Cubs, Tepper his own, Rogers that owned by Thomas Culbertson and Tuttle the one belonging to the Medford flying club. The flight took 25 minutes each way, according to Tuttle.

The three young men carried sleeping bags in their planes and spent the night near their ships. They sat down on the flying field northeast of the lake and about a mile from the resort.

on the southwest coast, killed 11 civilians.

The Nazi high command also reported that German U-boats, in a new outburst of undersea warfare, had sunk 86,543 tons of British merchant shipping, while Nazi speedboats torpedoed two armed British steamers totaling 12,400 tons and "shot" two others totaling 20,000 tons, and German dive bombers sank four 5,000-ton transports—a grand total of 138,943 tons.

Soviet Aims Veiled
Soviet Russia's aims in the European conflict meanwhile grew more obscure.

New columns of red army troops and mechanized equipment were reported arriving in Bessarabia, the Rumanian province seized by Russia last week, thereby strengthening the belief that Stalin is planning further demands on the harassed little Balkan kingdom.

Considerable mystery still clings to the Soviet grab in the Balkans and the Baltic as well, with some observers interpreting them as moves to counter Germany's sweeping conquest of half Europe.

Britons found a comforting warmth in this theory, hoping that eventually Russia and Germany would come to grips.

But today the Moscow newspaper Pravda, the official communist party organ, asserted that Soviet moves were directed "against plans of the British-French war mongers"—and not against Germany.
