'SCREEN' BURGLAR VISITS 3 HOUSES

A $42.50 ladies' Tavannes wrist watch was stolen from Pauline Champlin of 429 South Central avenue early Thursday morning by a thief who unfastened the screen on her bedroom window, reached in and removed the timepiece lying on top of a radio near the window.

City police said the thief apparently inserted a thin wire through the screen to unfasten the hook. Two footprints were discovered under the window, police said.

Police also received two other reports of screens being removed from bedroom windows, but nothing was stolen nor the houses entered. Joan Schuler of 6 South Newtown street told police she awakened Thursday morning to see a man looking in her bedroom window, and that when she raised up the man disappeared. The screen had been removed and was lying against the house.

Mrs. H. L. Ford of 801 West Main street reported to police that a screen had been removed from a window in her house. She said that nothing was missing.

Firemen answered a ward alarm at 10:12. The fire department's chemical crew was called at 1:12 this afternoon to put out a grass fire in a vacant lot on South Fir street between Eighth and Ninth streets.

RADICAL ROUNDUP FOLLOWS PLACING OF BOMB AT FAIR

New York Police Gather in All Known Agitators—Two Killed by Explosion

New York, July 5.—(AP)—The bomb which exploded and killed two detectives at the New York world's fair was powerful enough to have blown out a wall of the British pavilion where it had been planted, police reported today.

Commissioner Lewis J. Valentine said the bomb was of the "dynamite shrapnel" type and weighed about 20 pounds. It exploded in the open after detectives had carried it from the pavilion and were prying into the bag in which it was carried.

$1000 Reward

While police were rounding up all known radicals in an unprecedented effort to track down those responsible for planting the bomb, the Detectives Endowment association offered a $1,000 reward for the arrest and conviction of the guilty person or persons.

Throughout the night and this morning, at least 75 persons were taken to headquarters for questioning. Most of them had been listed by police previously because of public utterances indicating they were not in sympathy with the democratic form of government. All were asked about their activities during the past week, particularly on Wednesday and yesterday; most were released promptly after the checkup.

Raid Red Rendezvous

Protesting agitators were hauled down from soap boxes in Columbus circle, the "red rendezvous," and rushed unceremoniously to police headquarters. Others were seized in downtown haunts; still others were routed from bed.

Mayor Fiorelli H. LaGuardia declared, "There will be a most thorough investigation, and there won't be any letup."

Two of those injured were in critical condition today.

The bomb, a flame-thrower and disguised as a portable radio, was intended to destroy the British pavilion.

July 3, a boy weighing 10 pounds. The baby has been named William Russell.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Clogston on July 2 in Community hospital, a boy weighing six pounds, nine ounces. The Clogstons live in Bly. Mrs. Clogston is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Clement, 1223 West Main street, and the former Miss Ruth Clement.

HOTEL LODGER IS INJURED BY FALL FROM 2ND STORY

James Hughes, 43, was confined in Sacred Heart hospital today with a broken right arm and leg, severe bruises and face lacerations, sustained when he fell from a second story window of the Palace hotel, 30 South Central avenue, early this morning.

Although no x-ray pictures had been taken, his attending physician stated that Hughes probably didn't have a fractured skull and was apparently not critically injured.

City police, who investigated the accident, said that Hughes rented a room at the hotel shortly after midnight last night after coming to Medford from Grants Pass, where he had been employed fighting fire. Police said he had been drinking and obviously lost his balance while looking out the window.

Hughes tumbled to the South Central avenue sidewalk and was knocked unconscious. He was discovered by a night city police patrolman, who summoned the Peri ambulance to remove him to the hospital.

Police said that Hughes had been around Medford off and on for several years, and that he spent some of his time in the south Medford "jungle" camp.

LADINO CLOVER SEED CERTIFICATION PLEAS REQUIRED BY JULY 15

Applications for the certification of ladino clover seed fields are now being received at the county agent's office. The applications must be on file by July 15, with the field inspection fees paid, said County Agent Robert G. Fowler. The fields are to be inspected before August 1, he stated.

Certified ladino clover seeds bring a higher price than the ordinary run of seeds, Mr. Fowler said in explaining the purpose of certification. While some expense is involved in certification, the larger returns more than justify the added expense, he emphasized. To obtain certification, growers must have their fields and seeds inspected, he related, adding that blue, red and yellow tags are issued according to the grade of the seed, these tags being accepted at face value in any market.

Last year about 300 acres in Jackson county were planted to ladino clover seeds, this year the acreage has been increased 50 per cent to 450 acres, Mr. Fowler stated.

BARNFUL OF HAY RUINED BY BLAZE

Fire today ruined about 15 tons of chopped hay stored in a barn on the Ralph Stanley farm near the Antelope school. Curiously, the barn was not burned.

The hay started burning in the middle two weeks ago from spontaneous ignition but Mr. Stanley was told the blaze would smother itself, state forest patrol headquarters said. At 3 a.m. today, however, the hay started burning around the edges and then the forest patrol was notified.

The patrol office dispatched a crew of six men and a pumper. It took six hours to get the blaze out.

The indictment, the department said, was the first under the fair labor standards act on an industry-wide scale, although single companies have been indicted previously.
